The Canton Connection

IN OBSERVATION of Veteran's Day today, many governmental offices and some businesses are closed.

The Canton Township administration building is closed, although the library will be open its regular Monday hours of 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Garbage pick-up is not affected by the holiday.

All county offices, including the health clinics, are closed; the MESC office off Joy Road also is closed.

Some banks and savings and loans are closed, others have only their drive-through windows open. Customers should call ahead before making an unnecessary trip.

THE MEMORIAL Fund for John Flodin, which stands at about $200 now, is still accepting donations. Contributions can be made by mail payable to the John W. Flodin Memorial Fund, 1150 S. Canton Center Road, Canton 48188, or to the cashier in the treasurer's department.

According to Mike Gouin, superintendent of parks and recreation, the committee overseeing the fund will be meeting soon to discuss an appropriate memorial to Flodin.

THE CANTON Township Parks and Recreation Department is sponsoring its annual Thanksgiving party for children ages 3 through 12 from 10 to 11 a.m. Saturday at the Canton Recreation Center on Michigan Avenue at Sheldon.

Among the activities will be a cartoon carnival, games, refreshments and special door prizes.

Reservations must be made ahead of time by calling the recreation department weekdays between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. at 397-1000.

Police to seek warrant in woman's death

Canton police are expected to seek a warrant for the arrest of Charles Fisher, husband of a 32-year-old Canton woman who was killed in July.

Ella Marie Murcado-Fisher, 32, was found by her husband bound and unconscious in the couple's home on Thornwood July 15.

She was kept alive by a respirator at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital in Ypsilanti until July 20. Her family deeided to disconnect the life-support system when Murcado-Fisher was pronounced brain dead.

In August, police took samples of duct tape used to gag Murcado-Fisher to the Illinois State Crime Lab for laser testing.

With laser testing — costly new technology Michigan will have next year — prints not apparent with conventional methods fluoresce and can be photographed using special camera lenses. The laser process is time-consuming and entails several steps, which has slowed the progress of the investigation.

Police have interviewed "a couple hundred (in- and out-of-state) co-workers, teachers and associates" of both the victim and her husband, a microbiologist.

Fisher, 44, teaches at Ross University on Dominica, a British island in the West Indies. The Missouri native recently sold the couple's ranch home and moved back to the Caribbean, police say. Officers said Fisher, speaking through his attorney, has refused to be interviewed.

Police intend to present to the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office laser test results, physical and circumstantial evidence and request that a warrant for Fisher's arrest be issued, said Canton Lt. Larry Stewart. That office would initiate extradition proceedings, should they be necessary.

FISHER TOLD police he was home in bed when he thought he heard his wife returning from her job at Chelsea Community Hospital shortly before midnight on July 15. He said he went downstairs to investigate and was hit on the head from behind.

When Fisher came to, he said he found himself upstairs bound to his bed, but he freed himself. He went down to the living room where he found his wife bound and gagged, Fisher said.

Fisher told police his truck, which was parked in the driveway, was missing. On July 16, Detroit police recovered the truck near the Ambassador Bridge.

The Fishers, who were married for five years, lived in several places in the United States and overseas before moving to Canton within the last year.

Murcado-Fisher reportedly had come to Michigan to enroll in a mas-

He's a Torch Drive champ

More than anything, Canton's Ricky Hamn wants to be treated like everyone else. He's 14, and, not surprisingly, he enjoys talking baseball, hunting and fishing.

Thursday afternoon, he wanted his dad to take him to get some rookie cards to add to his baseball card collection.

But Arleigh Hamn said no. He and his son were expected shortly at a downtown United Foundation "victory dinner" featuring Howard Cosell at Detroit's Renaissance Center.

RICKY WAS to appear as a guest of honor at the gathering of 300-plus people. To him, though, it was no big deal. Neither is the fact that he's had two kidney transplants and was chosen as a "Torchlighter" for the 1984 Torch Drive.

When an Observer photographer asked Ricky to pick up his mitt and play a little ball, the Franklin Junior High School student cracked, "Hey, you don't have to take my picture. I don't want to get drafted before my time.

"And don't put in the part about what school I go to. People don't like to read about schools," he said.

RICKY'S parents first knew something was drastically wrong with their son when he was 16 months old.

Doctors noticed abdomenal swelling, and later diagnosed rare genetic cystic kidney and liver problems along with spinal meningitis.

"Ricky's doctors at the University of Michigan told us to take him home and start making funeral arrangements — that he wouldn't live to be 3 years old," said Ricky's father, a job setter at Livonia's Ford transmission plant.

"But he was a strong kid, and he was able to hang in there. They kept finding new ways of doing things. Finally, they got to where they were doing dialysis for kids, and then doing transplants," Hamn said.

IN 1978, Ricky underwent his first transplant. His father was the donor. He suffered a setback three years ago when his body rejected the organ. A second transplant was arranged. This time his mother, Reida Diane Willsey of Crystal Falls in the Upper Penninsula, was the donor.

Canton's Ricky Hamn, the recipient of two kidney transplants, was selected as one of the United Foundation's five "Torchlighters" for this year's record-breaking Torch Drive.

Tough battle fought

Brown edges Bodenmiller

For Carol Bodenmiller, it's time to step back and see what's on the horizon.

Bodenmiller, a six-year township trustee, was defeated Tuesday in her bid for treasurer by Republican challenger Gerald Brown. Of the township races, Brown and Bodenmiller finished the closest with 1,359 votes separating them.

As the election neared, Bodenmiller said she became increasingly pessimistic, knowing that the outcome of the treasurer's race "was going to depend on the national election and the mood of the country.

"So many people voted only to vote for president," Bodenmiller said. She contends that if the presidental race results had been closer, "the Democrats would have had a better chance."

TUESDAY'S RESULTS strengthened her belief that "local politics should be non-partisan."

Despite some suggestions by politician friends, Bodenmiller said she never considered switching parties, and "wouldn't change just to be elected." Bodenmiller said her own personal beliefs lean toward the Democrats and "to your own self you have to be true."

Bodenmiller said she feels "a personal loss" about the election's outcome, adding that after working for so many years and on so many projects, "suddenly you're cut off.

"I'm going to miss the kind of rapport that this board had. We had a very enjoyable relationship. We were all working toward a better Canton."

After taking this last political gamble and losing, Bodenmiller said she is not considering running for elected office again. She said she will continue to work at a local funeral home and plans on taking some courses with her daughters.

BROWN WAS sympathetic to Bodenmiller's feelings, saying "I think the campaign was run very nicely. Carol's a nice lady — it (losing) was worse for her than it would have been for me because she's experienced and she lost her job. She'll miss it and she's sad."

Car crash on Lilley kills woman

Icy roads are being blamed for the death of a pregnant Southgate woman who died early this morning after her car was struck broadside on Lilley Road in Canton.

Kelleigh Anne Brown, 22, was pronounced dead at 1:45 a.m. at the Westland Medical Center. Medical personnel were unable to save the six-month fetus, according to police.

Brown was driving north on Lilley Road shortly shortly after midnight when she lost control of her car, south of Warren Road, said Canton Officer Bill Keppen.

Brown's car slid sideways across the center line. A southbound pickup truck, driven by Christopher J. Papa, 23, of Canton, collided with Brown's Renault LeCar, Keppen said.

CANTON FIREFIGHTERS transported Brown to the Westland Medical Center. Papa and his wife were uninjured.

"Although he was not at fault, Papa was arrested for operating a vehicle under the influence of liquor," Keppen said.

This accident happened at "almost the same spot as a fatal (automobile accident) last year," Keppen said.

Brown lost control of her car at the point Lilley Road switches from four lanes to two, south of Warren Road.

"It appears there may be some engineering problem there," Keppen said.

Brown's death is Canton's second traffic fatality thus far this year.

"It's considerably less than the 14 we had last year," Keppen said. "The alcohol enforcement team is doing its work."

Clerk's office wraps up elections

The employees of the clerk's office predict that it's going to be the end of the year before Canton's 1984 election is wrapped up. The local board of canvassers verified the election results Thursday and the county must perform its canvass within 30 days of the election.

Beverly Dennis, one of the clerk's office employees, commended Geneva Ford for the "magnificent job" she did running the election following the Oct. 18 death of Canton Clerk John Flodin and the sense of calm she brought with her.

Ford, a retired clerk from Wayne, served as acting clerk for the final two weeks before the election. She worked through the election until the local results were verified.

"I'm not sure we could have held together without her," Dennis said. "She had so many things prepared . . . you knew she was in charge."

Very few problems were reported to the clerk's office and most of those involved voters who had waited to vote in the wrong line and were turned away.

A letter writen by Flodin on Aug. 12 following the primary election and mailed to all the candidates in October may have reduced the number of complaints about exuberant people passing out literature near the polls violating the 100-foot rule, Dennis said.

By law, they are prohibited from handing out literature or posting signs within 100 feet of the entrance to a polling place.

SWEARING-IN ceremony for the newly-elected candidates is slated for 7 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 20 at township hall. Retiring 35th District Judge Dunbar Davis will conduct the ceremony.

A reception will follow the oath-taking ceremonies and the public is invited to attend. District Judge-elect James MacDonald, 36th District state Rep. Gerald Law, 37th District state Representative-elect James Kosteva, Sen. Robert Geake, R-Northville, and Wayne County Commissioner Milt Mack are expected, according to Canton Township Supervisor James Poole.

In other races, Canton voted as follows:

- 72 percent for President Reagan, 27.4 percent for Walter Mondale, and .2 percent for Libertarian David Bergland
- 56.4 percent for Republican Jack Lousma, 42.5 percent for Democratic U.S. Sen. Carl Levin
- 52.2 percent for U.S. Rep. William Ford (the only Democrat to win in Canton), 47.7 percent for Republican Gerald R. Carlson
- 74.2 percent for incumbent U.S. Rep. Gerald H. Law, 25.7 percent for Democrat Lucian Cayce
- 50.1 percent for Republican Georgia Gramlich, 49.8 percent for Democrat James Kosteva in the 37th District state representative race
- For library director, 19 percent for Douglas Ritter, 16.5 percent for James Gillig, 16.5 percent for Katherine Baldrica, 16.1 percent for both John Schwartz III and Mary Feltz and 15.6 percent for Norma Jean West.
- 33.6 percent for Republican Dorothy Beardmore and 30.6 percent for Republican Cherry Jacobus in the State Board of Education run-off
- 30.8 percent for Republican Neal D. Nielsen, and 30.1 percent for Republican Veronica Latta Smith in the board of Regents of the University of Michigan race
- 32 percent for Republican George Bashara and 30.7 percent for Republican Gary Artinian in the Board of Governors of Wayne State University race
- 53.4 percent for Republican Robert Slaughter and 45.9 percent for Democratic Sheriff Robert Ficano
- 53.6 percent for Republican Henry Lauve and 46.3 percent for Democrat James R. Killeen in the county clerk's race
- 54.4 percent for Republican Herbert Amthor and 45.5 percent for Democrat Raymond Wojtowicz in the county treasurer's race
- 56.1 percent for Republican Lawrence Schweiger and 43.8 percent for Democrat Forest Youngblood in the Register of Deeds' race
- 93.3 percent for Democrat Charles Youngblood and 6.6 percent for Libertarian Scott Scarborough in the Drain Commissioner's race
- 58.8 percent for Dorothy Comstock Riley and 32.9 percent for Thomas Giles Kavanagh in the race for Supreme Court

Men give no contest pleas

Five men arrested at a Canton Township rest stop in September pleaded no contest to the charges of disorderly conduct at their pre-trial examinations in 35th District Court Thursday.

By pleading no contest, the men gave up their right to a trial and neither admitted nor denied the charges, Judge James Garber said. Garber referred the cases to the probation department and requested pre-sentence reports on each of the defendants.

Pleading no contest were Richard A. Goode, 50, who resigned as principal of Wick Elementary School in Romulus last month; Daniel G. Toro, 37, of Harrison; John M. Tate, 43, of Dearborn; William A. Luallen, 55, of Livonia; and Phillip T. Jenkins, 36, vice president of the Center For Creative Studies in Detroit.

It was incorrectly reported earlier that Jenkins requested, and was scheduled for, a trial next month.

Although pleading no contest, the men are subject to the same degree of punishment a plea of guilty would carry, Garber said. It is possible he will consider some form of probation or deferred sentencing which could result in dismissal of the charges, Garber said.

The maximum sentence for the charges of disorderly conduct by engaging in indecent or obscene behavior in a public place is 90 days in jail and a $100 fine.

All the men were arrested either Sept. 20 or 24 in an undercover investigation by the Michigan State police at the I-275 rest stop in Canton Township. Twenty-four men were arrested in the September operations and seven others were arrested Oct. 18.

State police recently released the name of the seventh man arrested in the October operations. He is Lawrence Galbraith, 23, of Taylor.

How gifted face stress

A special workshop on "Stress and the Gifted Child" will be presented this week at the regular meeting of the Plymouth-Canton Association for the Academically Talented (PCAAT).

The workshop, featuring June Yackness, clinical psychologist, and Ruthan Brodsky will be held 7:30-9:30 p.m. Wednesday in Pioneer Middle School on Ann Arbor Road west of Sheldon in Plymouth.

"One of the reasons gifted children trend to be prone to stress is because they are very sensitive to the feelings of other people and to issues that are global in nature such as the environment and nuclear warfare," said Yackness.

Both speakers are principles of Brodsky and Yackness Associates, a consulting group for education and business based in Bloomfield Hills.

They will describe the primary causes of stress in gifted children, show parents and teachers how to identify stress symptoms in gifted children, and how to teach coping skills to the children so they can manage their own stress.

"We have found an increasing number of teachers are aware of the gifted children in their classes and are eager to learn how to interact with them," explains Brodsky, founder of the Roeper Review, a journal on gifted education.

"Understanding the behavior patterns of gifted children is the first step to helping these children manage their stress."

Yackness and Brodsky are experienced in program and staff development in gifted education. Their clinets include the Michigan Department of Education, Northwestern University, Roeper City and Country School, and The Academy of the Gifted.

A happy Mary Beth Weast relaxes on the bench. With Salem solidly in the lead the starters get some rest to avoid needlessly running up the score.

The Rock squad goes through exercises for pre-game warm-up Thursday night while the Churchill team works out in the background.

Rock cagers advancing in state tourney

THE PLYMOUTH Salem Rocks enter the second round of playoff action in girls basketball when they face Livonia Bentley Tuesday night.

The game at Salem will begin at 7:30.

The Rocks advanced in Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) play by defeating Livonia Churchill Thursday night by a score of 48-30. The Rocks, coached by Fred Thomann, were leading 16-0 in the opening minutes of the game and coasted to an easy win.

The Plymouth Canton Chiefs were knocked out of tourney play Thursday night by falling 49-44 to the Bentley Bulldogs. The schedule for tourney action is Thursday and Friday for the WLAA championship game, Monday, Nov. 26, district tournament, Tuesday, Nov. 27, district tournament, and Wednesday, Nov. 28, district play.

All tourney games Salem plays in will be broadcast by WSDP (88.1 FM), the student-operated radio station at Centennial Educational Park. Broadcast time for all games is 7:30 p.m.

Busy day for Owens

American runner Jesse Owens is probably best remembered for his success during the Olympics in Hitler's Germany in 1936.

However, Owens racked up some remarkable, less heralded records in his life. He's the only athlete to have his name entered in the record book six times in one day. He broke world records for a variety of 100-yard and 220-yard runs on May 25, 1935.

Apples paid more than potatoes

By W.W. Edgar
staff writer

The golden summer sun was starting to slip down the hills and cast a shadow over the windows in the dining room of the Plymouth Orchard and Cider Mill when owner Dave Emmett chuckled over the odd twist his life had taken.

"You may not believe this," he said, "but when my family and I came away out here on Warren Road, I had hopes of being a potato farmer. Then I was talked out of it, and this place is the result."

He still was smiling when he revealed that when he bought a piece of property on Napier Road it had three acres or one fourth of the present 12-acre orchard.

"I told my neighbor that I was planning to cut down the apple trees and plant potatoes and become a real potato farmer. My neighbor listened, then he said, 'See that red fruit on the limbs of those trees. They are apples and there's a lot more money in apples than there is in potatoes.'

"That gave me a thought and we decided to switch. I knew nothing of raising apples but I listened. Then I wanted more than three acres.

"For a time we moved to Northville, but in the meantime the other nine acres became available and we bought them. So, here we are — the owners of a cider mill and an orchard."

HE PURCHASED the farm in 1977 and a year later opened a small portion as a cider mill. And business was so great that an addition has been made each year til now they harvest 20,000 bushels of apples a year to care for the trade.

His real chuckle came when he related that when the first unit was opened in 1978 it was in the rear of the little white house. He decided to open for business on a Sunday when most folks are out and he never dreamed of the surprise that was in store him.

"Within an hour or two after we opened," he said, "the line was along the lot, then up to Napier Road, and we never saw anything like it.

"This showing proved that we had made the right choice and today we have purchased enough ground to plant 12,000 trees. We started with 5,000 in 1977, but each year the demand has increased until now we have added a dining room, the latest equipment, a bake shop and kitchen. And we are still growing.

"If we add anything this year it will be an addition to the kitchen — we need it."

One of the odd things of this successful venture is that many of the people who came here on the first Sunday are still coming back, and they, too, marvel at the additions that have been built in the passing years.

ONE OF the major events he remembers is the storm in 1981 that uprooted more than 1,200 trees.

"We had 12,000 trees at the time but the storm cut our number to a little more than 10,000. But we are still doing very well.

"The past year was a success even though we had rain on many of the Sunday afternoons that cut down attendance. But we did well.

"After all there is more stock than just cider. We now bake doughnuts and sell a great many. We also sell the apple pulp to hunters when they go north in quest of their deer or other prizes of the hunting season.

"But there came a time when the end of the cider season brought on a lapse of work.

"I had to find something and now we have added ice skating and skiing. That helps in the winter months to keep a fellow busy.

"So all told, our venture has been a success even though today's customers are more fussy than they were that Sunday morning when they lined up as far as Napier Road to get our first supply of apple cider that was made possible with a small press."

Then he added, "It was a queer twist in life to have dreams of being a potato farmer and wind up with a cider mill, a ski slope, and an ice skating rink."

No mail today

The Plymouth Post Office will operate on a holiday schedule today in observance of Veterans' Day.

Joseph Bryan, officer-in-charge, said regular residential and business deliveries will not be made with the exception of post office services between the hours of 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Special delivery and express mail service will continue during the holiday weekend. Mail pickup from collection boxes also will be on holiday schedule, as posted on individual boxes.

Let's return to city ambulance

To the editor:

Almost seven months ago to the date I wrote a letter to the editor expressing my concern about the Plymouth City Commission "rubber stamping" a desire of City Manager Henry Graper to dissolve the rescue ambulance service that had been part of the Plymouth Fire Department for many years.

After reading the two local newspapers' reports on a performance by the selected replacement for our "own" ambulance service during a rescue call for a heart attack victim on Oct. 22, I would think it would be hard for both the city manager and members of the City Commission to sleep at night.

You would like to believe both Graper and the City Commission would want to relive April 16, 1984 — the date CEMS was "contracted" to do the city's ambulance service. No, to add insult to injury on Monday, Nov. 6, Graper said he is very satisfied with CEMS after reviewing details of the paramedic service's delayed response to a heart attack victim. This latest incident cannot be put aside as "it's just an isolated incident and hopefully it won't happen again."

IT SHOULD be made part of the public record of what happened on that fateful day of Oct. 22. What was the real cause for the delay? Is the director of CEMS trying to cover up inadequacies in his services that have always been there, both in equipment and personnel. How long will it take to correct the causes of these "isolated incidents?"

Both local newspapers have written several articles related to runs by the CEMS to the likes of "the Keystone Cops." As residents of this great city we should demand and accept only the best services available, even if this means going back to the system Graper dissolved back in April. It has been difficult for me to understand the logic in dissolving a system that can reach any part of the city within two or three minutes and replace it with a service that might be there, if it is convenient and they find the address.

If it means to have the most dependable services the city must again have its own ambulance service, perhaps we could use Graper's next year's salary as a down payment on some new equipment and personnel training.

Ricky Hamn, 14, is an avid baseball card collector, and has been known to play a little ball himself.

Torchlighter's schedule busy

Ricky has had eight major operations. His spleen was removed, he's had a shunt bypass for his liver, and two shunts for dialysis, Hamn said. While physicians can't say how long Ricky will live, "He's been doing great.

"He takes six different medications every day, but he's like any normal kid. His blood pressure has been under control, and he can do pretty much what he likes. Double transplants are getting pretty plentiful now," Hamn said.

RICKY, WHO has medical checkups twice a month, says he has "no idea" how he was selected as one of metro-Detroit's five Torchlighters by the National Kidney Foundation, a research organization providing patient education and services. Torchlighters represent thousands of people who receive help through 130 Torch-Drive-supported groups, including the Kidney Foundation.

"I talked to his mother one day, and she told me she had good news," Hamn said. "She said Ricky's blood work had come back with good results, and then she said she had more good news — that he'd been chosen Torchlighter."

RICKY SPENDS his summers in the Upper Peninsula with his mother, half-sister and three half-brothers.

Torch Drive tours, appearances, rallies, luncheons and meetings have occupied the last several months for Ricky and his father.

They were present at the lighting of the United Foundation torch at the foot of Woodward Avenue in downtown Detroit on the eve of the Torch Drive and commemorated its conclusion during "a beautiful night" at last week's victory dinner.

THE UF exceeded its goal of $50 million by $860,966 — keeping up a Torch Drive tradition of never once failing to meet its financial aim.

"We spent a week at the Ford plant in Sterling Heights," Hamn said. "They wrote us a letter thanking us for our time and complimenting Ricky.

"They said they raised $33,000 at that plant and had 91-percent participation. Ford raised $9 million all together."

Said Ricky, "I like going to Ford's, but I like Sanders (tours) the best."

"Emotionally, it's been a rough 14 years," Hamn said. "The Torch Drive has helped considerably, and donations to the Kidney Foundation have given me his life.

"Lots of love has helped us pull through it."

Police have identified a runner who was killed by a motorist early Wednesday morning as Bernard Weiss, 41, of Canton.

Police identify killed runner

By Gary M. Cates
staff writer

Police have identified a jogger who was hit and killed early Wednesday morning as 41-year-old Bernard Weiss of Canton.

Weiss was jogging shortly after midnight on Ann Arbor Trail near Haggerty when a car struck him. He was pronounced dead at the scene.

Police were unable to identify Weiss at the time of the accident because he did not have identification with him in his running clothes.

Weiss was identified Friday following a Michigan State Police computer check of fingerprints to match the body.

Police decided to start the fingerprint search after no one was reported missing Wednesday.

According to officer Robert Henry, Weiss was running west of Haggerty when a car driven by a 27-year-old Westland man struck him. Apparently Weiss was running in the middle of the road or crossing the road, as he was hit near the center line.

Weiss was wearing dark clothes and radio earphones. Police speculate Weiss never heard the car approach behind him.

The driver, who was on his way to work, was questioned and released.

According to police, Weiss lived alone at the Newbury Port condominiums at Sheldon and Warren. He has a teen-age daughter living in Wayne.

Weiss' death is the second car/jogger fatality in recent years. Elementary school principal Ed Kleinsmith was killed in 1982 when a car hit him as he jogged on Joy Road.

Bodenmiller deals with defeat; Brown gets set for tax season

Brown said, "There's no doubt the strength of the Republicans helped me and some others. The clerk and treasurer races were not influenced "nearly as greatly as some of the other races, particularly the trustees, by the President's and Republicans' victories."

Brown said he is looking forward to the challenge of the treasurer's job and that his number one goal will be "harmony in the treasurer's office."

For the deputy treasurer post, Brown has selected Michael Dani, a Canton resident and self-employed CPA for the last 12 years. "He'll be inactive, but I'll keep him briefed on things," Brown said.

The tax season will be getting under way just as the newly elected township officials are sworn in on Nov. 20. Brown said "the big work load is December and January, so I'll only have nine days to gear up. I'll have to go through an accelerated learning phase."

A Plymouth travel agency had been arranging a trip to West Germany for Murcado-Fisher. She was scheduled to leave the same day she died. Several days before, her husband called the agency to cancel the reservations, according to agency staffers.

Murcado-Fisher was buried in Lexington, Ky., where many of her relatives reside. Her parents, who live in Bolivia, South America, have spent time in Thailand, Washington D.C. and Florida. Manuel Murcado, Murcado-Fisher's father, is employed by the U.S. Navy.

THE ROLE OF X-RAYS IN DIAGNOSING ARTHRITIS
X-rays are used in arthritis to assess the cause and extent of damage that has occurred to joints.
The pattern of bone and joint changes seen in the x-ray is helpful in determining the type of arthritis that is present. Often rheumatoid arthritis, gout, or osteoarthritis can be identified by their x-ray features.
Specific x-ray findings which indicate the severity of the arthritis include bone thinning, loss of joint space, extra calcifications, and altered alignment of bones.
Your physician may take x-rays of the involved joints early in the course of your arthritis, and some months later repeat the x-rays. Comparison of the films helps him determine progression of the condition or its improvement under treatment.
Joint x-rays have limits, changes can occur which will not show up on the film. Thus, an apparently normal x-ray does not mean that your joint is free of arthritis. However, the more normal the joint x-ray, the more likely that the damage that has occurred is minimal and possibly reversible.

Little seen of Mary Dumas

To the editor:
Now that the political season is over with, and the residents of the 10th District have spoke and made their choice, I would like to know what kind of representation Wayne County Commissioner Mary Dumas is going to give Plymouth and Plymouth Township. (I have only seen her in Plymouth around election time.)
It's my understanding that former county commissioner Bill Joyner went to bat for the residents more times and got more accomplished for the residents of Plymouth and Plymouth township than current Commissioner Dumas. I hope since the people of Plymouth and Plymouth Township re-elected Dumas, she will spend more time assisting the residents and senior citizens with their needs and concerns.

Plymouth Police are number 1

To the editor:
Devils' Night we were plagued by seven or eight teen-age devils. We had a fuel-fed fire on our porch, our trees were festooned, and there was loud scratching on our screens. Not satisfied, they started chanting and taunting.
When I called the police they got here so fast they caught a few of the "devils" and got an admission about the fire, implicating a boy just down the street. These Plymouth Police are No. 1 in my book and I hereby thank them.
My wife and I, both 73, have health problems. Her heart and breathing problems are serious. I guess that most kids have no conscience but their parents have even less if they let their teen-agers out on "D" night.
There have been incidents here on Simpson near McKinley: garage breakins, egg throwing at senior citizens' windows, deliberate vehicle-crashing of a mail box, etc.
Now, I hope, this area will be watched more closely.

Dreaming season blossoms with beauty

the stroller
W.W. Edgar

Now that the beautiful multicolored leaves have fallen and been brushed away, their passing marked the opening of the dream season — the time when a fellow starts planning for next spring and what his garden will look like.

For several days The Stroller has struggled with the leaves and now that most of them are gone his eyes are on the flower garden and what it will look like next summmer.

This dreaming is nothing unusual. Most good architects dream about what a building will look like before they ever place a pencil on the drawing board.

It is a known fact that our good friend Erick Carne, who designed the new small shopping center and the district court house, spent many hours just dreaming about what these areas should look like.

In fact, Erick studied the buildings in Plymouth, Mass., to get an idea of the "Plymouth approach." He later made a connection with the folks in Plymouth, England, before he finalized an idea. And now his designs and buildings are rated among the finest in the area.

SO IT has been with The Stroller. He has checked his garden and marked the area where the flowers didn't do so well. Now he is dreaming of the changes that can be made to make it real attractive when the warm days of summer are with us.

According to the dream the area where the vegetables didn't do so well will become a flower garden next spring. And it will be unusual in that the entire ground will be covered with multicolored flowers.

In fact he is dreaming of using flowers colored yellow and mix them with some blue — just out of respect for the University of Michigan. And around the fountain in another section there will be green and white to pay tribute to Michigan State — another area he covered as a young sports writer some years ago.

Sure, there will be some vegetables, but very few. There will be the usual tomatoes and onions and a bit of lettuce. But mostly the area will be flowers.

The work already has started. During the cold autumn days he has spent some time removing the plants that were nipped by the frost. In other cases he just cut the plants back to give them a better start next spring.

CONTRARY TO some flower specialists who remove their tulip bulbs, The Stroller left them in the ground, hopeful that they will shoot through the ground and bloom again next spring.

Sure, it is dreaming. But dreams are made of days like this. And if it wasn't for dreaming we wouldn't have those beautiful flowers and the beautiful gardens.

Since he moved from the inner city to the country, as it was called some years ago, The Stroller has taken a liking to the garden, the lawn and the placing of burning bushes that lend plenty of color to any lawn or garden.

For a while his time was used mostly on vegetables. But there is little need of a vast vegetable garden for two persons. So the change is being made.

And like the architect he is now dreaming of what the gardens will look like next spring and summer.

Here's hoping they will be as nice and unusual as Erick Carne's latest buildings.

After all you can't hate a fellow for dreaming.

Anti-pornography group pickets local stores

By Maurie Walker
staff writer

The sale of pornographic magazines by party stores and other establishments is being battled across the country, and has made waves locally.

Pastor Donald Mullett of the Garden City Christian Center, along with the Rev. M. Gregory Gentry of Canton Calvary Church in Canton, are spearheading the campaign locally.

On Oct. 27, members from the two churches joined in the National Pornography Awareness Week by picketing stores which sell porno magazines in Garden City, Westland, Canton and Plymouth.

The Plymouth Church of the Nazarene led the demonstration in the City of Plymouth at Lawson's and 7-Eleven party stores.

A group of 12 persons, nine women and three men, picketed the S and M Party Store at 33439 Ford, Garden City, and the Trade Vine Party Shoppe, 33610 Ford, Westland.

Several months ago, Mullett helped lead a picket of other 7-Eleven stores in western Wayne County.

"We plan to continue this campaign to rid our city of the sale of pornographic material," Mullett. "We are not trying to push our beliefs on others, but when the sale of this material hurts our community we want to do something about it."

The picketing received negative and positive responses from a few passersby, Mullet said.

He plans to attend a decency seminar this week in Madison Heights, sponsored by the National Federation for Decency.

"THIS SEMINAR, to be attended by church representatives from all over the area, will allow us to join with other participants in a permanent interdenominational fellowship of action against pornography," Mullet said.

"It will help us to develop skills in answering cliche questions about censorship and the First Amendment and how to plan for successful community action."

He said one of the goals is to attempt to call attention to the stores that sell porno magazines that "pornography does not belong in the family marketplace.

"Pornography is both anti-family and anti-Christian. We believe that all people who are concerned over the welfare of our children, the rapidly rising rape rate, and the moral climate of our country, should boycott businesses which sell or promote pornography," Mullett added.

"A recent study done at the University of New Hampshire showed that the states which had the highest readership of magazines such as Playboy, Penthouse, etc., also had the highest rape rate," he said.

The Michigan State Police found pornography is used or imitated in 41 percent of the sex crimes they investigate, he said.

"By picketing, we are exercising two basic constitutional rights, the right of free speech, and the right of citizens to peaceably assemble.

"We hope that through the exercise of these rights, we will call attention to the growing menace of pornography not only in the nation but right here," Mullett said. "We want to stress that this campaign against pornography is not an attempt on our part to push our beliefs onto someone else. We are representing the interests of most of our community's upright citizens who do not believe that such material has any place in the family marketplaces."

Candidate expresses thanks

To the editor:

Dear friends, neighbors, family and all who supported me during my stay in office: Do not be too disappointed. I lost the bid for treasurer but in many ways I feel that I won. The township's aims and goals are strong. The incumbents are honest and sincere and will help the new members of the board to continue toward those goals and ideals that were set in motion during my terms in office.

To serve one's community, to be totally involved, to broaden one's horizon, to gain new friendships and maintain old ones and yet be true to one's self is my reward.

My heartfelt thanks to all of you!

crime watch

TWO CANTON Township youths and a Livonia youth were arrested and charged with unlawful entry about noon Nov. 1 after being discovered in a vacant house for sale on Greenleaf Road.

A neighbor noticed the teens enter the house and called the Canton Police. One of the teens opened the door when police arrived and the other two were found hiding under the stairway.

The 18-year-old Canton youth, who also was charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors, was released on bond. The 15-year-old Canton boy was released to his parents, and the 16-year-old Livonia boy was taken to a youth home in Detroit. All are to appear in 35th District Court later this month.

A SNOWBLOWER, kerosene heater and three cases of Pepsi were stolen from an unlocked garage/tool shed in the 44000 block of Dutchess Drive sometime Oct. 31 or Nov. 1.

AN EMPLOYEE of the Mutual Savings and Loan on Ford Road reported a case of fraud about 5:30 p.m. Nov. 1.

A man came in and asked for a $100 bill, then said the bill given to him was only a $10. Thinking she erred, the employee gave the man a $100 bill, and upon counting her cash drawer that evening found she was $90 short.

Police are still investigating, and the man may be identified from the savings and loan video tape.

A RESIDENT of the 7000 block of Haggerty Road reported the theft of a Yamaha motorcycle and assorted tools from an unlocked garage late Nov. 2. The tools later were discovered in a field across from his home.

IN THREE SEPARATE incidents in three days, Meijer Thrifty Acres security personnel caught shoplifters in the store.

A 19-year-old Canton man and a 20-year-old Ypsilanti man were arrested Nov. 3 for concealing a wrench and a channel lock and leaving the store. Both were released on $100 bonds.

A 20-year-old Detroit man was arrested Nov. 4 after trying to walk out with $61 worth of auto parts hidden under his coat. He is free on $100 bond.

A 20-year-old Dearborn Heights woman was released on a $75 bond after attempting to steal a jacket and earrings Nov. 5.

THIEVES STOLE a gas lawn mower, a 15-piece set of golf clubs and a snow blower from a garage in the 8500 block of Elmhurst Nov. 3. The resident was unable to determine how the thieves got into the garage and stole the items which had a total value of $1,800.

THIEVES USING a bolt cutter cut through a lock on the grounds of the Clark Block Co. on Belleville Road overnight Nov. 5 and stole $2,400 worth of assorted tires, wheels, casings, rims and tubes. The bolt cutter was found and is being held by police as evidence.

A FIRE set in the corner of a model home garage on Knights Bridge caused approximately $10,000 damage Oct. 31. The fire inspector is investigating the incident.

AN ATTEMPTED break-in was reported at a home in the 44000 block of N. Umberland early Nov. 6. The living room and family room glass doors had been forced partially open and the bulbs in flood lights at the rear of the home had been loosened.

TWO FRONT DOORS of a dentist's office on Canton Center Road sustained $250 damage when they was kicked in overnight Nov. 5. A personal alarm system apparently scared the intruder away.

THIEVES NETTED a guitar, microphone and amplifier in a break-in overnight Nov. 5 in the 100 block of Roseland.

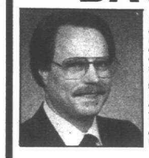
BACK PAIN


If back pains are a way of life for you, the reasons can be varied and complex. Some may be pathological, but very often the cause is muscles which are either over or under exercised which are producing spinal distortion. Vertebrae slip into abnormal positions, resulting in "pinched" and irritated nerves, which cause pain and even loss of function of the affected body part. Poor posture, or even emotional tension, can be the root cause.

APPLE PRESERVES

The apple — it abounds in song, literature, legends, and folklore. To the ancient Greeks and Romans the apple was a symbol of love and beauty. It is said that Isaac Newton contemplated the law of gravity while sitting under an apple tree. The famous William Tell was forced to shoot an apple from his son's head. Who could forget the legend of Johnny Appleseed wearing a tin pot as a hat and a burlap sack full of appleseeds around his waist. The real person, John Chapman, actually planted apple seedlings on thousands of acres through the farm belt of our country.

Home food preservation is a way of life for many throughout the country. The Ball Blue Book, now in its 31st edition, continues to guide home canners with the latest techniques and proven recipes. From this updated book come three old fashioned tasting apple pies: one made with canned apple slices, another baked with frozen pie filling, and a third using dried apples from a new section on home food dehydration. Of course, baking pies isn't the only way to enjoy apples. The home economists at Ball Corporation also suggest trying spicy sweet apple preserves, a tangy tomato apple chutney, and apple plum butter.

Brought to the U.S. by the early European colonists, apples are Americans' favorite fruit and come in many different varieties. Good tart varieties for pies and other baked desserts include the Granny Smith, Gravenstein, Newtown Pippin, Northern Spy, and York Imperial. When it's important that the apple hold its shape in canning, the best bets are Rome Beauty, Golden Delicious, Winesap, and Granny Smith. For freezing try Rhode Island Greening and Newtown Pippin. And for drying, good choices include Rome Beauty, Winesap and Granny Smith. A mixture of tart crisp apples and sweet mellow apples is perfect for sauce.

Apples in season are at their peak of flavor and texture, and because they are plentiful and often locally grown, they are a good value. Seek out top quality apples to make these pies and spreads and you will be rewarded with palate pleasing finished products. For the freshest apples, buy directly from a farmer's roadside stand. Or you may want to pick your own in a nearby orchard — a delightful family activity for a fall weekend. Then don't forget to "put up" the pickings in your favorite apple recipe and enjoy old fashioned apple flavor all year long. Remember, when necessary, to correct processing time or pressure for altitude using your home canning guide.

APPLE PRESERVES

6 cups peeled, cored, sliced apples
1 cup water
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 package powdered pectin
1 lemon, thinly sliced
4 cups sugar
2 teaspoons ground nutmeg

Prepare home canning jars and lids according to manufacturer's instructions.
Combine apples, water, and lemon juice in a large saucepan. Simmer, covered, for 10 minutes. Stir in pectin. Bring to a full rolling boil, stirring frequently. Add lemon slices and sugar. Return to a full rolling boil. Boil hard for 1 minute, stirring frequently. Remove from heat; add nutmeg. Carefully pour hot, into hot jars, leaving 1/4 inch head space. Adjust caps.
Process 10 minutes in a boiling water bath canner. Yield: about 6 half pint jars.

APPLE PLUM BUTTER

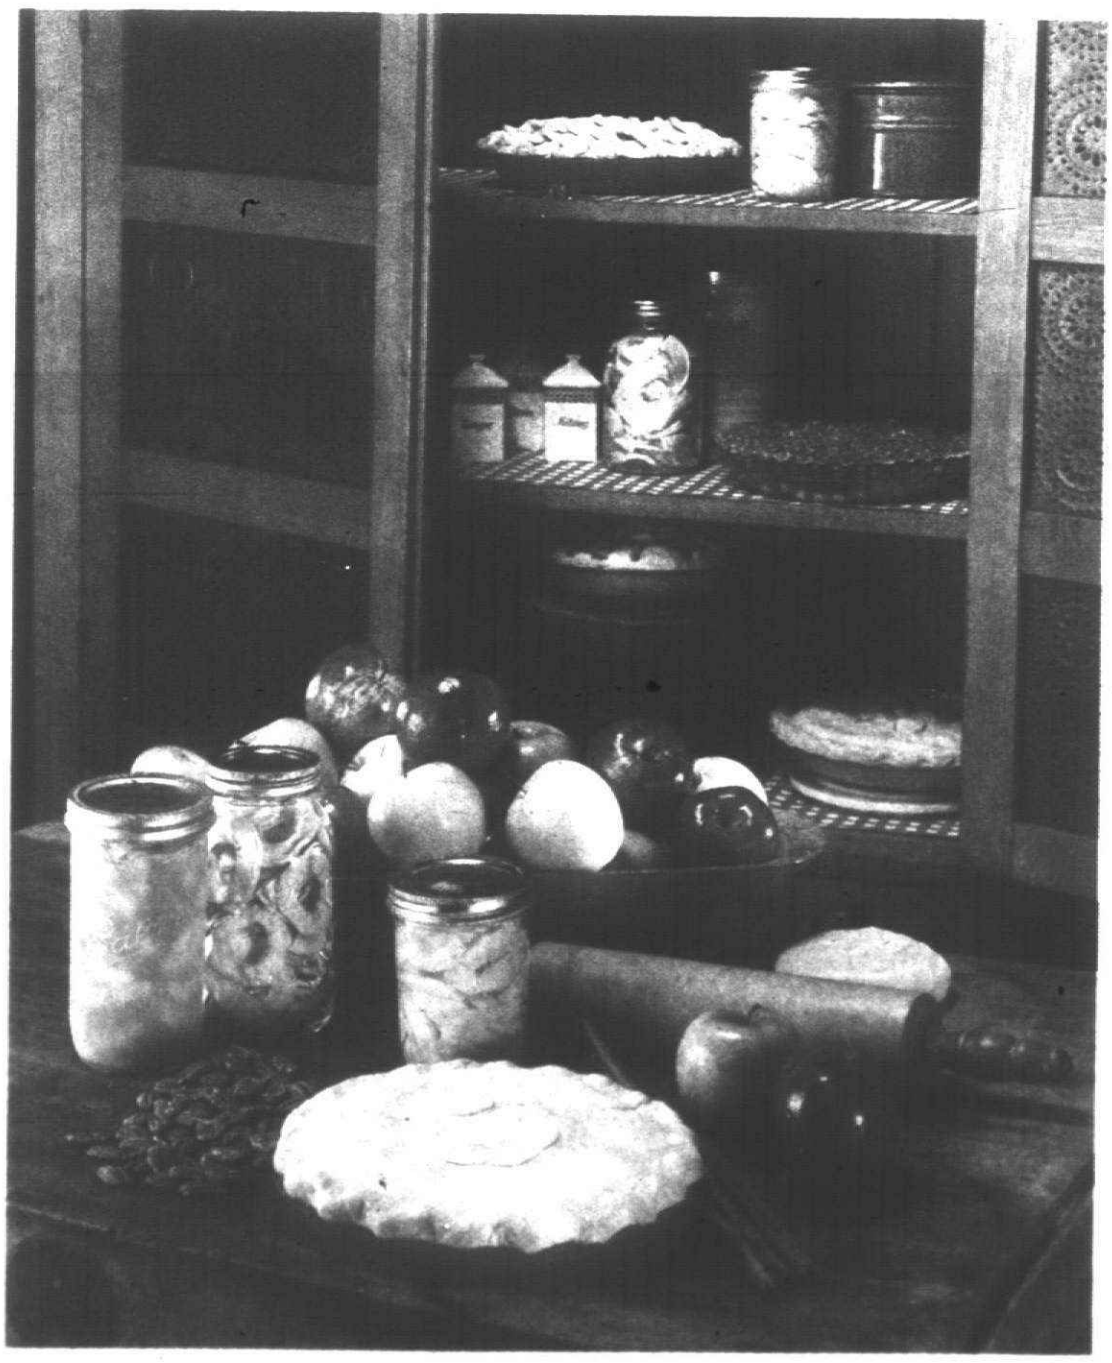
2-1/2 pounds apples, cored and quartered
2 pounds plums, pitted and quartered
2 cups water
3 cups sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon allspice
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg

Prepare home canning jars and lids according to manufacturer's instructions.
Combine apples, plums, and water in a large saucepot. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer until tender. Remove from heat. Press through a sieve or food mill. Return strained fruit to large saucepot and add sugar and spices. Cook over medium high heat, stirring frequently, until butter is thick. Carefully pour hot, into hot jars, leaving 1/4 inch head space. Adjust caps.
Process 10 minutes in a boiling water bath canner. Yield: about 6 half pint jars.

TOMATO APPLE CHUTNEY

10 cups peeled, cored, chopped tomatoes (about 14 large)
4 cups pared, cored, chopped apples (about 4 to 6)
2 cups peeled, chopped cucumber
1-1/2 cups chopped onion
1-1/2 cups chopped sweet red pepper (about 3 medium)
1 cup seedless raisins
3 cups brown sugar
3 cups vinegar
1 hot red pepper
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 tablespoon ground ginger
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1 teaspoon salt

Prepare home canning jars and lids according to manufacturer's instructions.
Combine all ingredients and cook slowly until thick, about 1-1/2 to 2 hours. As mixture thickens, stir frequently to prevent sticking. Carefully pour hot, into hot jars, leaving 1/4 inch head space. Adjust caps.
Process 10 minutes in a boiling water bath canner. Yield: about 6 pint jars.



APPLES FOR PIES

Make a syrup using 1 cup sugar and 5 cups water. Peel, core, and slice apples. Place sliced apples in soaking solution (1 tablespoon salt, 1 tablespoon vinegar, and 2 quarts water) to prevent darkening. Drain, boil in syrup 5 minutes. Carefully pack hot, into hot jars, leaving 1/2 inch head space. Cover with hot syrup, leaving 1/2 inch head space. Remove air bubbles. Adjust caps.
Process pints and quarts 20 minutes in a boiling water bath canner.

APPLE PRALINE PIE

6 cups canned apple pie slices
1/2 cup sugar
5 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon ginger
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons butter
1/3 cup butter
2/3 cup brown sugar, packed
2/3 cup chopped pecans
Single crust pastry for 9 inch pie, unbaked

Prick sides and bottom of pastry shell. Bake at 400° F. for 5 minutes; set aside. Combine apples, sugar, flour, spices, and lemon juice. Spoon into pastry shell, dot with 2 tablespoons butter. Bake at 400° F. for 45 minutes. Melt 1/3 cup butter in a small saucepan; stir in brown sugar. Bring slowly to a boil, stirring constantly. Add pecans and pour over pie. Bake at 400° F. for 5 minutes, or until topping bubbles.

APPLE PIE FILLING

6 pounds apples
2 cups sugar
1/4 cup flour
1-1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
2 tablespoons lemon juice

Wash, peel, core, and slice apples. Place sliced apples in soaking solution (1 tablespoon salt, 1 tablespoon vinegar, and 2 quarts water) to prevent darkening. Combine sugar, flour, and spices. Rinse and drain apples; stir into sugar mixture. Let stand until juices begin to flow, about 30 minutes. Stir in lemon juice. Cook over medium heat until mixture begins to thicken. Pour into can or freeze jars or plastic freezer boxes. Seal, label, and freeze. Yield: about 6 pints.
To bake, place 2 pints pie filling in 9 inch double crust pastry. Cut vents in top pastry. Bake on baking sheet in a preheated oven at 425° F. for 40 minutes.

DRIED APPLES

Choose Granny Smith, Rome Beauty, Winesap, or any tart, firm-textured apple. Wash, peel, and core. Cut into 1/4 to 1/2 inch slices. Pretreat by dipping in a mixture of 1 cup lemon juice to 1 quart water. Hold apples no longer than 10 minutes; drain before drying. Dry at 130° F. until pliable.

DRIED APPLE PIE

12 ounces dried apples
1 quart apple cider
1/2 cup sugar
3 tablespoons cornstarch or flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
2 tablespoons butter
Double crust pastry for 9 inch pie

Combine apples and cider, simmer 30 minutes until soft but not mushy. Drain apples, reserving 1/4 cup cider. Cool to room temperature. Combine sugar, cornstarch, and spices. Add apples and toss gently. Add reserved cider and toss again. Place apple mixture in pastry lined 9 inch pie pan. Dot with butter. Cover with pastry, crimp edges, and cut several steam vents. Bake pie on baking sheet in a preheated oven at 425° F. for 15 minutes. Reduce heat to 375° F. and bake 30 minutes.

Hearts 'n' Spades Souffle is designed for an evening of bridge

Fall can be a great time to learn some new tricks.

Invite a group of friends over for an evening of bridge. Plan to have a weekly dinner, alternating among houses.

Serve an easy-to-prepare early meal, the ace up your sleeve, so the rest of the evening can be devoted to the game.

Players' Pork Stew, flavored with a rummed sauce and decked with tropical fruit, will be your trump. Hearty and substantial, it tastes best when made well in advance.

For dessert, deal out a delicious Hearts 'n' Spades Souffle. To rack up even more points as a hostess, a Cranberry Card is a special after-dinner drink, bridging the gap between dinner and the start of your game.

PLAYERS' PORK STEW

3 lbs. lean pork cubes, cut into 1½-inch squares
2 tbsp. oil
1½ cups sliced onion
2½ cups chicken stock or broth
½ cup Bacardi light rum (80 proof)
1½ tsp. salt
2 medium acorn squash, pared and seeded
1½ cups artichoke hearts
1 large green pepper, cut into strips
1 tsp. grated lime peel
2 tbsp. lime juice
1½ cups pineapple chunks
¼ cup brown sugar
3 tbsp. cornstarch
Lime wedges

In large heavy saucepan or Dutch oven, brown pork in oil on all sides. Add onion and cook several minutes. Add chicken broth, rum and salt. Cover and simmer 1 hour. Stir occasionally. Cut squash into ¾-inch slices. Add squash and simmer15 minutes. Add artichoke hearts, green pepper, lime peel and lime juice. Simmer 15 minutes longer. Add pineapple and brown sugar. Blend cornstarch into ½ cup pineapple juice or water. Stir into stew. Cook, stirring gently, until sauce is thickened. To serve, garnish with lime wedges. Makes 8 servings.

HEARTS 'N' SPADES SOUFFLE

1½ cups diced, mixed candied fruit
¼ cup dark raisins
¼ cup golden raisins
¼ cup sliced, toasted almonds
½ cup Bacardi light rum (80 proof)
1 tsp. grated lemon peel
¼ tsp. ground cinnamon
⅛ tsp. allspice
2 quarts vanilla ice cream, softened
½ cup crumbled macaroons
Sweetened whipped cream
Candied cherries

In bowl, combine first 8 ingredients. Let stand 30 minutes at room temperature until all liquid is absorbed. Stir often. Blend in ice cream and macaroons. Place in freezer. Make aluminum collars around 8 individual souffle dishes by folding strips of aluminum foil long enough to overlap around each dish. Brush with oil on one side. Wrap around dish, foil side in. Fasten with tape. Spoon rum mixture into dishes. Freeze overnight. To serve, remove collar. Garnish with cream and cherries. Makes 8 servings.

CRANBERRY CARD

1 quart cranberry cocktail
2 cups sugar
½ cup lemon juice
¼ cup lime juice
1 bottle (4/5 quart) Bacardi light rum (80 proof)
1 quart club soda
1 pint lime sherbet (optional)
Crushed ice

In large jar with lid, combine first 5 ingredients. Cover and store in cool place for at least 1 week. To serve, add club soda and pour into glasses filled with crushed ice. If desired, top each with scoop of sherbet. Makes 8 servings.

Olive oil dressing is fine on spinach salad

If spinach salad has been an all-American favorite, how come people are now afraid to eat it? Fear of cholesterol! Not in the salad, but in the bacon fat dressing usually associated with it.

Pure olive oil has no cholesterol. But unlike other vegetable oils, olive oil does more than just add liquid to a salad dressing. It adds taste.

SPINACH MUSHROOM SALAD

8 cups (about 1 lb.) spinach, torn into bite-sized pieces
8 oz. fresh mushrooms, sliced
2 small tomatoes, diced
1 sweet green pepper, cut into strips

QUICK TOMATO DRESSING

¼ cup tomato sauce
2 tbsp. lemon juice
4 anchovy fillets, finely chopped
2 scallions, sliced
1 tsp. basil
Salt and pepper to taste
⅓ cup olive oil

WHAT TO DO ABOUT YOUR THANKSGIVING TURKEY

Meats are a staple food of most people in this country. In fact, for many of us it would seem like we hadn't eaten if we didn't have some meat with our meal. Meats are an excellent source of protein, vitamins and minerals, but most people don't realize what is done to most commercially available meats. For example, in chickens and turkeys, the breasts are the most popular part of the animal, so they are bred nowadays to produce larger and larger breasts in relation to the other bodily parts. The animals are kept in small cages with many others, and are injected with hormones to make them grow faster, and with larger breasts. They are usually fed chemically treated feed, including numerous antibiotics, and usually never see the light of day, let alone touch their feet to the ground. What this means is that any drug, hormone or other toxic agent will remain in the meat when we eat it. Because the animals never get any exercise, it necessarily means that the meat will be fatter and have a blander, if not altogether flavorless taste.

Naturally raised meats, on the other hand, are never injected with hormones or any other chemical substance to make them grow differently than nature intended them to. They are also free range animals, meaning that they graze and move about on the ground, producing a leaner, more flavorful meat.

The Good Food Company has naturally raised fresh and frozen turkeys available this Thanksgiving and year round. Our fresh turkeys are free range and hormone free, with small amounts of antibiotics in the feed, while our frozen Shelton turkeys are naturally raised and organically fed. Both types are $1.69 lb., and should be ordered or picked up early.

The folks at Good Food Company wish you a healthy, Happy Thanksgiving.

GOOD FOOD CO. is the largest natural food store in Michigan offering a complete selection of minerally processed and chemical free foods at substantial discounts.
We provide a deli, bulk foods, supplements, body cale, organic produce, macrobiotics, distilled water, books, appliances and much more!

Using a billion pounds of pasta takes imagination

Americans love pasta. According to industry sources almost 1.1-billion pounds of pasta are consumed annually. Although the traditional marinara or meat sauce is the most common pasta toppings, there are a multitude of alternatives which can transform these old favorites into new dining experiences.

Pasta is easy and economical to prepare, perfect for today's fast-paced society. It comes in a variety of cuts and flavors including egg, spinach, beet, tomato, herb, whole wheat and even carrot.

Pastas must fill certain ingredient criteria in order to be considered of high quality. For instance, egg noodles, unlike most pastas, must contain a minimum of 5.5-percent egg solids. High-quality pastas should contain semolina, a flour made from durum wheat. The addition of this ingredient helps prevent breakage during preparation and produces a product which holds its taste, texture and color better after cooking.

No matter what type of pasta is chosen, a common problem among consumers is the overcalculation of pasta quantity, which may leave you eating the same meal for several days.

Claudia O'Brien, consumer affairs manager for Lawry's Foods Inc., offers these guidelines when serving pasta: "First, keep in mind, 2 ounces of dry pasta (1 cup cooked) is a generally accepted main dish serving size. Adjust this amount according to the number of other dishes being served in accompaniment. Second, when serving rich sauces, which tend to be more filling, reduce the pasta-serving size by a half ounce per person."

Whether you inadvertently prepare more pasta than necessary, or do so with the intention of using leftovers creatively, the Consumer Test Kitchens at Lawry's Foods have compiled a selection of recipes designed to cleverly disguise last night's leftovers. They include everything from a pie using spaghetti as the filling to an Italian variation of the classic Russian stroganoff. Leftover pasta need no longer be viewed with drudgery but as a delectable change of pace.

CHICKEN CACCIATORA

1 broiler-fryer (2 lbs.), cut up
2 tsp. seasoned salt
¼ cup butter or salad oil
1 pkg. (1½ oz.) spaghetti sauce with imported mushrooms
1 can (14½ oz.) whole tomatoes, cut up
¼ cup sauterne or dry white wine
Cooked spaghetti, rice or noodles

Sprinkle chicken with seasoned salt. In a large skillet, brown chicken, a few pieces at a time, in butter or oil until golden. Remove browned pieces; drain fat. In same skillet, add spaghetti sauce mix with imported mushrooms and tomatoes and blend well; add chicken. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer, covered, 30 minutes. Add wine and continue simmering, uncovered, 15 minutes or until chicken is tender.

Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Serve over cooked spaghetti, rice or noodles. Garnish chicken with chopped parsley, if desired.

STROGANOFF "ITALIAN-STYLE"

1½ lbs. round steak, cut in ¼ x ½ x 2-inch strips
2 tbsp. butter
¾ cup water
1 pkg. (1½ oz.) spaghetti sauce mix with imported mushrooms
½ tsp. seasoned salt
1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
½ cup dairy sour cream
2 tbsp. dry sherry wine

In a large skillet, brown steak in butter; add water. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer, covered, 1 hour. Measure pan juices and add water, if necessary, to make 1 cup. Add spaghetti sauce mix with imported mushrooms, seasoned salt, tomato sauce and 1 cup water to meat. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer, covered, 30 minutes or until meat is tender, stirring occasionally. Blend in sour cream and sherry and heat thoroughly. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Serve over cooked spaghetti, rice or noodles.

BEEF AND SPAGHETTI CASSEROLE

This dish calls for leftover spaghetti, but other types of cooked pasta could be used successfully.
1 lb. ground beef
1½ tsp. seasoned salt
1 pkg. (1½ oz.) spaghetti sauce mix with imported mushrooms
2 cans (8 oz. each) tomato sauce
2 cups water
3 cups cooked spaghetti
½ cup (2 oz.) grated American cheese
Ripe olives
Green bell pepper rings

In a large skillet, brown ground beef until crumbly; drain fat. Add seasoned salt, spaghetti sauce mix with imported mushrooms, tomato sauce and water; blend well. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer, uncovered, 25 to 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Combine meat sauce and cooked spaghetti. Place in 2-quart casserole. Bake, covered, in 350-degree oven 15 to 20 minutes. Sprinkle grated cheese over top and broil until cheese melts. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Garnish with ripe olives and green bell pepper rings.

THE SPAGHETTI THING

½ small green bell pepper, finely diced
½ cup cubed ham, chicken or beef
1 cup cooked spaghetti
3 tbsp. butter
3 eggs, beaten
2 tbsp. grated Parmesan cheese
1 cup prepared spaghetti sauce mix with imported mushrooms, heated*

In medium skillet, saute green pepper, ham and spaghetti in 2 tablespoons butter, stirring occasionally. Add remaining butter; when melted, pour eggs over mixture. Add 1 tablespoon cheese and cook over low heat, stirring gently until eggs are set, about 3 minutes. Pour spaghetti sauce over and sprinkle with remaining cheese. Makes 2 servings.

*Prepare 1 package (1½ oz.) spaghetti sauce mix with imported mushrooms using 1 can (6 oz.) tomato paste directions.

Garnish with orange slices or wedges and parsley sprigs.

SPAGHETTI PIE

The crust of this pie is seasoned ground beef.
1 pkg. (1½ oz.) spaghetti sauce mix with imported mushrooms
1 can (6 oz.) tomato paste
2¼ cups water
2 tbsp. salad oil
1 lb. lean ground beef
½ pkg. (3½ oz. size) meat loaf seasoning mix
3 cups cooked spaghetti
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese
½ cup (2 oz.) grated Mozzarella cheese

In medium saucepan, combine Spaghetti Sauce Mix with Imported Mushrooms, tomato paste, water and salad oil; blend well. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer, uncovered, 25 to 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Combine ground beef and Meat Loaf Seasoning Mix; press into a 9-inch pie pan to form shell. Bake, uncovered, in 350 degree oven 30 minutes; drain well. Mix together 1¼ cups spaghetti sauce with cooked spaghetti; add Parmesan cheese. Fill meat pie shell with spaghetti mixture; top with remaining sauce and sprinkle with Mozzarella cheese. Bake, covered, in 350 degree oven 10 to 15 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Sprinkle cooked pie with chopped parsley, if desired. To serve, cut into wedges.

Pastas must fill certain ingredient criteria in order to be considered of high quality. For instance, egg noodles, unlike most pastas, must contain a minimum of 5.5-percent egg solids.

Diet Pill Sweeping U.S.
New Grapefruit 'Super Pill' Gives Fast Weight Loss
No Dieting - Eat All You Want Pill Does All the Work

BEVERLY HILLS, CA. (Special)—An amazing new "super" grapefruit pill has recently been developed and perfected that reportedly "guarantees" that you will easily lose at least 10 pounds in 10 days. Best of all, it allows you to "eat as much as you want of your favorite foods and still lose a pound a day or more starting from the very first day until you achieve the ideal weight and figure you desire."

This "super" grapefruit pill is a dramatically improved version of the world famous grapefruit diet. It is far more effective than the original and eliminates "the mess, fuss, and high cost of eating half a fresh grapefruit at every meal."

"Pill Does All the Work"

According to the manufacturer, "the pill itself does all the work while you quickly lose weight with NO starvation "diet menus" to follow, NO calorie counting, NO exercise, and NO hunger pangs." It is 100% safe. You simply take the pill with a glass of water before each meal and the amazing combination of powerful ingredients are so effective they take over and you start losing weight immediately.

Pill Has ALL Daily Vitamins

The powerful and unique combination of ingredients are what make this a "super-pill". It contains highly potent grapefruit concentrate and a diuretic to help eliminate bloat and puffiness. No need to take any vitamins to maintain your good health and energy. The pill is fortified with ALL (100%) of the U.S. Government daily vitamin requirements.

Contains Japanese 'Glucomannan'

Each pill also contains an amazingly effective amount of "glucomannan", the remarkable natural dietary fiber discovery from Japan (used successfully for over 1500 years) that expands in your stomach and gives you a full and satisfied feeling all day long.

The super-pill is already sweeping the country with glowing reports of easy and fast weight loss from formerly overweight people in all walks of life who are now slim, trim, and attractive again.

Now Available to Public

You can order your supply of these highly successful "super" grapefruit pills (now available directly from the manufacturer by mail order only) by sending $12 for a 14-day supply (or $20 for a 30-day supply, or $35 for a 60-day supply) cash, check, or money order to: Citrus Industries, 9903 Santa Monica Bl., Dept. W24, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. (Unconditional money-back guarantee if not satisfied.) Visa, MasterCard, and Amer. Express OK. (Send card number, expiration date, and signature.) TV show left a bad taste, veal marsala makes up for it

I had managed to avoid the television show Mama Malone (that's Ma-lon-eee) until that fateful evening. I don't know why I didn't move the dial before I received a lesson in bad taste. Call it bad judgment.

What makes matters worse, Mama Malone is a cook who has a TV show. This episode featured a feud over garbage — how fitting — and a misunderstood neighbor.

Mama Malone is preparing a large pot of Italian boiled meats when she isn't cracking the most tacky jokes I've heard on the tube. She's too lazy to dispose of the garbage in the routine manner. Instead, it is deposited in the hallway of her apartment house.

The neighbor returns the bagged contents in a gift-ribboned box. Finally, after several tasteless exchanges, the neighbor drops the garbage in her pot.

Is Mama disturbed? Yes, but she just happens to have a replacement dish in the oven. When she hears that the neighbor is a New York Yankee fan, she spits on his choice — square on the dish.

The best part of the show: the commercials. Mama Malone is giving Italian cooking a bad name. I have a few I'd like to deliver in person to the writers and the network.

VEAL SCALOPPINE MARSALA

1½ lbs. veal cutlets, pounded thin and cut in strips
6 tbsp. all-purpose flour
½ tsp. each salt and black pepper
4 tbsp. butter
2 tbsp. olive oil
1 small onion, sliced
1 garlic clove, cut in 3 pieces
½ lb. mushrooms, sliced
1 cup chicken broth
½ cup Marsala wine
¼ cup tomato juice
Pinches of nutmeg, tarragon, basil and oregano
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

Dredge veal in mixture of flour, salt and pepper; set aside. In electric fry pan, swish together 2 tablespoons butter and oil, saute onion and garlic several minutes. Lightly brown meat on both sides, adding 1 tablespoon butter, and remove; discard garlic. Add 1 tablespoon butter to pan, saute mushrooms 5 minutes, add broth, wine, tomato juice and seasonings, reduce heat to 200-210 degrees, cover and cook 12 minutes. Return veal, adding a little more wine and tomato juice of needed; cover and cook 25 to 30 minutes, occasionally stirring. Sprinkle on cheeese, turn off heat and let stand 10 minutes. You can garnish with fresh parsley. Serve 4.

The best part of the show: the commercials. Mama Malone is giving Italian cooking a bad name.

The good old days

When President Washington decided to take a three-month tour of the South he simply climbed aboard his coach and took off — without Secret Service men or press of any kind. Because of a mix-up of mails and the unmapped roads, the government did not know for nearly two months exactly where the president was.

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH - INTENT TO ISSUE INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT REVENUE BONDS

TO ALL ELECTORS AND TAXPAYERS OF THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN:

TAKE NOTICE that the Charter Township of Plymouth intends to issue Industrial Development Bonds (the "Bonds") in the aggregate principal amount of not to exceed One Million ($1,000,000.00) Dollars, extending for not more than forty (40) years and bearing interest at not more than 18% per annum, for the purpose of financing all or part of the cost of acquiring, constructing and equipping an industrial facility as defined in Act No. 62, Public Acts of Michigan, 1963, as amended, located on Cleat Street, same being described as Lots 16 and 17, Metro West Industrial Park, No. 1, as recorded in Liber 100, Page 82 of Plats, Wayne County Records, in the Charter Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan. Said industrial facility will be leased by the Township to WILLIAM MARINOVICH, who will be required to make payments to the Township in amounts sufficient to pay all principal of and interest on the Bonds and who will have the option to purchase said industrial facility and the equipment therefor for One ($1.00) Dollar upon expiration or termination of the lease term. Said industrial facility will in turn be sub-leased by WILLIAM MARINOVICH to U.S. INDUSTRIAL TOOL & SUPPLY COMPANY, a Michigan Corporation.

Said Industrial Development Revenue Bonds are to be issued in accordance with the provisions of Act No. 62, Public Acts of Michigan, 1963, as amended (The Industrial Development Revenue Bond Act of 1963).

Source of Payment

Neither said Industrial Development Revenue Bonds nor the interest thereon will be general obligations of the Charter Township of Plymouth and in no event will the Industrial Development Revenue Bonds or interest thereon be payable from any tax revenues or other funds of the Charter Township of Plymouth, but the Industrial Development Revenue Bonds and interest will be payable solely from revenues derived from payments to be received as rents from WILLIAM MARINOVICH and/or his sub-lessee, U.S. INDUSTRIAL TOOL & SUPPLY COMPANY, a Michigan corporation.

Referendum Right

THIS NOTICE is given by order of the Township Board of the Charter Township of Plymouth, Michigan, to and for the benefit of the electors of said Township, in order to inform them that said Industrial Development Revenue Bonds will be issued without submitting the question of their issuance to the electors of the Township, unless within 45 days from the publication of this notice, a petition signed by not less than 5% of the registered electors of the Township, requesting a referendum upon the question of the issuance of said Industrial Development Revenue Bonds, is filed with the Township Clerk of said Township, in which event the Industrial Development Revenue Bonds will not be issued unless and until approved by a majority of the electors of said Township voting thereon at a general or special election.

A QUESTION, for sports fans: What is the oldest, continuously operating sports organization in the state of Michigan?

Answer: The Detroit Curling Club. Joe Livermore, president of the club, announced that the centennial season began Nov. 1.

The first curling club in the United States was organized in 1831 at Orchard Lake and the "Orchard Lake Curling Club" used hickory blocks instead of granite stones. The Detroit Curling Club and the Thistle Club were formed about 1840 and curling became a winter sport when the ice was right in the Detroit River at the foot of Joseph Campau and at old Recreation Park. These clubs joined to become the Granite Club.

In 1885, the present Detroit Curling Club was organized. The city had a population of about 150,000 and its rapid transit was horse-drawn. Rinks curled on natural ice in the old Detroit Athletic Field on the west side of Woodward, between Canfield and Forest.

They moved to a new clubhouse built on W. Forest Avenue in 1906 and were there until the city bought the clubhouse in 1979. This brought about the move to a modern facility in West Bloomfield Township with a well-appointed lounge, bar, kitchen, and viewing area. It has carpeted locker room and a spacious arena. Curling is a game for thee entire family, from 8 to 80.

Special Centennial Year membership packages are available. Call 661-2890 for information or stop by at 5600 Drake Road, half a mile north of Maple and two miles west of Orchard Lake.

Congratulations to the Detroit Curling Club. It's a grrreat sport, mob

ST. MARY Hospital in Livonia is celebrating its silver anniversary and the 10th anniversary of the establishment of its Alcohol Therapy Department.

In recognition of Alcohol Awareness Week, Nov. 11-17, St Mary is offering a free lecture to community residents, entitled "Adolescent Alcoholism: The Hidden Tragedy." Director of the hospital's alcohol therapy deparment, Philip O'Dwyer, will discuss the prevalence of alcohol addiction among teen-agers, how to recognize the signs, and how to deal with the young person.

He will make the presentation at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 12, in the Nursing Services Classroom on the first floor of the hospital, Five Mile at Levan.

O'Dwyer has degrees in psychology, counseling, theology and social work. he has been visiting speaker at institutes throughout the United States and Europe and has published a number of distinguished works. He presented "A Systems Approach to Alcoholism Treatment" to the annual conference of the American Association of Counseling and Development in Bad Kissinger, West Germany, last year.

He will give a follow-up lecture at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 29, in the same place. His topic will be "Alcohol Dependence: A Family Problem."It will deal with the alternatives available to family members in their search for ways to cope with the alcoholic. These alternatives include education, group therapy and family counseling.

For more information about either of the programs, call 464-4800, Ext. 2436.

THE THERAPEUTIC Activities Committee of the Detroit Institute for Children is producing a Holiday Toy Show. A wide variety of commercially available toys and playthings for handicapped children will be shown and demonstrated 2-6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 16, at the institute, 5447 Woodward.

Each toy in the show was selected because of its appropriateness for children with various disabilities. Some toys may require simple adaptations to enable children to play with them effectively. How to make these adaptations will be demonstrated at the show.

Parents and grandparents will be able to inspect the toys and learn the advantages and disadvantages of the toys for each child's particular disability.

7,000 Scouts at national convention

Plymouth and Canton Township were well-represented at the National Girl Scout Association convention that attracted 7,000 Scouts to Detroit. Ellen Seery, 17, of Canton was one of the 141 Girl Scouts elected a voting delegate by the 336 councils involved in the convention.

Huron Valley Council, which includes Washtenaw, Livingston and Monroe as well as western and southern Wayne counties, sent seven delegates representing a variety of adult positions and geographical locations in addition to Delegates, who were not constrained to vote in any way, changed the Girl Scout promise by substituting the words "to help people at all times" for "to serve . . . mankind," retaining the expression "to serve God and my ocuntry."

They voted to raise the dues of all members rather than just those of adults, defeated a proposal for an alumnae-membership category and accepted the slate of officers and members of the National Board of Directors proposed by the nominating committee.

PRISCILLA Snyder of Plymouth and Ruby Monk and Peggy Seery of Canton attended all four days of the convention as official visitors. They were admitted to the visitors gallery, the exhibits and all special celebrations.

Snyder, a Girl Scout since 1924, renewed many friendships made at the World Conference of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts early in the summer. She was a volunteer dormitory hostess at the world conference.

Ruby Monk said, "One of the most exciting aspects of the convention was seeing all those people in green, people sharing a commitment to girls and young women, meeting in Cobo Hall and streaming up and down Jefferson Avenue."

PEGGY SEERY said everyone was moved by the closing ceremony.

"Hundreds of Girl Scouts — Daisies, Brownies, Juniors, Cadettes and Seniors — carrying blue, white and green helium-filled balloons and singing 'Weave Us Together,' the song of the world conference, as they twined among among the delegates.

"Suddenly Cobo was full of swaying, hand-holding Girl Scouts, little girls of 5 and men and women of 70 as well as every age in between, united in a song most of them had not heard before, connected physically and emotionally to people they had not met before."

Members of Senior Girl Scout Troop 501, which meets in Plymouth, volunteered to serve at the conventiou.

THEY HELPED in the sales area of the National Girl Scout Equipment Service display, ushered, and, in general, helped make visitors welcome southeastern Michigan.

When their work was done, Hope Buchan, Bev Gildhaus, Carol Jasmer and Dana Pressede of Plymouth, and Carolyn Carrithers, Stacey Jasnowski, Bridget Lynch and Kim Resler of Canton had an opportunity to attend convention meetings.

Verna George, Kathy Lynch, Darlene Severson, Bob Wells, Kathy Wells and Diane Welder attended one or more meetings.

Ruth McMahon was a volunteer on the arrangements committee and Barb Weir staffed an information booth for the Catholic Youth Organization.

Her dolls are 1 of a kind

Ingrid Dijkers' "dolls" recall fairy tales and fantasies.

"I refer to them as dolls, although they resemble marionettes. I use the crossbar and string to pose them. They are not functioning marionettes, " she said.

Dolls, posed with strings attached to an overhead bar, seem to have stepped from the pages of a storybook.

Dijkers has been making the dolls for just half a year and she has evolved her own process.

"I start with a glob of clay, then mold and carve the head. I made a bar to hold the clay while I work on it. I also mold the hands and feet," she said.

Next, she makes a plaster mold of the head. Clay is poured into the mold to make a hollow form, which is fired at 2,700 degrees.

"I have no set plan when I start a doll. I'll fire several heads from the same mold, and they'll all turn out different."

SHE SAID she usually uses acrylic paint for the faces although she has used oils and even car paint.

After dolls are assembled, with stuffed cloth bodies and limbs, Dijkers makes their costumes.

"I've been gathering fabrics and laces for years. When I went to Holland, I visited flea markets there and in Belgium, looking for antique laces and materials," she said. She combines fabrics she's had for 12 years with something she found a month ago.

She has several dolls in Folkways on Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, and one in Dragonfeathers Shop in Dearborn. There are four more, nearly completed, at home, and another in the making. The dolls in Folkways are priced at $285 each.

HOME IS on Pacific in Plymouth. Ingrid and Robert Dijkers have been married 6½ years and have an 11-month-old daughter, Tricia.

Ingrid majored in the arts during her three years in college. She said both her parents graduated from the Academy of Fine Arts in Holland.

"I grew up surrounded by the arts and artistic people," she said. And her talents aren't limited to making one-of-a-kind dolls. She is a weaver. She has three looms — an antique loom, one for fine weaving, and one she uses for making rag rugs.

She says she uses everything old fabrics, new fabrics and yarns in her weaving. She also designs contemporary rag rugs.

She works with old quilts, making stuffed toys and animals out of the good parts.

She even made the wooden ark to display her animals in the Folkways shop.

Each of Ingrid Dijker's dolls has a personality all its own.

Petersen-Nitz

Laurette Diann Nitz and Stephan Carsten Petersen exchanged marriage vows Sept. 22 in Ascension Lutheran Church, Livonia. Pastor Darwin Polesky officiated. The bride's parents are Dean and Lorna Nitz of Partridge Drive, Plymouth Township. The bridegroom is the son of Lorenz and Monique Petersen of Lindsay, Plymouth Township.

The bride's waltz-length gown was made of white embroidered tulle over taffeta, with a scalloped hemline. She carried a small cascade of gardenias and pink roses as well as a lace handkerchief that belonged to the great-grandmother of her maid of honor, Sandra Pinnavaia of East Lansing. Susan Nitz of Plymouth was bridesmaid. The attendants wore silver tea-length dresses with pink ribbon sashes and carried nosegays of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Keith Greenleaf was best man. George Trudell was groomsman and Joel Nitz was usher. The wedding luncheon was in White House Manor and the couple will live in Chicago, Ill., where both are employed.

The bride graduated from Plymouth Salem High School and her husband from Plymouth Canton in 1980. Both graduated from Michigan State University in June.

Holiday classes for preschoolers

New Morning School again is offering preschool classes for youngsters to enjoy while parents prepare for the holidays. Two class themes are planned for 3- to 6-year-olds.

Preschool Christmas Crafts will meet Tuesdays, Nov. 27 through Dec. 18, or Wednesdays, Nov. 28 through Dec. 19. In this popular class, children make Christmas ornaments, crafts, wrapping paper and presents for special people. Child should bring a large shirt box to the first class.

Holiday Traditions and Lore will meet Thursdays, Nov. 29 through Dec. 20. Stories, crafts and songs will be related to Christmas customs in other countries. Hanukkah traditions and activities will be included. Christmas in Germany will be ecelebrated at the Dec. 6 class.

Each class meets 12:30-2:30 p.m. at the school, 14501 Haggerty, Plymouth Township. Fee is $25 plus a $3 materials fee. Registrations are being accepted by calling the school, 420-3331.

Elaine Yagiela, director of New Morning, suggests early registration. She is looking for one parent who would like to assist in the Wednesday Christmas crafts class. The child would have free tuition.

Chorus offers 3 scholarships

The Plymouth Community Chorus is again offering three voice scholarships. One $500 award will be presented to a graduating high school senior. Two $250 grants will go to students sixth through eleventh grades, in either middle or high schools.

Recipients will be selected on the basis of academic direction, past vocal accomplishments and need. Applicants are required to submit three letters of recommendation.

Deadline for applications is March 15, 1985.Forms are available at school offices or by writing to: The Plymouth Community Chorus, PO Box 217, Plymouth, Mich. 48170, Attention, Barbara Frank.

For information, call 348-7131 or 455-4080.

Freshman Dena Head (with ball) led Plymouth Salem past Livonia Churchill Thursday with 15 points.

Bulldogs oust Chiefs, Salem begins quest

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

The Livonia Bentley girls basketball team waited for nearly 3½ quarters for Plymouth Canton to beat them.

The Chiefs never did.

Finally, Bentley's Amy Weber got tired of waiting and scored seven straight points to help bury the Chiefs 49-44.

The win advanced the Bulldogs into the semifinal round of the Western Lakes conference playoffs. They will travel to Plymouth Salem Tuesday.

The victory was far from a work of art. Both teams played ultra-sagging zone defenses. Both teams shot poorly from the perimeter. And, there were 42 fouls called.

But, after five straight losses, Bentley happily accepted the victory.

"We did exactly what I wanted to do," said Bentley coach Tom Lang. "How many points did (Laura) Darby get?"

DARBY, A tough inside player for the Chiefs, scored 16 of 28 points in Canton's victory over Bentley two weeks ago. The mission for the Bentley defense was to stop her.

It did. Darby scored just three free throws all night.

"We just said let them shoot from the outside if they want to," Lang said. "We figured if we could stop Darby we'd stay in the league race."

In Darby's defense, she was utterly swarmed by the Bentley zone. Canton was unable to score from the outside, nor could it move the ball around quickly enough to spread the Bentley zone.

"We just weren't ready for the challenge at the beginning," said Canton coach John Mulroy. "We knew they were going to throw the zone at us. We practiced it all week. We just came out flat. We missed a few shots then got gun shy."

Kathy Ross started to find the range from the corner in the second quarter. She hit three jumpers to keep Canton in the game. But, as soon as she got hot she got into foul trouble.

BASICALLY, THAT was the storyline for the Chiefs. For whatever reason — poor shooting, foul trouble — they simply were unable to mount any sustained offense.

"We had more than enough chances to win this one," Mulroy lamented.

Bentley, with some erratic offense of its own, made sure Canton stayed close. The Bulldogs led 22-15 after a half. Canton pulled within one early in the third quarter. Bentley went back up by eight. The quarter ended with Canton down six.

WESTERN LAKES LEAGUE PLAYOFFS

Semifinal games

Liv. Bentley at Ply. Salem, 7:30 p.m.
Liv. Stevenson at W.L.Western, 7:30 p.m.

Consolation games

Northville at Ply. Canton, 7:30 p.m.
Farm. Harrison at Farmington, 7:30 p.m.
W.L. Central at Liv. Churchill, 7:30 p.m.

By the fourth quarter, both teams had key personnel sitting out with foul troubles. Canton's floor leader Beth Frigge and Darby each had four. Both fouled out in the final quarter. Ross had three. Bentley's Sheri Wolfe and Lonnie Payne each had four. Both fouled out in the fourth.

That meant that somebody was going to have to step forward and take charge, someone unfamiliar with the role.

THAT PERSON turned out to be Amy Weber.

The score was 38-32 Bentley when Payne fouled out. Wolfe followed her out soon after.

That meant that Weber would have to handle the ball against the Canton press. She did. It meant that Weber would have to king-pin the offense. She did. It meant that she would have to score. She did.

Her seven straight points put Bentley up 46-36 with less than four minutes left to play. She finished with a game-high 13 points plus five nifty assists.

"Amy plays very well, at times," Lang said. "At times, she is a star. She has all the tools. But, she gets out of control. She's her own worst enemy sometimes."

Canton, behind seven fourth-quarter points from Lori Schauder, pulled within four with 1:28 left. Bentley's Kelly Kowalski and Julie Scruggs each drained a pair of free throws to expand the margin to eight. Canton closed with a flurry, scoring two hoops in the final 12 seconds.

"We'd make for a nice TV package," Mulroy said afterward. "We make every game interesting."

Ross and Diana Knickerbocker led the Chiefs with 10 points each. Payne scored 10 for Bentley before fouling out.

While Bentley (10-7) advances, Canton (9-8) will host Northville Tuesday in a consolation match.

SALEM 48, CHURCHILL 30: The lights went out early for Livonia Churchill.

Last Monday, the Chargers played Plymouth Salem to a five-point game. Thursday night, in the first round of the Western Lakes playoffs, Salem went for the juguiar.

Reggie Rojeski hit three jumpers. Dena Head found the hoop four times. Mary Beth Weast added another. Before Churchill could say "time out," Salem had a 16-0 lead.

"We just played a great game tonight," said Salem coach Fred Thomann.

Head, a freshman, scored 15 to lead the Rocks. Weast and Fran Whittaker added 10 each. Rojeski scored eight.

Tracy Greenwald and Paula Sanburn scored 10 each for the Chargers.

Churchill (4-13) will host Walled Lake Central in a consolation match Tuesday. Salem (16-2) will host Bentley in the league's semifinal round.

BILL BRESLER/staff photographer

Canton senior Kathy Ross scored 10 points in the Chiefs' loss.

Rocks put on show for Western

One team is an established league power. The other is a fledgling program. The fledgling team (Walled Lake Western) got to witness first hand just how far it has to go Thursday night.

Plymouth Salem, a perennial contender in the Western Lakes swim race, blasted Western out of the water, 140-29. The Rocks captured the first three places in all but one event.

The best race of the night came in the 200-yard freestyle event and it was between two Rocks. Karen Dalpe (2:10.0) barely outtouched teammate Tracy Meszaros (2:10.07).

Other winners for Salem were: Sue Bonnett in the 50 free (28.2), Cory Silver in diving (182.6 points), Laura Shaffer in the 100 butterfly (1:06.7), Kristal Taylor in the 100 free (57.6), Meszaros in the 500 free (5:54.0), Lindsay Olson in the 100 backstroke (1:13.2) and Cindy Elliott in the 100 breaststroke (1:16.5).

Salem's Olson, Bonnett, Laura Shaffer and Elliott combined to win the 200 medley relay in 2:05.1. Shaffer, Meszaros, Dalpe and Taylor went 4:04.6 to win the 400 free relay.

The victory makes the Rocks 11-3 on the season.

State champs grace All-Observer squad

By Brad Emons
and Chris McCosky
staff writers

It doesn't get any better than this for the Observerland area: Redford Catholic Central won the Class A state boys cross country team title for the second straight year and Garden City's Dave Homann won the independent race at the state meet.

Observerland was also well represented at the state meet as Farmington's boys finished second in the Section I regional at Royal Oak Kimball, while the Westland John Glenn and Redford Union boys took second and third, respectively, in Section II.

As for the girls, Plymouth Salem qualified in Section I by finishing second. It was a 1-2-3 finish, meanwhile, in Section II by Livonia Churchill, Redford Union and Stevenson.

The quality of these teams is reflected by the individuals. CC placed five of its runners on the first team and one on the second.

Presenting the 1984 All-Area cross country teams as selected by area coaches:

ALL-AREA BOYS FIRST TEAM

Dave Homann, Garden City: In an independent race for those runners whose teams did not qualify for the state meet, Homann won the title with a time of 15:33.5 (for 5,000 meters).

This season he recorded 13 first place finishes, including invitational titles at Schoolcraft, Wayne and RU. He also set four course records and won the Northwest Suburban League (NSL) meet.

On the All-Area team for the second straight year, Homann is an 'A' student.

cross country

Marty Hegarty, Catholic Central: The senior has a long list of accomplishments, including fourth place overall in the state meet "team race" with a time of 15:42. He was also the Class A regional champ, edging Homann at Kimball.

This year, Hegarty won the Holly and Shrine/Shamrock meets, and finished second at the West Bloomfield, Haslett, Sturgis and the Catholic League meets. It's also his second consecutive showing on the All-Observer squad.

Steve Shaver, Catholic Central: The senior standout overcame some early season injury problems to help CC win the state title.

He was first in the Catholic League, Operation Friendship and Sturgis meets. Shaver was third in the regional and seventh in the "team race" at the state meet with a time of 15:45.

He is a four-year All-Catholic performer and repeater on the All-Area squad.

Chris Inch, Farmington: Only a sophomore, Inch was one of the major reasons why the Falcons earned a state ranking this season.

He was 21st in the "team race" at state with a time of 16:14. He was the Western Lakes Conference champ, second at Schoolcraft and eighth at the Kimball regional. He showed steady improvement throughout the year.

Al Stebbins, Farmington: A first-year performer, this sophomore enjoyed a banner season with a best time of 16:36, good enough for 46th at the state meet.

Talent plenty on All-Area team

He finished sixth at Schoolcraft and ninth in the regional.

"Al will be an outstanding track and cross country runner for the future," said Farmington coach Jerry Young.

Jim Cauzillo, Catholic Central: A two-year All-Catholic performer, Cauzillo gave the state champion Shamrocks added depth.

The senior was 29th in the state meet (16:21), fourth in the Catholic League and fifth in the regional.

Cauzillo also finished third at Sturgis and fifth at the Shrine/Shamrock meet.

Tony Mizzi, Catholic Central: A junior, Mizzi finished 41st in the state meet with a time of 16:35. He was also ninth in the regional and 10th at the Catholic League meet.

His best finish in an invitational was at Sturgis, where he placed fifth. Mizzi was also 10th at the Shrine/Shamrock and 12th at Haslett.

Kirk Armstrong, North Farmington: Armstrong, a junior, rolled up some impressive statistics this year.

Although his team did not qualify for the state meet, the North standout finished 15th in the independent race. He was third in the regional and second behind Homann in the NSL meet.

"Kirk is an outstanding runner who came on very strong at the end of the season," said North coach Mark Bechard.

Eric Buchanan, Redford Union: RU's senior captain and No. 1 runner most of the year, Buchanan finished third in the NSL and sixth in the regional. He was also fourth at Schoolcraft and first at the Walled Lake Invitational.

"Eric has made great improvement over the past three years," said RU coach Bob Ouellette. "He's been consistent all season and has a good future as a collegiate-level runner."

Chris Rito, Catholic Central: A senior, Rito was a big factor in the Shamrocks' "perfect season."

He placed 60th in the state meet with a time of 16:44, finished sixth in the Catholic League and seventh at the regional.

His best invitational finishes occurred at Sturgis (fourth) and the Shrine/Shamrock (eighth).

Plymouth Salem: Scott Steiner and Eric Pedersen.
Plymouth Canton: Bob Tellier, Karl Rosol and Dave Barger.
Farmington Harrison: Dave Linn, Mike Esker and Chris Hart.

ALL-AREA GIRLS FIRST TEAM

Lauri Runk, Farmington Harrison: This dedicated performer will graduate this spring as the most proficient cross country runner in Harrison's history. She is a two-time All-Area member. She owns the Harrison course record (18:32 on the 3-mile course).

This season, she won the Western Lakes meet, placed second at the regional (19:46), and 11th at the state meet (19:36). It was the third straight season Runk qualified for the state meet.

Janis Bilinski, Redford Union: Only a sophomore, Bilinski was a driving force behind the Panthers' success this season. She earned all-Northwest Suburban League honors, was all-invitational at the Schoolcraft meet, won the Walled Lake Western Invitational, placed fourth at the regional and 17th at state. A pretty nice list of credentials.

Melody Mogielski, Redford Union: Senior Mogielski captained the Panthers this year. She has been a three-year standout for RU. She was all-NSL, all-Schoolcraft Invitational, ninth in the regional meet and 82nd at the state meet.

Katie Showich, Redford Thurston: Running can be an isolated, lonely activity. Team cross country is designed to alleviate that. Not so for Showich. Showich ran virtually alone at Thurston and she ran splendidly for three years. She finished third in the NSL meet, ninth at both the Schoolcraft and RU invitationals, third in the Class B regional and 12th at the state meet. This is her second season on the All-Area team.

Pam Eldridge, John Glenn: A senior, second-year member of the All-Area team, Eldridge had another outstanding year despite missing some time with a leg injury. She took 14th in the regional meet and 24th in the state. She owns the Glenn course record with a 19:35.

Karen Opp, John Glenn: Also making her second appearance on the All-Area team, junior Opp is considered the premier prep runner in western Wayne County. She placed first in the NSL meet, second in the regionals and, despite developing hypothermia, she hung on to place 14th at the state meet.

Carol Sulick, Livonia Churchill: Check out these accomplishments for a first-year runner: 12th at Schoolcraft, 5th in the Western Lakes, 5th in the regional meet, 14th at RU and 55th at the state meet. Sulick, a junior, was the catalyst of Churchill's fine season.

Susan Tatigian, Livonia Stevenson: The last of six returners to the All-Area team, senior Tatigian was the captain and MVP of a solid Stevenson team. She didn't lose a dual-meet race this season. She placed 4th at Schoolcraft, 2nd at the Ann Arbor Invitational, 6th at RU, 10th at the regional and 61st at state.

Denise Durrer, Plymouth Salem: A standout as a junior with Redford Union last year, Durrer transfered to Salem where she became the Rocks No. 1 runner. She holds one of the top five 5K times in Salem history. She ran 2nd in the Western Lakes meet, 8th at Schoolcraft, 11th at RU, 7th in the regional and 16th at the state. Her best time this season was 19:12.

Sherry Williams, Bishop Borgess: This talented senior didn't lose a dual meet this season and earned all-Catholic honors. She has qualified for the state meet four straight seasons. She placed 5th at Schoolcraft, 8th in the Catholic League race and 6th in the regional. The Borgess captain also carries a 3.1 grade point.

New faces, new hope for S'craft

By C.J. Risak
staff writer

Carlos Briggs is gone.

That's the first thing that should be understood about Schoolcraft College's basketball team. The high-scoring guard has taken his immense talents to Baylor University.

The second thing about this year's team: It will be improved. Vastly improved, according to coach Rocky Watkins.

"We were extremely slow last year," said Watkins of the 1983 Ocelots, who finished 14-17 overall and 3-9 in the Michigan Community College Athletic Association's Eastern Conference. "We rebounded well but we couldn't run and we couldn't play defense."

THAT'S ALL changed. Watkins fielded a completely revamped squad at last weekend's Macomb Tipoff Classic.

How good is Schoolcraft? Watkins, who envisioned great things for the Ocelots last season, is guardedly optimistic.

"This team is much quicker, and is an excellent defensive team," he said. "We won't be relying on one person so much. We have better balance."

"They're much more intelligent. Everyone has a 2.4 grade point or better. We can get them to play different offenses and multiple defenses, really mix it up."

Getting the 1983 team to play any defense was a challenge. Schoolcraft led the Eastern Conference in scoring, but it was last in points allowed, too.

A GOOD indicator of how good Schoolcraft is will best be found not in studying the starting lineup, but the bench. That's where James Orr and Eric Stokes, a pair of returnees, will be found.

"Although they were starters last year, they can't crack this lineup," said Watkins. Orr averaged 16 points per game, while Stokes was the team's top defensive player.

Among those starting in their place are, at forward, Bradley Turner, a 6-foot-6 leaper from Detroit St. Martin DePorres, and Tony Randall, 6-4, a Detroit Northwestern grad who transferred from Utah State.

Arnie Ziegler, 6-6, from Detroit Cody, will fill the center spot. Clarence Jones, 6-1 from Detroit Denby, is the player Watkins hopes can fill last season's biggest void: point guard. Dave Caravallah, a 6-1 Livonia Franklin grad, is the off-guard.

DWIGHT POOLER, 6-3 from Detroit Chadsey, will swing between forward and guard as the team's sixth man. Curt Ullstrom, a 6-1 Livonia Stevenson grad, "has been looking really good" at shooting guard, Watkins said. Others to watch are 6-2 forward John Foley, from Northville, and 6-2 guard Harold Martin, from Cody.

Watkins is so impressed with the team's depth of talent, he said the starting lineup was "subject to change as the season progresses."

And yet, Watkins stopped short of calling Schoolcraft a contender for the league title. "I would have to say we're darkhorses," said Watkins. "Highland Park, (defending state champion) Flint Mott and (defending Eastern Conference champion) Macomb are the favorites.

"Henry Ford and Schoolcraft are darkhorses."

WHAT CAUSED Watkins to bridle his enthusiasm was a lesson learned from last year's disaster, in which Schoolcraft fell from league champs to the cellar, plus the team's inexperience.

"We're extremely talented," assessed Watkins. "They're working hard and they like each other. They're a very cohesive unit, and they're very optimistic.

"It depends how quickly they adjust to this level of play."

The Ocelot schedule includes a trip to New York for a Thanksgiving Tournament with Bronx Junior College, Road Island JC and Monroe CC. "There's not a soft spot on our schedule," Watkins evaluated.

Of course, should Schoolcraft stumble early, all the preseason optimism could turn into discouragement. Still, Watkins is confident.

"There's no question — this is a much better team (than last year's)," the coach said. "Our record will improve without a doubt.

"It's just a matter if we can win it all."

And only time can separate what is hoped and what is.

● MIAA ELITE

John Thrash raced to a sixth-place finish to help Albion take third in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) cross country championship meet last Saturday at Alma.

Thrash, a junior and a Redford Union graduate, was clocked at 27:16. His sixth-place finish earned him All-MIAA honors.

Albion was 4-2 in dual meets. Calvin was unbeaten in dual meets and finished second in the championship meet to Hope.

● BEST KICKER

Jim Berry was awarded a pair of post-season honors for Western Michigan's soccer team.

The Broncos finished 9-7-1, with Berry, a junior from Livonia Stevenson, sharing most improved player honors with Willy Vancrey and top offensive performer with Rick Colling. For the season, Berry scored seven goals and assisted on four others, the second-best totals on the team.

● CENTRAL STANDOUTS

Lori Swanson continues to display her power at the volleyball net for Central Michigan.

The junior from Livonia Bentley registered 15 kills for Central Michigan in a tough four-game loss to nationally-ranked Western Michigan. She had a .428 hitting percentage for the match and hit .358 for the week, which included a three-game sweep from Northern Illinois.

Prior to that, Swanson hit .419 in wins over Bowling Green and Toledo. Central is now 18-8 overall and 11-3 in the Mid-American Conference (MAC), in second place behind Western.

The Chippewa soccer team ended its season on the upswing by drubbing Toledo 6-1. Joe Moreau, a junior from Livonia and a Redford Catholic Central grad, scored twice for Central to give him seven goals and three assists for the season.

Keith Reynolds, a junior from Plymouth, assisted on Jerome Porter's game-winning score. Reynolds totalled five goals and three assists for the year.

CMU finished 7-9-1.

● NET ANCHOR

Chris Gilles continues to excel for Wisconsin's tennis team. The freshman from Plymouth Salem is 10-4 as the Badgers No. 1 singles player.

In a recent three-match stretch, Gilles was 3-0 as Wisconsin beat Minnesota 7-2, Wichita Sate 8-1 and Iowa 8-1. Gilles also teammed with Charlene Kaya in No. 2 doubles and won three straight matches. Gilles has a 5-5 record with three different doubles partners and is 3-3 with Kaya.

For the season, Wisconsin is 6-5 in dual meets.

● TOP LINEMAN

Bob Smedley garnered offensive lineman of the week honors for Adrian College in the Bulldogs 66-0 thrashing of Olivet Oct. 27.

The 6-foot-3, 232-pound senior tight end, a Redford Bishop Borgess grad, hauled in seven passes for 70 yards, including a seven-yard touchdown grab. He also blocked at a 92 percent proficiency.

● DOGS DELIGHT

While Georgia's volleyball team may not be reaching the lofty heights in Southeastern Conference (SEC) play that coach Sid Feldman had envisioned, but Karen Kelley remains a shining star for the Dogs.

The senior from Livonia Stevenson hit .412 as Georgia defeated Clemson, Georgia Tech and Western Carolina and lost to SEC foe Tennessee.

Mohacsi gains spot in state bowling hall

Joe Norris, former captain of the famous Stroh team who has been a legend in Detroit bowling for more than half a century, is about to make a bid to tie the most unusual record in the ten pin game.

He is coming east from his home in San Diego to compete in a special event sponsored by the Brunswick Co., and he is expected to become one of only three men thus far to knock over more than 100,000 pins in his career.

The novel event is being dedicated to him and he is expected to move to the top in the unusual bracket. He is averaging better than 190 in the senior league and should pass the 100,000 mark easily.

ANOTHER HONOR Mary Mohacsi, who recently won the world amateur championship, is due for another honor next Tuesday night. She is to be inducted in to the Michigan Amateur Sports Hall of Fame and thus complete the circle of all Halls of Fame open to her in the state. The induction will be at Athena Hall in Roseville.

MERRI-BOWL Myron Marciev reached his goal while bowling in the handicappers league when he posted a 300 game. It was his first and now he is a member of the prestigious 300 Club. High series for the league went to George Patukop with a 668.

WOODLAND LANES Two perfect games featured the week of high scores. Tom Nippa linked games of 257, 224 and 212 for 723.

In the senior house league Jim Kholl posted a 713 on games of 254, 247 and 212. On the ladies side Eileen Sachau had high game with a 243, one pin more than Linda Simmons.

BEL-AIRE Neil Beckman joined the 700 club when he rolled a 768 in the senior house league. Dottie Chartes had a 264 for high single in the classic.

GARDEN Chet Lukas used a 245 opener to post a 648 and pace the St. Linus league. Dottie Chartes had a 264 for high single in the classic.

Observer sports ... national award winner
Suburban Newspapers of America:
'The volume and diversity of local amateur events/stories was by far the best of the entries. The writing is generally good, and the comprehensive (statistics) is a nice, newsy touch.'
— Professor Roy Gault, Oregon State University
Observer Sports . . . more than just scores!
Our sports sections recently gained national recognition when the Observer won a national newspaper contest sponsored by the Suburban Newspapers of America.
Roy Gault, journalism professor at Oregon State University, judged the Observer as the nation's best weekly sports sections among the entries received.
This is just one example of our commitment to quality and excellence for our local readers.

Bill Paterson is Alan Bird, a Glasgow disc jockey who loses his girlfriend and get mixed up in the ice-cream business in "Comfort and Joy."

'Comfort and Joy' should have stayed back in Scotland

Opens Friday, Nov. 16, at the Maple Theatre in Bloomfield Township.

"Comfort and Joy" gives very little of either. It's a Scottish import that must have gotten through customs when the inspectors were looking the other way.

Alan Bird (Bill Paterson) is a popular Glasgow disc jockey whose early morning radio show had made him a citywide celebrity. Live-in girlfriend, Maddy (Eleanor David), is an attractive kleptomaniac who moves out early on, leaving lovesick Alan moping around.

When forlorn Alan isn't early-morning deejaying, he hangs around surgeon friend and old-school chum, Colin (Patrick Malahide), who is far more patient with Alan than he ought to be. Perhaps it's because Dr. Colin's daughter is overwhelmed by Uncle Alan's celebrity. Oh, well, she's only 4.

Alan's other major occupation is fantasizing Maddy's loving return, so filmed that the audience is fooled into thinking she really has come back. It would have been nice, if she had. Then we could have cut out all the foolishness and gone home early, or gotten on with whatever was going on.

IN HIS SPARE time Alan wanders around Glasgow mistaking numerous women for Maddy. One of them turns out to be very lovely and very dangerous. Charlotte (C.P. Grogan) is helping her cousin Trevor (Alex Norton), alias Mr. Bunny, the ice-cream man.

Charlotte certainly is lovely enough to capture any man's eye and that's a lot more than you can say about the plot from this point on. (Of course, you couldn't say too much for it before, either.)

Bill Forsyth ("That Sinking Feeling," "Gregory's Girl," "Local Hero") wrote and directed "Comfort and Joy" in what turns out to be an overly dry manner unsuccessful in its attempt to capture the Monty Python style. For those who disdain Python the whole thing's a terrible bore.

There is some funny stuff but not enough to save "Comfort and Joy" from itself. The treatment of extremely mundane manners as if they were of lofty importance is a literary style that needs a very deft hand, obviously not available on the "Comfort and Joy" set. The whole thing comes off as a heavy-handed, sophomoric satire.

If you've stayed with it until Alan meets Charlotte, then you're entitled to sort out the relationships, if you can.

Charlotte's cousin Trevor is heir to the fish-'n'-chips combine but prefers ice-cream trucks and is competing with his uncle, Mr. McCool, the Italian ice-cream king, and his three wooden sons: Bruno, Paolo and Renato.

DADDY RUNS a tight ship and the boys know who hands out the ice cream and cookies, even if Cousin Trevor doesn't. Trevor insists on challenging his vindictive uncle. Please advise if you figure out why.

Naturally, lovesick Alan becomes hopelessly entangled in the Italian ice-cream war. Serves him right that his BMW upholstery gets "creamed."

Two excellent supporting character roles are wasted in this fruitless search for humor: Rikki Fulton is Hilary, the station manager/owner, who looks askance as his early-moring star gets involved with ice cream.

Hilary sends Alan to a shrink as a condition of his continued employment. El Shrinko needs help himself. Arnold Brown does a nifty satire on psychiatrists, at least if you're down on therapy.

If you still want to see "Comfort and Joy," go ahead, but don't say you weren't warned.

Deejay loses his live-in girlfriend, Maddy, played by Eleanor David.

what's at the movies

ALL OF ME (PG). Carl Reiner's latest, greatest comedy with Steve Martin and Lily Tomlin.

AMADEUS (PG). Superb rendition of Mozart's life with Tom Hulce and F. Murray Abraham. Direced by Milos Forman.

AMERICAN DREAMER (PG). Housewife wins trip to Paris and adventures righht out of the books she reads. Jo Beth Williams, Tom Conti and Giancarlo Giannini.

BODY DOUBLE (R). Brian DePalma's latest assault on women. Rated B&B for bad and boring.

CHOOSE ME (R). Comedy about radio talk shows and other things, with Genevieve Bujold, Keith Carradine and Lesley Ann Warren.

COMFORT AND JOY (PG). Boring, overly dry comedy about a disc jockey and his problems.

COUNTRY (PG). Unsatisfying, melodramatic tale of hard times down on the farm, with Jessica Lange and Sam Shepard.

CRIMES OF PASSION (R). Story of a beautiful prostitute and her abilities. Kathleen Turner and Anthony Perkins. Directed by Ken Russell.

FIRST BORN (PG-13). Divorced woman is saved from a bad relationship by her two sons. Teri Garr and Peter Weller.

THE GODS MUST BE CRAZY (PG). Nomadic tribesman discovers Coke bottle and believes it's a magic talisman. Comedy from South Africa.

THE LITTLE DRUMMER GIRL (R). Good-looking but poorly directed story of Arab-Israeli espionage and terrorism. Diane Keaton, Klaus Kinski star in adaptation of John LeCarre novel.

Identical twins, one from Wales and the other from Ascot, England were reunited after 59 years apart with the help of several Want Ads. They found almost everything about themselves identical right down to the same model eyeglasses and frames.
