Police say driver ran red light

State police are investigating an accident in Canton that killed a Westland couple. Police say the driver disregarded a red blinking light when the crash occurred.

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI

Motorists who witnessed a fatal accident in which a Westland couple was killed early Wednesday when struck broadside by a Canton Fire Department ambulance told the Michigan State Police that the driver of the Cadillac disregarded a red blinking light at the intersection of Canton Center and Warren roads.

"Witnesses indicated there was no type of stop. The car went through the intersection," said Lt. Charles Schumacher of the Michigan State Police. "The emergency vehicle was within its rights in traveling northbound on Canton Center Road."

State police investigate accidents involving township fire and police personnel.

Samir Ansara, 44, of Westland and his wife, Nadia, 36, were pronounced dead at the scene by a physician from Oakwood Canton Medical Center. Their daughters, Tina, 16, and Lisa, 12, who were in the back seat of the Cadillac Seville, survived.

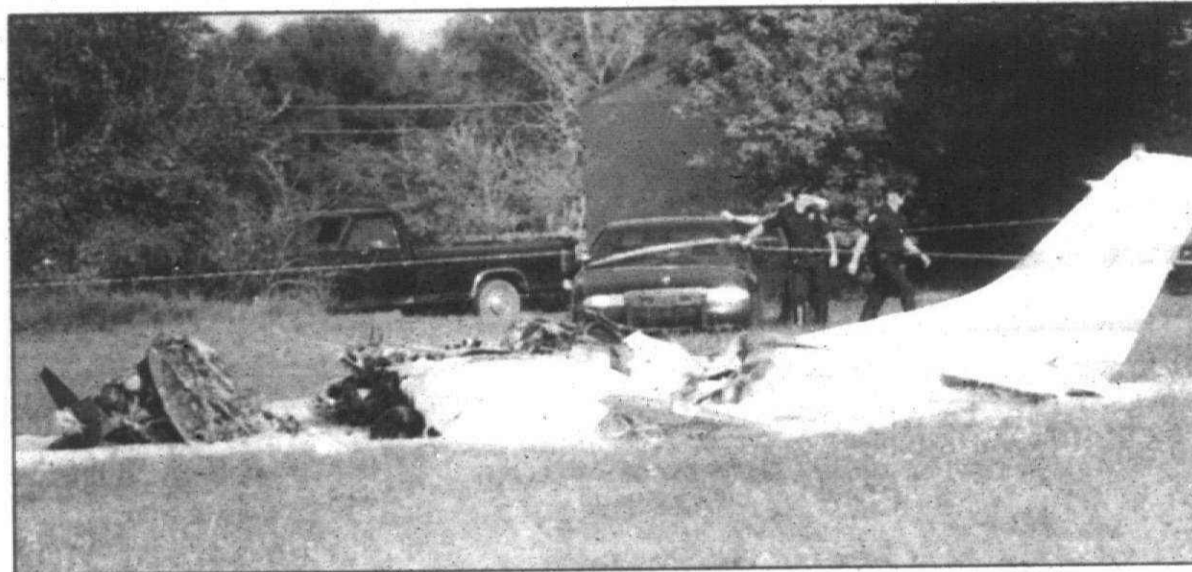

The Jaws of Life extrication tool was used to free Tina Ansara who was pinned in the car. Lisa Ansara apparently got herself out of the car and was in the Oakwood Medical Center parking lot where the Cadillac came to rest after traveling approximately 300 feet over a landscaped berm from eastbound Warren Road, Canton fire Chief Mike Rorabacher said.

The ambulance driver suffered a closed head injury when he struck the windshield. "He is conscious, stable and alert," Rorabacher said. "He doesn't have any recollection of the accident." The firefighter in the passenger seat of the ambulance suffered leg injuries but was treated and released. Canton Public Safety officials would not release the names of the

A Plymouth Township man died and three others were seriously injured on Saturday when the plane he was piloting crashed shortly after take off from Mettetal Airport.

Three other persons on the ground were injured when they rescued the crash victims from the single-engine plane that was burning in an empty field in an industrial park area at General Court and General Drive in Plymouth Township.

Dead is the pilot, Lawrence Gillean, 58, of Plymouth Township, according to Plymouth Township Police Chief Carl Berry. Injured were: Gillean's wife, Patty, 52, and two other passengers, Lloyd Cochran, 62, and Delores Cochran, 37. All were taken to St. Joseph Hospital, Ypsilanti.

Witnesses said the hero at the crash scene was Darrell Perry, 34, of Detroit, a janitor at a machine shop. He braved the flames to pull the pilot and three others from the craft.

DDA effort taking shape

Work is progressing on Canton's $2 million DDA streetscape project, which began this summer and is scheduled to be completed by year's end.

"Everything is rolling. It's really starting to take shape," said Angela Wolosiewicz, project coordinator for Canton's Planning Services Division which is administering the project.

The DDA project includes streetscape improvements along both sides of Ford Road between Sheldon and Morton Taylor, and north along Sheldon to Westminister Way. Included in the project is a decorative brick wall with limestone cap, new sidewalks, pedestrian lighting fixtures and street tree planting to soften the one-mile stretch. It is being paid for through Tax Increment Financing, or TIF, dollars in which taxes from increased property values are captured and earmarked for specific projects.

The general contractor for the project is the Canton-based Wayne-Oakland Contracting on Joy Road.

Wolosiewicz said bricklaying of the decorative walls will likely be completed this week and that planting should begin along the south side of Ford Road in front of Frank's Nursery. Planting has already begun in the buffer area behind Frank's, Cinema Six Theater and ABC Warehouse Center. All wiring for the pedestrian lighting has been completed and contractors are currently setting concrete bases for the poles. Following the brick and sidewalk work, the final touches to the project will be installation of decorative light poles and sod.

Some delays have occurred in getting Edison electrical lines buried and the overhead lines removed, but Wolosiewicz said the utility is working daily and that no delay in completing the project is expected.

Intermittent lane closures continue along Ford Road, although the situation is not as severe as when the DDA project and a Canton sewer repair were occurring at the same time. That sewer repair project is now completed.

Take a cruise

Canton Place director Ginnie Hauck is organizing a Hawaiian cruise Feb. 25-March 5, 1995, to five ports and four islands. An informational meeting about the cruise aboard the S.S. Independence is set for 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 8, in the community room of Canton Place at the corner of Ford and Sheldon roads. Anyone who is interested in joining the cruise is invited.

The 1994 prices are good until Sept. 8 with a $300 deposit, which will secure a cabin — offered in a variety of price ranges — with final payment due Dec. 15, 1994.

Prices secured by Hauck include cruise, air and port charges. Cabins for three or four people are available and can reduce costs. The cruise is a group package designed to be affordable and to encourage friends and families to travel together.

CANTON CONNECTION

Prices range from $1,540 for an inside budget cabin to $2,634 for a deluxe outside suite. Children 16 years and younger cruise free with two full paying adults. Third and fourth passengers pay $495 plus air and port charges.

For more information, contact Hauck, 981-6420.

New officers

Three new officers will join the Canton Police Department in September. David William Taylor of Roseville comes to the department with security experience of eight years at Lakeside Mall in Sterling Heights. He will begin his new duties Sept. 2.

Michael Kowalski of New Boston graduated this spring from the Schoolcraft Academy. He joins the department with experience in firefighting and medical emergency operations as an auxiliary firefighter for the city of Taylor and with police experience gained while working with Metro Parks. He will join the department Sept. 3.

Brian DeYoung of Canton graduated from the Schoolcraft Academy in the spring. He has been employed by the Canton Facility Maintenance Division and will begin his new duties Sept. 4.

Open house

An open house for parents of students at Plymouth Canton and Plymouth Salem high schools will be 6:30-9:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 8.

Editor's note: Listed below are some of the construction projects, including residential and commercial developments, as well as roads, water and sewer, that may interest Canton residents. This column will be published intermittently to keep residents abreast of development in the community.

New gas line: Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. has begun work along the east side of Ridge Road to install a new gas line in western Canton. Work will continue from Warren to Cherry Hill, with all excavation work done in the road right-of-way. MichCon spokesman Paul Ganz said the work is part of a system-wide improvement and will better serve both current and future natural gas customers in the area. The project is scheduled to be completed by the end of October, weather permitting. Ganz said the project will not affect gas service to current customers. Residents with questions can call Ganz, 313-663-8568.

Road construction: The paving of Palmer Road between Lotz and Harman is scheduled to begin after Labor Day. The contractor is Dan's Excavating.

New sidewalks: Work is expected to begin soon for installation of new sidewalk along the east side of Sheldon Road near the Bentley Elementary School. Work will extend from Proctor Road to the entrance of Lexington Square subdivision. Plans include getting the sidewalks in as quickly as possible this fall.

The township is also installing 1,700 feet of new water line in the same area.

The Plymouth-Canton Community Schools has informed Canton that an adult crossing guard has been assigned to aid students who walk to the new school. For the 1994-95 school year, students from Lexington Square will ride the bus to and from the school so they will not be affected by the construction work. Technical questions about the sidewalk and water line may be directed to Canton Engineering Services, 397-5405. Questions about the school may be directed to Bentley, 416-2755.

Subdivision work: Installation of streets and utilities for two private subdivisions are under way. Work is expected to continue through November in the first phase of Woodcreek subdivision, a 54-lot development on the east side of Lilley, south of Palmer Road. An entrance off Haggerty Road will be the designated access road for all construction traffic. While there may be delays on Haggerty and Lilley, the roads will remain open.

Work is under way to connect Pine View Estates, a 10-lot subdivision off Canton Center Road, just north of Glengary Village, to various utility systems. The work is expected to be completed by the end of October. Contractors are boring under Canton Center Road to connect to sanitary sewers so there may be some travel delays in the area. Any landscaping disturbed by the project will be put back in its original location.

Public hearings: Planning commission have tentatively scheduled a public hearing at 7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 12 for the proposed Canton Mini Mart, a 1,500-square-foot gas station at the southwest corner of Cherry Hill and Lilley. Also tentatively on the agenda is consideration of Cavalier Corners, a shopping center on the northeast corner of Cherry Hill and Sheldon.

Golf course: Canton officials are asking residents and others to remain off the new Pheasant Run Golf Course, including the course and cart paths, until the course is opened safely and so seeding and sodding can be successfully completed. Parks and recreation rangers are routinely patrolling the area. The new 18-hole township course is scheduled to open in late summer 1995 and will be operated by Canton staff.

For questions about developments planned in Canton, call planning services, 397-5390; for infrastructure and new subdivision construction, engineering and public works, 397-5405; building-related items and ordinance issues, building and inspection services, 397-5400; Summit on the Park and Pheasant Run Golf Course, 397-5110.

what you gotta do," said Perry shortly after the rescue. He was treated for smoke inhalation and minor burns to the right side of the face by Plymouth Township fire fighters prior to being taken to St. Joseph's Hospital.

Perry said he heard and saw the plane having problems. "I looked like it might be doing a dive. It hit a tree and landed in an open area," he said.

"I ran over there and one person and the dog were already out. A lady was hollering and screaming in the plane," he said, adding that the pilot was unconscious and the seat belt interfered with pulling the man free.

Perry eventually freed the man and tried to revive him.

Berry said the plane, a Robertson STOL, took off at about 8:40 a.m. and developed engine problems.

"He started looking for a place to land, saw the small field and tried to land, but he clipped a tree," said Berry. "That's what probably caused the crash."

Tom Kennedy, a former commercial airline pilot and Plymouth Township resident, who arrived at the scene shortly after the crash, said the pilot did the right thing. "He was looking for a field to land in," Kennedy said.

firefighters. The accident occurred around midnight when a Canton Fire Department ambulance was traveling northbound on Canton Center Road responding to a request for medical help for injuries sustained in a domestic dispute at the Lincolnshire Apartments, Rorabacher said.

The lights and sirens on the ambulance were activated as the vehicle traveled north on Canton Center. Witnesses who were behind the Cadillac said they didn't see any brake lights as the car entered the intersection.

The state police are now trying to determine the speed of both the Cadillac and ambulance when the accident occurred. "We only need work ups on the speeds. I don't know if we have enough marks (on the road) to determine speeds," Schumacher said, referring to both the Cadillac and ambulance. "One witness who said he was going 40 mph said the Cadillac was going faster than that."

Schumacher said he is waiting for information from the autopsy, including blood alcohol levels.

Immediately following the accident, the firefighter passenger of the ambulance radioed for another rescue squad. A second squad was sent to Lincolnshire Apartments on the original emergency request. Canton called in help from Plymouth Township, Westland and Livonia. Plymouth Township transported the younger daughter to a hospital, while MedFlite transported the older daughter, Rorabacher said.

The fire department has a mutual aid agreement with Huron Valley Ambulance. Fire department ambulances respond because of generally quicker response time, Rorabacher said.

"It is a tragic and terrible accident," Rorabacher said. "It is terrible for the family and for the firefighters who are injured."

Candidates square off in debate at forum

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

The fall campaign kicked off last week as seven candidates for political office showed for a candidates' forum at the Plymouth VFW hall.

About 100 veterans and members of the VFW Mayflower-Lt. Gamble Post Ladies Auxiliary listened to the candidates introduce themselves, and nearly a dozen posed questions on issues ranging from term limits to military spending.

Candidates opposing each other in the general election on hand for the forum Tuesday were: Republican John Schall and Democrat Lynn Rivers, running for U.S. Congress in the district which includes Plymouth and Canton; and Stephen Boak and Ron Lowe, running in the 35th District judge race.

Also on hand were: Democrat Carolyn Blanchard, seeking election to the state House district which includes Plymouth; Republican Deborah Whyman, who is seeking re-election to the state House district that includes Canton; and State Sen. Bob Geake, seeking re-election to the district that includes Plymouth and Canton north of Cherry Hill.

Schall, who worked in the Bush White House, and Rivers, a state representative from Ann Arbor, differed sharply on issues. Rivers said that after marrying at 18 she struggled to help raise a young family. "In short, I learned about the problems of real people," she said.

Rivers said issues that concern her include job training and vocational education for high school students; a crime program that focuses on punishment, prevention and protection of the public; and campaign and ethics reform. "My commitment is to solve problems," she said.

Schall said he was campaigning on a message of less spending, less taxes and less government, adding his No. 1 priority "is cutting wasteful federal spending and not raising taxes."

Schall is pro-life and opposes defense spending cuts, Rivers is pro-choice and said defense is one of several areas to examine in seeking to balance the federal budget.

Judge's race

Also facing off for the first time since the August primary were judge candidates Boak and Lowe. Boak, an attorney for 27 years, said voters should consider that he has 15 more years' legal experience than Lowe. A former officer in the Army reserve, Boak asked the VFW crowd if they would choose to follow "the young second lieutenant or the veteran captain."

Boak also stressed his experience as an administrator with the county prosecutor's office, adding a 35th District judge helps to administer court staff and finances.

Lowe stressed his experience as Plymouth city attorney, endorsements from law enforcement organizations, and told the group he wanted to share a story with them.

He told the story of Caesar Rodney, a Revolutionary War-era delegate from Delaware whose vote was crucial to colonists declaring independence from Britain. To cast the deciding vote, Rodney traveled 90 miles on horseback through a driving thunderstorm to Philadelphia, and had to be carried from his horse to the meeting hall.

"Never underestimate the power of one vote," said Lowe, who asked for votes and help on his campaign this fall.

State representative

Blanchard, whose opponent Gerry Law did not attend the forum, told the group, "I am the pro-choice candidate, I am the candidate who will work diligently to represent you," Blanchard said.

She said the district "needs somebody who will finish the job," a reference to Law resigning the state representative job in 1991, to accept appointment as Plymouth Township supervisor.

Whyman updated the group on her work on legislative committees including K-12 education

Landscaping crew member assaulted at golf course

Listed below are some of the Canton police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week.

Felonious assault

A 25-year-old crew member for Landscape Unlimited, which is working on the new Pheasant Run Golf Course, was assaulted by an unknown man on the golf course, Aug. 27.

The employee heard a radio playing near the south end of the course at about 9:30 p.m. and drove to the area to find out what was happening. He approached two men and asked them what they were doing. One of the men got up off the ground and hit him in the forehead. Both men ran southbound to Geddes.

The employee didn't see a vehicle or a weapon but believes the man had something in his hand when he hit him. The employee received a one-inch cut on the forehead. He refused medical treatment.

Explosion

No one was injured when what appears to have been a pipe bomb exploded under a car parked in a driveway on Haggerty, Aug. 28.

A 21-year-old man told police he was in the house when he heard an explosion in his front yard. A piece of metal penetrated the front door of the house, continued through a chair, a lamp and left a golf ball-size hole in the wall before coming to stop in a back bedroom.

Police retrieved a threaded metal cap believed used in pipe bombs. The gas tank of the car was found punctured. Part of the bomb device was found under the gas tank.

Two other people were in the house at the time of the explosion. Police are investigating.

Larceny arrests

Two 20-year-old men, one a Canton resident, were charged with larceny from vehicles in the 4000 block of Tamarack at the Fairway Club Apartments, Aug. 25.

When police responded to a call about two men breaking into cars they saw a car that possibly was involved in the incident. After a stop and initial investigation, both men were arrested and property involving at least three break-ins was recovered. The other man was an Inkster resident.

Although the apartment appeared messy, it didn't appear to have been ransacked, according to the police report. The television reportedly had been left on, as well as the VCR with an ejected tape.

Branson's 1987 Chevrolet Caprice was reported stolen.

Interviews continuing in probe of suspicious death

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
STAFF WRITER

Police have conducted interviews in the continuing investigation of the suspicious death of a 53-year-old Canton man in his apartment Monday.

"We need to tie up loose ends," said Canton police Capt. Alex Wilson.

Xavier Q. Branson was found dead in his apartment on Cambridge in the Village Squire Apartments Monday afternoon. The Wayne County Medical Examiner's preliminary findings indicate Branson died of a possible heart attack, Wilson said.

Branson was found face down on his bed. There were no signs of trauma, such as gun shot, stabbing or blunt force, according to police.

A sergeant with the state Department of Natural Resources' Livonia office contacted Canton police requesting that they check on Branson, who had not reported to work. The sergeant also told Canton police that Branson's sister in Lansing had received a call from an unidentified man in Detroit who said that he had found her brother's wallet and that his car had been stolen.

When police went to the apartment Monday afternoon to check on Branson, a DNR employee, they found the front door closed but unlocked. They found Branson's nude body face down on a bed in a back bedroom of the

Tall corn reaches way up high almost to the blue skies

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

The nearly 13-foot-high corn stalk in Denis Endlein's backyard is wowing neighbors.

"Every time they go out and look they remark on how much higher it's gotten," said Endlein, a Ford engineer.

"We had some people over for dinner from North Carolina, they couldn't believe their eyes," he said.

And with the growing season not quite over, it's bound to grow even higher.

The corn stalk is among roughly 100 stalks growing on his property on Five Mile Road west of Haggerty.

Bob Bricault, a consumer horticulture agent with the Michigan State University cooperative extension service, said a 13-foot corn stalk is high, but not unusual.

"They had some at the Monroe County Fair that were around that high," Bricault said.

"Actually, it's not been the best of years for corn," Bricault said.

"Rain levels are probably up where they should be," he said, but added that rain has not fallen at times that are advantageous to corn crops.

Still, "They are looking at pretty good yields this year," he said.

Endlein, who has lived in Plymouth Township three years, said he's had trouble getting corn to grow in recent years thanks to skunks and raccoons making off with the corn.

"I think this year they were foiled," he said.

He bought the kernels at Block's market in Romulus, and fertilized the crop — which includes squash, eggplant, green peppers and tomatoes — with cow manure.

"I took a lot of extra time tilling it. I probably tilled it six or seven times," Endlein said.

An opportunity

Questions asked: Students at Plymouth Canton High School had a chance to quiz Lt. Gov. Connie Binsfeld on Wednesday when she appeared before a government class. Binsfeld fielded questions on health care and other issues. Greg Wu asked Binsfeld about putting a cap on the cost of health care and her thoughts on assisted suicide. Her answer was that she is pro-life.

Simulator aids learning

High school students will experience the dangers of "driving drunk" first hand without ever taking a sip of alcohol. The experience will be part of the Chrysler Drunk Driving Simulator which will visit this area Sept. 13-16. Sponsors of the tour include Livonia Chrysler Dodge, Chrysler Corp., Mothers Against Drunk Driving, and Wayne County MADD among others. The simulator involves a specially equipped 1996 Dodge Plymouth Neon which is programmed with the student driver's weight and a hypothetical number of drinks. As a result, steering and braking responses are delayed — producing an effect similar to the slowed mental and physical response abilities of a driver under the influence of alcohol. With these impaired abilities, the student attempts to negotiate an obstacle course — without hitting the orange pylons or the pedestrian figures that "pop up" along the way. The simulator will be at Livonia Churchill High, 8900 Newburgh south of Ann Arbor Trail, from 7:50 a.m. to 2:20 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 15, and at Livonia Franklin High at 31000 Joy west of Merriman from 7:45 a.m. to 2:15 p.m. Friday, Sept. 16. Interested residents may attend any of the sessions, to participate or to observe. Those without driver's licenses are invited to participate as passengers. The tour, produced by Chrysler Corp., is presented by MADD with the support of the U.S. Department of Transportation and the National Association of Broadcasters. The simulator will visit more than 100 schools in the United States during 1994. Built by Dodge in 1988, the simulator has made more than 550 appearances in more than 150 U.S. cities. It also has appeared on "Good Morning America," "48 Hours," "Today," "Geraldo," "Science & Technology," and on "Like We Care."

Canton Seniors Singles continues to look for additional members to participate in social get-togethers, trips, dinners and the like. The group meets monthly at 7 p.m. Saturdays. But in the months of November, December and January, when nights are early, the meetings will be on Sunday afternoons. Residents ages 55 and older are encouraged to join the group. "We need more folks," said member Helen McClue. President Mary Roy founded the group because she thought it would be a good way of getting older single people out and about. At many functions she said she noticed married people on one side of the room and single people by themselves on the other side. "Whenever we have a dance, I get complaints that there is no one to dance with," Roy said. "Some people don't want to join in because they say they don't know how to dance. But you're here to learn. Who cares if you make a mistake. There is no pressure to participate." With all the activities the group sponsors, officers such as Roy, secretary Lillian Bramcato, and activities co-chairs Flo Lorimer and Betty Sears understand if people are shy or afraid to drive by themselves or at night. No problem. "People are willing to pick each other up," Roy said. "I would just as soon come with a full car as with an empty one." Friendship and camaraderie is what the group is all about. And more. It's an organization where you talk to people with whom you probably have a lot in common, the officers said. Seniors are encouraged to join the activities. You don't have to be retired to join. For more information contact Roy, 397-8803.

United Way sets $750,000 goal

The Plymouth Community United Way 1994-95 campaign kicks off Wednesday with a goal to raise $750,000. Jim Malinowski, vice chairman of the campaign, reminds residents that donated money helps programs and agencies that help people. Recent allocations have included $25,000 for the Angela Hospice Care Center, $21,000 for the Plymouth Community Family YMCA, $150,000 for Growth Works and $13,500 for the Educational Excellence Foundation serving the Plymouth-Canton schools. The theme for this year's fundraiser, running through Nov. 30, is "With your help the possibilities are endless." The campaign team reminds the public that if they work outside the community, donations can still be designated to go to the Plymouth Community United Way. For information on donating, call 453-6879. Campaign chairman Doug Wood said the team for this year's drive includes industrial chairwoman Fran Debasco, business chairman Jerry Trumpla, professional chairman Tim Tingstad, educational chairman Larry Cole, government chairman Cathy Broadbent, clubs chairman Maureen Jones, clubs co-chairwoman Denise King, residential chairman Eather Hulsing and pacesetter chairman John Blackwell III.

Officials still bickering over use of little millage

By RALPH R. ECHEINAW STAFF WRITER Wayne County officials are still fighting over what to do with the money from a 0.1-mill property tax passed by voters in 1988. The 0.1 mill is part of a 1-mill levy that was used to build and operate a county jail in Hamtramck. The ballot proposal voters approved six years ago said one-tenth of the revenue from the 1 mill would be used "to acquire, build and operate a juvenile offender work/training institution." This has not been done. Instead, Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara is spending the 0.1 mill money, about $2.7 million a year, on programs for at-risk youth and renovations to the existing Juvenile Detention Facility, a.k.a. the Wayne County Youth Home. Now county commissioners have voted 8-2 to put a proposal on the Nov. 8 ballot asking voters to demand that "existing funds" be spent on a "new Wayne County Juvenile Detention Facility." Of the four Observer-area commissioners, only Vice Chair Kay Beard, D-Westland, who also represents Garden City, voted to put the proposal on the ballot. Commissioners Michelle Plawewski, D-Dearborn Heights, who also represents Redford Township and Livonia east of Middlebelt; Bryan Amann, D-Wayne, who also represents Canton Township, and Thaddeus McCotter, R-Livonia, who also represents Plymouth and Plymouth Township, were absent for the vote, which has the same effect as voting no. Unless McNamara vetoes the ballot proposal, it will be placed on the ballot in the following form: "Shall Wayne County be required to use existing funds which have already been approved by the voters to begin immediate construction of a new Wayne County juvenile detention facility?" If voters approve the ballot proposal, McNamara would theoretically be forced to end his at-risk youth programs, then cut the budget elsewhere to pay for building a second juvenile detention facility. Passed by voters in 1988, the 1-mill levy that the 0.1 mill is part of will expire on Dec. 31, 1997. Officials will likely ask voters to renew the millage at that time, considering that most of the money is being used to pay operating expenses of Wayne County's two jails. In the 1995 fiscal year, the mill is expected to raise more than $27 million.

Edison to cut trees

Detroit Edison line-clearance crews have scheduled work in Canton in September and October as part of the utility's $236 million service reliability improvement plan. The accelerated tree-trimming portion of the program has helped to bring about a sharp reduction in power outages. During the past year, Detroit Edison has reduced the number of outages by 96 percent and shortened the length of those outages by 73 percent, compared with the average of the previous three years.

Line clearance crews trim trees to provide clearance from electric protection devices, and line clearance are the key components of the reliability improvement program. All tree-trimming work is performed by professional line-clearance crews. Trees are trimmed according to National Arborist Association standards, which are designed to protect the trees and keep them healthy.

Memory lane Plymouth High class of '44 holds reunion

The class of 1944 of Plymouth High School celebrated its 50th reunion July 29-31. The three-day event began with a fish fry dinner at Fox Hills Country Club. The next two parties were held at the Livonia Marriott Hotel. A hospitality suite was available for guests staying at the hotel and early arrivals. The event attracted 122 guests who came to the banquet, of whom 73 were classmates. Joe Brisaboa was the master of ceremonies and Sanford Burr offered the invocation. After dinner, he introduced two retired teachers from the school, Melvin Blunk and Irene Waldorf. The speaker for the evening was Bob Majors. He led the reminiscing with tales of school days and then touched on the stores and old gathering places like Ken and Orks, Daniel's Sweet Shop, "Blicks," and Cloverdale Dairy. He acknowledged classmates that served in the war and complimented the ones on the home front with war-time jobs and rationing. The program ended with dancing to the 1940 and 1960 tunes. The music was conducted by John Shervak and provided by classmate David Johnson. The committee for organizing the reunion was led by Dora Gruebner Messacar, with helpers: Evelyn Elliott Ritenour, Velma Evans Smith, Evelyn Kurtz Erdelyi, Wilma Lounsbury Post, Violette McCartney Dely, Eather Mettetal Scheppele, Marian Oldenburg Owens, Stella Phillip Smith and Norma Robinson Kenyon.

TASTE BUDS

LARRY JANES

Reader recipe requests crop up during harvest

It's clear from the number of calls I've been receiving that cooking hasn't taken a backseat to summer vacations.

Norm Hodgson of Garden City, who has three blueberry bushes abundantly producing in his garden, is looking for a great blueberry muffin recipe. This recipe hails from Momma's recipe box, and her footnote claims "Don't change a thing, you can't improve them." Here's the recipe Norm.

BLUEBERRY MUFFINS

- Butter for greasing muffin tins
- 1 cup sugar 5 tablespoons powdered milk
- 2 tablespoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 large eggs
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil
- 1 1/4 cups water
- 3 1/4 cups all purpose flour
- 2 cups fresh blueberries

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Butter 24 muffin tins. Combine sugar, powdered milk, baking powder and salt in a large bowl. Mix well. Add the eggs and the vegetable oil.

Stir in 3/4 cup water and mix well. Mix in the flour and combine well. Add the remaining 3/4 cup water and mix well. Stir in the blueberries.

Spoon equal amounts of batter into the prepared muffin tins and bake at 400 degrees for 16 minutes. Best when served warm. Makes 24.

■ Anne Sullivan of West Bloomfield wanted the recipe for Crab Cheesecake that ran in my column in May, 1990. I had to dig out the old Apple computer to retrieve the recipe Ann, but I am pleased to repeat it.

CHEESECAKE

- 5 tablespoons butter, divided
- 1/2 cup fine bread crumbs, toasted
- 1 cup fresh grated Swiss (Gruyere) cheese (divided)
- 1 teaspoon minced dill (1/2 teaspoon dried)
- 1 medium onion, minced
- 2 pounds cream cheese, room temperature
- 4 eggs
- 1/2 cup half and half
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 pound (8 ounces) flaked crabmeat

Butter a 9-inch springform pan with 1 1/2 tablespoons butter. Combine bread crumbs with 1/4 cup grated Swiss cheese and dill. Sprinkle over buttered pan, turning to coat. Refrigerate pan until ready to use. Melt three tablespoons remaining butter in a skillet and saute onion until tender. Set aside.

Combine cream cheese with eggs, half and half, 1/4 cup Swiss cheese and salt and mix well. Stir in onion mixture. Fold in crabmeat. Pour in prepared springform pan and place the pan in a roaster pan and add hot water to come 1/2 way up the side of the pan. Bake at 325 degrees for 1 hour and 20 minutes. Turn oven off, allow cheesecake to sit in oven with door ajar for 1 hour.

Cool to room temperature before serving. Makes 6-8 servings.

Chef's suggestion: Make a pesto sauce with basil, Parmesan cheese, olive oil and garlic and add to cream cheese while substituting Parmesan cheese for the Swiss cheese. Sprinkle with 1/4 cup pine nuts and bake as directed.

■ An anonymous reader wanted to know where she could find salt-risen bread. I made a few phone calls, and located fresh salt-risen bread at a great little bakery with locations in downtown Plymouth and Rochester. The Breadwinner Bakery stocks salt-risen bread in addition to a multitude of other great breads. They are at 448 Forest in Plymouth, (1-313-459-1017), and 818 Main in Rochester (1-810-852-1280).

■ Bill Bresler of Livonia wanted to know if he could turn the Roma tomatoes growing in his garden into sun dried tomatoes with a food dehydrator. Yes you can Bill, and the finished product will be just as good. I recommend slicing the tomatoes

Explore the southern French region of Provence

Focus on Wine

ELEANOR & RAY HEALD

Americans stroll the Cours Mirabeau and sip Pastis (an anise-flavored spirit) in the bistros along this tree-lined avenue in Aix-en-Provence.

Spicy, Provencal cuisine is influenced by Italian and Catalan traditions. Cured black and green olives are familiar appetizers while local mealtime specialties include lamb, ratatouille, bouillabaisse, aioli, tomatoes, figs, asparagus, sausages, apricots, Cavaillon melons, callissons (almond candy) and pizza au feu du bois (cooked in a wood-burning oven).

The best local wines are the red and rose made of Mediterranean varietals such as syrah, mourvedre, carignan, cinsault and grenache. There are very few quality white wines. The most popular summer wines are well-chilled roses that span the color spectrum from pale salmon-copper to bright pink.

Provence extends north from the Mediterranean Sea to Montelimar and east from Nimes to Toulon. Aix-en-Provence is centrally located and pleasant day trips of no more than one-and-a-half hours in any direction take one to some of the best wine regions of southern France.

Peter Mayle is responsible for popularizing the southern French region of Provence in his book "A Year in Provence," and the television series of the same name.

The Mediterranean is a 45-minute trip on the autoroute. A morning visit to the fish market at the Vieux Port of Marseilles is picturesque, and if one's stay includes mealtime, the authentic Bouillabaisse Marseillaise at Restaurant Michel along the sea does not get much better. A drive east along the Mediterranean brings one to Cassis, a most beautiful port where the mountains extend to the sea.

Two very good Provence wine-producers are nearby, Clos Ste. Magdeleine in Cassis and Domaine Tempier in Le Plan du Castellet near Bandol. Clos Ste. Magdeleine is worth a visit just for the view of the property sandwiched between the mountains and the sea. Owner Francois Zack makes one of the few good white wines in Provence. The 1992, Clos Ste. Magdeleine Blanc boasts pineapple and tangerine fruit with good body and depth. The 1993 Rose is pale pink-salmon and particularly flavorful with a long finish. Zack recommends the white with spicy Asian cuisine and the Rose with bouillabaisse.

Domaine Tempier is east of Cassis, exiting the autoroute at Le Castellet. Many Americans visit Tempier because of the Peyraud family's gracious hospitality. Jean-Marie Peyraud has inherited the winemaking responsibilities from his father Lucien, and makes the best red and rose wines of Bandol. The fantastic flavors of blackberry, spice, leather and tobacco can be explained by the minimum of 50 percent mourvedre in the blend, a law for the appellation that Lucien helped write.

Busy families work at making dinner

■ Today's busy families enjoy spending time together around the dinner table, but they don't have a lot of time to cook.

By BARBARA WILSON
SPECIAL WRITER

I'm sure bean sprouts were around in the 1950s, but I don't think many housewives incorporated them into their dinners.

When we consider the traditional family meal, a picture of mom and dad, and the kids sitting around a table together eating meat loaf, mashed potatoes and green beans comes to mind. Dad came home from work at 5:30 p.m., and within 20 minutes, mom had dinner on the table.

This is the memory most adults today have of a traditional family meal.

Red meat and starchy casseroles were not evil then, and anything made with Campbell's soup was considered tops, according to Donna Braden, a curator at Greenfield Village in Dearborn who has researched American food trends.

"There wasn't much research during the 1950s about food and health, so Americans really served a lot of fatty meals," Braden said. "Women were caught up in the new conveniences of the day. They bought canned and frozen vegeta-

There's still some warm weather left at the end of summer, and time to try some outstanding white wine values from Washington State's Hogue Cellars, all from the 1993 vintage and priced at $6. They are:

1993 Dry Chenin Blanc, regular Chenin Blanc (off-dry), Dry Johannisberg Riesling and Johannisberg Riesling, slightly sweeter at 1.53 percent residual sugar.

Additional Best Buys:

- 1993 Santa Rita 120 Chardonnay ($6.50)
- 1991 Cypress Cabernet Sauvignon ($7.75)
- 1993 Barton & Guestier Merlot ($6)
- 1992 Villa Mount Eden Zinfandel ($8)

about 1/4-inch thick. Anything smaller will disintegrate during drying. For best storage, keep the dried tomatoes in an airtight container or pack them in a sterilized jar and cover with olive oil. Roma tomatoes work best because they are the meatiest, but I've also had success with Beefsteak tomatoes.

Bob Hadley of Livonia called to ask about a spaghetti squash that's growing in his backyard. The squash is ripe for picking when the skin turns from a honeydew pale green to a pale yellow.

The squash stores well in a cool, dark space. To cook it, simply pick it a few times with a fork and place in a microwave on high power and cook until the squash resembles a football that the air has been let out of (about 6 minutes per pound). Cut in half, remove seeds and toss the meat of the squash with some Parmesan cheese, a little olive oil and a good sprinkling of fresh ground pepper.

Paul Rainy of Plymouth wanted some suggestions for a good quality hunting knife. Paul is an avid hunter, and will hopefully be butchering his own deer this fall. Good luck Paul, and the best knives are either Wustof Trident or Henckels, both from Solingen, Germany. Expect to pay $40 to $50. These knives are best kept sharpened with a steel or a Chef's Choice Knife Sharpener.

Chicago Cutlery is a good quality American product that costs about 40 percent less. You can find good knives at Kitchen Glamour, Williams Sonoma, Hudson's and Jacobson's.

has a pear tree in her backyard, and was looking for a different dish that incorporates fresh pears. This recipe comes from one of the old "Cookbook Digest" paperback subscription that is a James Gang favorite. It tastes great hot for dinner, and makes an equally satisfying cold luncheon dish. It's easy too!

CHICKEN WITH PEARS
2 cups chicken broth
2 ripe pears
2 whole chicken breasts, skinned, boned, halved
1 cup heavy cream
Fresh ground pepper to taste

In a medium saucepan, bring the broth to a simmer. Peel and core pears, reserving the peel. Chop the pears in the simmering broth until tender, about 15 minutes, then transfer pears to a food processor or blender and pulse until smooth.

Place chicken and pear peelings in the simmering broth and poach the chicken breasts until chicken is tender and cooked throughout, about 6-8 minutes.

Remove from heat. In a small saucepan, boil the cream until it is reduced by half. Whisk in the pear puree and heat throughout. Transfer chicken pieces to a serving platter. Pour pear sauce over chicken pieces and sprinkle with fresh ground pepper. Serves 3-4.

Another anonymous caller requested information on some cookware frequently mentioned in this column. Calphalon cookware that comes in it's standard form is an anodized aluminum cookware that is used in a standard form. It's a little pricey (about $40-$50 per piece) but good cooks appreciate it's weight and great ability to conduct heat. I love using it, but it does require a little care and should not be placed in the dishwasher.

Occasionally, retailers offer individual cooking pieces like small sauce pans and saucetons on "try me you'll like me specials" for $20-$35. I suggest you try any gourmet cookware before investing in expensive sets.

Jan Ballantine of Troy has "zucchini coming out of her ears" and wants different recipes. Here's a recipe you probably never thought of.

ZUCCHINI EGG ROLLS
7 cups grated zucchini
1 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons oil
2 cups sliced celery
1 cup chopped green onions
1 cup chopped water chestnuts
1 clove garlic, minced
1 tablespoon minced fresh gingerroot
2 cups sliced mushrooms
2 cups minced bean sprouts
Soy sauce and pepper to taste
Oil for deep fat frying
3 tablespoons flour or cornstarch
18 egg roll wrappers
1 egg white

Place the grated zucchini in a colander and sprinkle with salt. Weigh the squash with a heavy plate and allow to drain for 30 minutes to remove excess water from squash. Squeeze out any remaining water.

Heat 2 tablespoons of oil in a wok or large frypan. Stir fry the zucchini for 2 minutes or until barely cooked. Remove zucchini and set aside in a large bowl.

Heat remaining oil in a wok or large frypan and stir-fry the celery, onion, water chestnuts, garlic and ginger for 2-3 minutes. Add mushrooms, toss and remove from wok and mix in with zucchini. Season mixture with a few drops of soy sauce and some fresh ground pepper. Mixture will be moist but should not be wet.

Preheat oil in wok or deep fat fryer to 375 degrees. On a lightly floured board, lay down one egg roll wrapper with it's corner towards you. In the center of the wrapper, place about 1/4 cup of zucchini mixture.

Fold in the side corners and roll. Aim for a tight, not loose roll. Moisten the flap with a little egg white to seal. Place the egg roll on a heavily floured baking pan and continue making egg rolls until all the filling is used. Do not allow the egg rolls to touch each other on the baking sheet.

Shake off excess flour and fry the egg rolls in the hot oil until golden brown, about 3 minutes. Drain on paper towels and serve with a mustard sauce or a sweet and sauce sauce.

Egg rolls can be fried and reheated if desired. Makes 16-18 egg rolls.

St. Julian is tops in wine competition

While Michigan winemakers may still be reeling from last winter's devastating effects on their vineyards, many of them were all smiles when they learned the success of their wines in the 1994 Michigan State Fair Wine Competition.

Of 16 gold medals awarded, the lion's share, six golds, went to St. Julian Wine Company, the state's largest producer.

Additionally, a sweepstakes award for Best of Show red wine was awarded to St. Julian for its 1991 Lake Michigan Shore Chardonnay.

Tabor Hill Winery took a grand award for Best of Show red wine of its non-vintage (NV) Late Harvest Riesling.

Other gold medal winners, listed by winery are:

Bowers Harbor Vineyards: 1992 Blanc de Noir Sparkling Wine
Penn Valley Vineyards: 1992 Chardonnay and 1993 Johannisberg Riesling
Good Harbor: NV Northern Lights
Leelanau Wine Cellars: 1993 Leelanau Limited Chardonnay and NV Strawberry
Lemon Creek: 1991 Vinogoles
St. Julian Wine Company: NV Great White, 1991 Chambourcin, NV Catherman's Port, NV Raspberry Champagne, NV Solera Cream Sherry
Tabor Hill Winery: NV Grand Mark Brut and NV Hartford Green Sherry

An analysis of the results shows that St. Julian Wine Company not only stole the show in the red wine category, but scored at the top in every wine category: white, red, sparkling and dessert. No other winery has this bragging right!

In January of this year, we chose St. Julian's Great White ($4.95) as the wine selection of the week. If you've not tried it, we'll say it again: There is no better white wine made in the $5 price point.

Blue-collar meals are good eating

SKILLET FRIED CHICKEN
1 whole chicken cut into 8 pieces
salt, black pepper to taste
1 cup flour
1 egg, beaten
1/2 cup milk, or 1/2 cup beer or white wine
2 cups unseasoned bread crumbs
1/2 cup vegetable oil (approximate)

Rinse the chicken and use paper towels to blot off as much moisture as possible. Season with salt and pepper. Place the flour in a plastic bag and dredge the chicken pieces in it. Combine the egg and milk in a small bowl, dip the chicken pieces into this mixture and then coat with bread crumbs, use your hands to press the bread crumbs onto the chicken.

Heat the oil until very hot in a heavy-bottomed skillet, place the chicken side down, and fry on high heat for minutes or until quite brown. Turn the pieces over and continue cooking for about 30 minutes. Check for doneness by inserting a fork into each piece - the juices should run clear. Serves 4 to 6.

15-MINUTE BEEF BARBECUE
1 pound beef round tip steaks, cut 1/4 to 1/2-inch thick
2 teaspoons vegetable oil
1 medium onion, cut into thin wedges
1/2 cup prepared barbecue sauce
4 crusty rolls, split

Steak beef steaks; cut lengthwise in half and then crosswise into 1-inch wide strips. Set aside.

In large nonstick skillet, heat oil over medium-high heat until hot. Add onion; cook and stir 3 minutes or until lightly browned. Remove from skillet; keep warm.

In same skillet, add beef (1/4 at a time) and stir-fry 1 minute or until bles and the only fresh produce in the house was probably a tomato, a head of iceberg lettuce, and a carrot.

There weren't many produce markets around at the time, and the mega supermarkets of the day were supermarked.

"The only ethnic food families might have been eaten would be on a rare visit to a Chinese restaurant or having a slice of pizza as a snack," Braden said. "They would never have considered preparing these foods at home."

In the 1960s health and fitness became a topic of interest, but so-called health-food diets and vegetarianism were considered oddities, and things "those hippies did."

In today's world, the foods our moms fixed might be considered comfort foods. We think of a big pot of beef stew, fried chicken, meat loaf, and homemade macaroni and cheese as good American fare that we better only eat from time to time because they are fat and bad for us.

With both heads of the household working in the family, dinner is now rarely on the table at 5:30 p.m. Many families, however, are trying to make time for that traditional meeting at the dinner table to talk about the day's events and enjoy a meal.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Despite suggestions that they eat right and exercise, many Americans do neither. Even if a person exercises regularly, it is sometimes difficult to get proper nutrition from the food we eat. According to the National Cancer Institute, only about 20 percent of us consume the recommended minimum of five servings of fruit and vegetables a day. Most of us get only about three servings of these foods. Even those with the best intentions may find it difficult to get the necessary amounts of nutrients from foods as suggested by recent studies. It would take 10 cups of wheat germ, 3 1/2 cups of cooked spinach, and 16 oranges daily to get all the Vitamin E, beta-carotene, and vitamin C that the studies urge. A more realistic option rests with taking supplements of these vitamins.

Did you know that September is National Organic Harvest Month? What better way to celebrate than to come and shop the GOOD FOOD CO. We are Michigan's largest natural food supermarket. This month is dedicated to the education and promotion of organic foods and agriculture. Our huge stock of organic foods and foods without additives, preservatives, and artificial coloring and flavoring is without comparison. Call us with your questions at 981-8100 or just come on by. We are located at 42615 Ford Rd. We are open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 to 9:00 and Sundays from 10:00 to 8:00.

CANTON SPORTS SCENE

Injured coach

It's been a rough year for Plymouth Salem basketball coach Bob Brodie.

First his son, Joe, suffers a life-threatening injury while skiing last February. And now, with Joe nearly fully recovered, Bob goes down with a torn Achilles tendon, which he injured while playing — what else? — basketball.

It happened at the Gus Macker 3-on-3 Tournament hosted by Oakland University Aug. 25-28. Brodie was recruited to play by one of his assistants, Rick Wilson.

"I talked him into it," said Wilson. "And sure, I felt bad about (the injury), but he wanted to play."

The team won their first game and were going strong in their second when Brodie limped off the court. It didn't take too long to diagnose the injury.

Brodie, who's 40, underwent an hour of "very painful surgery," according to Wilson, last Wednesday to reattach the tendon. He will be in a cast for six-to-eight weeks, but he should get a walking cast within two.

And he should be ready to coach by the start of the season.

Tough loss

A pair of scoring chances went for naught, and it cost Plymouth Christian Academy in a 1-0 defeat to Pontiac Oakland Christian Thursday in Hines Park.

"It was an encouraging 1-0 defeat," said Eagles' coach Greg Gustafson. "We just didn't put the ball in the net."

The only score of the match came in the 18th minute, by Ken Butler. PCA's Jamie Neil made 11 saves in the game.

Chris McCoy and Shaun Walker each had good chances to knot the score, but couldn't capitalize. The loss left the Eagles at 1-2.

Last Monday, they ripped Southfield Christian 5-0 at PCA, thanks to Walker's three first-half goals.

His scoring led the Eagles to a 4-0 halftime lead. Andy Roose also scored, assisted by Dan House. All four goals came in the first 24 minutes of the match. House finished the scoring in the 75th minute, Chris DeRenzo assisting.

Neil made 19 saves to secure the shutout.

Golf champs

Marc Olin outdueled Ryan Yost on the first playoff hole to claim the low gross championship in the first annual Fox Hills Country Club Junior Golf Tournament Aug. 23.

Playing in the 10-13 age division, Olin and Yost each shot a 46 for nine holes. Ed Lynch had the best low net score — 31.

Double-eagle

Dick Michalik, a 61-year-old retired insurance salesman from Inkster, scored a double-eagle on the 510-yard third hole at Plymouth's Mission Hills.

Michalik, who underwent triple-bypass heart surgery two years ago, used a driver off the tee and, from 180 yards, a four iron into the hole.

Michalik has never had a hole-in-one. He shot 79 for the round.

Skating standouts

A pair of young figure skaters whose home ice is the Plymouth Cultural Center excelled at the Ice Skating Institute of America World Recreational Team Championships Aug. 8-13 in Chicago.

Michelle Manery, eight-years old, from Plymouth, finished second in Freestyle I skating.

Renee Kolarik, 10, from Canton, placed second in Freestyle III skating.

The ISIA championships attracted nearly 6,900 entries, ranging in age from one to 82.

Soccer champs

The Plymouth Lightning '81 girls premier team won the under-14 division at the fifth annual Dearborn Invitational Tournament Aug. 26-28 by posting five-consecutive shutouts. The Lightning outscored their opponents 18-0.

Team members are Sarah Anderson, Jennell Cobor, Kelly Connell, Sarah DeBrien, Danelle Filipi, Sharon Greer, Emily Kastz, Kristin Kopenski, Emily Neijendam, Vicki Palis, Theresa Radtke, Cheron Rice, Kristin Shea, Andi Solano, Katie Thomas, Sarah Ware, Andrea Weinman and Dana Whittaker. The team is coached by John DeBrien and Glenn Kastz.

The '83-84 Canton Lightning boys select soccer team also won its division at the Dearborn Invitational, defeating the Livonia Meteors in the final 2-0. Earlier in the tournament, the Lightning tied the Meteors 1-1, beat the Brighton Express 3-1, blanked the Redford Raiders 9-0 and, in the semifinals, topped the Dearborn Heights Lightning 3-1.

Late TDs lead Belleville to win over Salem

Belleville rallied to score two fourth-quarter touchdowns Friday and overcome visiting Plymouth Salem in a football season opener, 26-14.

The Rocks took a 14-13 lead with 8 1/2 minutes left in the game when senior tailback Mike Brannan capped a short drive with a 1-yard run and Mike Kley kicked his second extra point.

The go-ahead touchdown followed a pass interception by Salem's Dirk Schmiedel, who returned the ball 40 yards to the Belleville 20-yard line.

But the lead was shortlived as the Tigers responded with a three-play, 63-yard scoring drive and regained the advantage.

Senior fullback Chris Cannon carried the ball on each play and finished the drive with a 23-yard run at 7:32. A two-point pass attempt failed, but the Tigers were ahead 19-14.

Belleville stopped Salem at midfield and scored again on its next possession. Junior halfback Ian Gold ran 34 yards for the insurance TD with two minutes remaining.

The Tigers employed an awesome rushing attack, gaining 436 of their 454 total yards on the ground.

Cannon and Gold accounted for most of it. Cannon (6-0, 200) carried 21 times for 203 yards, and Gold (6-2, 180) rushed for 163 yards and three TDs on 15 attempts.

Gold had an 8-yard run for a TD in the first quarter and Belleville led 7-0 at halftime. He sprinted 54 yards in the third period to give the Tigers a 13-0 lead following a failed kick.

Brannan gained 106 of Salem's 119 rushing yards on 12 carries. He also accounted for the team's first touchdown, running 15 yards in the third quarter.

The Rocks had 29 yards passing and 148 total.

Defensive lineman Brian Halsted had eight solo tackles and several assists, and defensive back Dan McKian had seven tackles.

Chiefs can't corral Mustangs

Plymouth Canton had almost everything going in its favor at halftime Thursday against Birmingham Marian. To win, Marian would have to step up its play on a foreign court — and it did.

BY C.J. RISAK
STAFF WRITER

Two state-ranked teams, Plymouth Canton and Birmingham Marian, headed in different directions in the second half of their game Thursday.

The homecourt Chiefs, who led by two at the intermission, went spiraling downward. The visiting Mustangs raised their game to another level.

The result: A 49-40 Marian victory.

The cause of Canton's descent — a high-energy defensive performance by the Mustangs that limited the Chiefs to 6-of-25 (25 percent) floor shooting over the last two quarters.

"We had an excellent second half," said Canton coach Mary Lillie-Ciccone. "We picked it up (defensively) two notches."

It wasn't that Marian (now 2-0) played poorly in the first two quarters. But Canton was getting better shots, and converting — at least early. The Chiefs were 7-of-13 (54 percent) in the opening period en route to a 15-12 lead.

From then on, however, they struggled. They went 2-of-11 in the second quarter, and didn't score a basket in the last 5:46.

Then they started the second half by missing their first eight floor shots. Combined with its drought ending the first half, Canton went nearly 9 1/2 minutes without a field goal. And yet, the Chiefs were still in the game: Consecutive baskets by Amicie Crayton and Tiffany Williams put them up 29-28 with 3:21 left in the third.

That's when Julie Storen took over.

Marian's top offensive threat struggled in the first half, getting two fouls in the opening quarter and a third before halftime. But she avoided further foul problems and came to life in the last 3:08 of the third quarter, scoring eight points to ignite a 12-0 Marian run that turned the game around.

The Mustangs' 40-29 lead starting the fourth quarter was never really challenged by Canton, which got no closer than the final margin.

Despite playing little more than half the game, Storen netted a game-high 18 points — 12 coming in the second half. Brandi Bentley added 10.

Nowhere to turn: Canton's Sarah Warnke looks for help, but is surrounded by Marian defenders — something that occurred all night.

The Chiefs got nine points each from Crayton and Sarah Warnke. No one else had more than six.

"I never thought we were able to ever establish any consistency with our offense," said Canton coach Bob Blohm, whose team lost 1-1. "I thought we came out real flat in the second half."

"And we didn't rebound well. We didn't get that many second shots."

While Blohm saw a lot his team could work on in the next two weeks — the Chiefs are idle until the Farmington Hills Mercy Tournament, which starts Sept. 15 — Marian's Ciccone was pleased with her squad's early-season performance.

"We were ranked something like 21st in the state at the start of the season, and Canton was eighth or ninth," she said. "I told the kids, 'You're proving you can play with them.' And they can."

Marian's offense still needs work (19-of-48, 40 percent from the floor), but the Mustangs showed they can create offense off their defense. And they showed they know what it takes to win.

■ WHITMORE LAKE 45, PCA 44: A five-point Plymouth Christian Academy lead melted away in the fourth quarter of Thursday's Whitmore Lake Tournament championship game, and the host Trojans collected the win in overtime.

Rae-Ann Jokinun, who led all scorers with 18 points, scored the game-winner for Whitmore Lake (2-0). Jill Henry added 12 for the Trojans.

The Eagles (1-1) fell behind in the fourth quarter after leading 19-15 at the half and 30-25 after three periods. Karin Reed's three-pointer with seven seconds left in regulation forced overtime. Reed finished with 13 points; Lisa Erickson had 12.

In Tuesday's first-round game, PCA led from start to finish, pushing its lead from 10-4 after one quarter to 16-10 at the half and 24-16 through three quarters in defeating Burton Valley Christian 33-19.

Erickson's eight points topped PCA. Reed had seven and four assists, and Sarah Sumner contributed six points and 10 rebounds. Heather Stillson scored seven for Burton Valley Christian.

Monroe repels Chiefs' final charge

BY C.J. RISAK
STAFF WRITER

The big play vs. the big play. That, in simplest terms, is what Friday's season-opening Plymouth Canton-vs.-Monroe football game came down to.

And the big player prevailed — Monroe's Jeff Goins, who sliced through Canton's defense for 177 yards rushing and two touchdowns, led the Trojans to a 16-13 triumph at CEP.

The Chiefs had an opportunity to pull out a win even though their defense never really stopped Goins (he had negative yardage on just one of his 31 carries). A short Monroe punt gave Canton the ball at their own 40-yard line with 5:18 left; seven plays — five Len Gardner runs for 26 yards and a pass reception for another 8 — put the ball on the Monroe 12 with two minutes left.

On second down, Canton quarterback Brett Elledge scrambled down to the one for an apparent first down and goal. Not so, however — the Chiefs were called for clipping, nullifying the gain and pushing the ball back to the 20. Two plays later, an overthrown Elledge pass was intercepted by Jason Reinhardt.

Game over. "Nobody's given that kid any credit," said Monroe coach Ralph Carducci of Goins. "He's a captain, and he was tonight. He was a leader out there."

With Goins gaining yards seemingly at will in the first half (he had 95 by halftime), the Trojans were in position to dominate. But after Goins' 1-yard touchdown dive and the two-point conversion in the first quarter, Canton's big plays reversed momentum.

The Chiefs stopped Goins short of a first down on a fourth-down run, and on the next play, Elledge raced around the right end 72 yards for a Canton TD. The two-point try failed, but the gap was narrowed to 8-6 with 5:15 left.

In Monroe's next series, a Reinhardt fumble was recovered by Canton at the Monroe 39. Three plays later, Gardner — who finished with 85 rushing yards on 17 attempts — took off for 29 yards and a touchdown that gave the Chiefs a 13-8 halftime lead.

The Trojans recaptured the lead on an eight-play, 63-yard drive capped by Goins' 3-yard waltz into the end zone. Another two-point pass gave them a 16-13 lead, which they never lost.

"I thought our kids did a good job. I really did," said Canton coach Bob Khoenle. "If they can just keep their heads up and not get down about this."

After all, there are eight more games.

Ocelots released for new season

By C.J. REXAK
Staff Writer

When nearly everyone from a soccer team has just one match the previous season is lost, it would seem time for transition — at the very least — would be in order.

Not with Schoolcraft College's men's team Ocelots coach Van Dimitriou as confident in his 34th season in Plymouth as he is. "We're not missing a beat," he said optimistically prior to his team's departure for the Monroe CC Tournament in Rochester, N.Y., last weekend. "The only question mark is that we don't have an experienced sweeper like Billy Jaker."

That's the only question. Everything else we're pretty solid. His new lineup includes three experienced players, perhaps depending whether Ryan Piper receives academic clearance) Among them is a soccer team that just one match the previous season is lost, it would seem time for transition — at the very least — would be in order.

Bazzi has picked up right where he left off in the Ocelots' first two scrimmages — a 3-0 victory over Spring Arbor and a 3-2 loss to Eastern Michigan — he scored four of his team's five goals.

Fadi is quicker and stronger than ever," said Dimitriou.

The other two experienced returners are team captain Tim McCauley (Livonia Stevenson) and Tom Kuzak SC started the season with McCauley at sweeper and Kuzak at stopper, but Dimitriou had them swapped spots. Other defenders who will get plenty of playing time are freshmen David Binkiewicz (Livonia Franklin) and Chris Graczyk, both strong markers. Should To play goal, Dimitriou landed

Others who will see action are Wissam Fardoun, a left-side player, and Chris Foght, who will get some time at forward, too.

Joining Bazzi up front are Ryan Smith (Salem), the son of Canton coach Don Smith, Mo Hijazi ("He has better touch on the ball than Fadi"), Emanuel Chiaburu and Salame.

A pair of Plymouth residents, Andrea Pruetz and Angela Stillman, were members of the team, together with Brook Raths (South Lyon) and Lindsay Barber (Grosse Pointe).

The Jumpin' Jordans, an 11-12-year-old boys team, finished third at the Old Gus Macker. The Jordans lost out on second place by a single point in sudden death.

Team members were Jeremy Hanson, Nick Cabautian, Jay Sosen and Oliver Wolcott.

Spartans repeat as Relays champions

By BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

It was just another day at the office for the Livonia Stevenson girls swim team.

The Spartans, state Class A runners-up a year ago, opened their 1994 season Thursday by repeating as Western Lakes Activities Association Relays champions.

Stevenson scored a team-high 270 points in the 11-school meet held at Plymouth School's pool. See statistical summary.

Northville was next with 224, edging North Farmington (210) and the host Rocks (202) for second place.

But the day belonged to the Spartans, who won five of the meet's 10 events in an all-around performance.

"We swam real average, there weren't any spectacular swims, but that's because I had them working hard all week," Stevenson coach Greg Phill said. "We had a practice this morning, so I guess we were a little warm-up," the North coach said. "We also hadn't been on the blocks until today, but we had fun and that's what was really important."

Salem's lone first was recorded by its diving tandem of junior Zoe Yockey and sophomore Laura Berzkyk.

"Two-hundred points is real good for us," said Salem coach Chuck Olson, who's lost top breaststroker Amy Pary before the season on a transfer move to Syracuse, N.Y. "We were in the vicinity most of the night. You try to do the best you can. It's early. We swam OK for us, but everybody else is in the same situation."

Olson, however, knows Stevenson is going to be difficult to catch.

"They have a darn nice team," he said of the Spartans. "They're one of the top three or four in the state, right up there with Ann Arbor Pioneer and (Grand Rapids) Forest Hills (Central), Ann Arbor Pioneer and (Birmingham) Seaholm."

HOROSCOPE

By C. C. Clark

Aries (March 21 - April 20)

You have a very strong character, and you will have the stamina to see others through a troubled time. You may receive a small gift.

Taurus (April 21 - May 20)

Take a closer look into the situation in order to understand it better. There is an indication that someone close to you may become ill.

Gemini (May 21 - June 20)

Try not to force the issue for now. A slight adjustment could change everything. Control your emotions, and know jealousy when you see it.

Cancer (June 21 - July 20)

You planted the seeds, and now it is time to reap the benefits. Your timing and patience will pay off in a very big way.

Leo (July 21 - Aug. 21)

A trip or some special event that you have been looking forward to may have to be postponed. There is a need to get out of a stifling situation.

Virgo (Aug. 22 - Sept. 22)

Someone may not be telling you everything you need to know. Don't give up; your persistence will eventually get you results.

Libra (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22)

It is important that you channel your leadership abilities in the right direction. Take your time making an important decision.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 - Nov. 22)

It would be best to take a good look at the obstacles you are faced with to see if you were the one who put them there. Success demands organization.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23 - Dec. 20)

Others have come to rely on you, and that may work to your advantage. This is a good time for making changes at home and in the work place.

Capricorn (Dec. 21 - Jan. 19)

It seems that the most important areas of your life are at a standstill. You will be dissatisfied with the way things turn out and be ready to make a new start.

Aquarius (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18)

It might be a good idea to listen to someone who has been through the same thing you have. Then, talk about your experiences.

Pisces (Feb. 19 - March 20)

You don't mind working hard for your money, but sometimes it seems that is all you do. Take some time out to enjoy life; you will appreciate it more.

Fox, NFL score with season openers

BY JEANNE MARINO

The NFL rushes to the rescue of sports fans with the opening of the regular season on Sunday, Sept. 4.

While labor disputes have been grabbing the headlines in the sports pages lately, the NFL has been striving to make this one of its most exciting years ever.

Rule changes like the addition of the two-point conversion as well as changes in personnel should put scoring on the rise in the NFL.

And it's just in time for Fox's first-ever coverage of NFC regular season games with a regional doubleheader on Sunday.

The Dallas Cowboys still appear to be the team to beat in the NFC, even with a new coach, Barry Switzer. Meanwhile his predecessor, Jimmy Johnson, who led the Cowboys to two straight Super Bowl victories, will be doing studio commentary for Fox.

The off-season acquisitions of defensive standout Ken Norton by the San Francisco 49ers and quarterback Warren Moon by the Minnesota Vikings make both teams serious threats to any plans the Cowboys may have to walk away with their third consecutive Super Bowl rings.

NBC launches coverage of the AFC with regional games on Sunday.

The Los Angeles Raiders visit the 49ers in an interconference matchup Monday on ABC.

No shotgun wedding for Don Diamont

BY CANDACE HAVENS

Dear Candace: I am a big fan of "The Young and the Restless," and I was wondering if you could tell me who Don Diamont (Brad) married recently. A friend of mine told me that Diamont and his wife were already expecting a baby. Was it a shotgun wedding? -C.B. in Georgia.

Dear Reader: Diamont and his bride wed last March, and there were no shotguns involved. His wife's name is Rachel and she has two sons, 4-year-old Lauren and 3-year-old Sasha. Both children live with Rachel and Don. The couple is expecting another child in February.

Dear Candace: I've watched "Days of Our Lives" for a couple of years, but I am not very familiar with the character Hope (Kristen Alfonso). Could you please tell me who Hope is related to on the show? It is all very confusing.

Also, I like Hope, but I don't think that it is a good idea for her to break up Bo (Robert Kelker-Kelly) and Billie (Lisa Rinna). Let her find someone else to pair up with. Bo and Hope may have had some big-time relationship in the past, but I think he and Billie were absolutely meant for each other. -M.L. in Kentucky.

Dear Reader: If you have only been watching the show for a short time, it is not surprising that you are a little confused.

Exploring Hope's parentage may confuse you more. But here it is: Doug and the late Addie Horton are Hope's parents. Addie died of cancer. Doug is now married to Addie's oldest daughter, by another marriage, Julie. Alice Horton is Hope's grandmother. All of the other Hortons are either her aunts, uncles or cousins, except for Julie, who is her stepmother and half sister. Hope was married to Bo, and they had a son, Shawn-Douglas.

The vote on the Billie/Bo/Hope triangle seems to be split. There is a trend in that the viewers who saw Bo and Hope together in the past are the same ones who want them back together now. The viewers who have been watching for a shorter time want to see him with Billie.
