Rail crossing to be fixed

At last: The Chessie System railroad plans to fix this crossing over Haggerty Road in August. The car above is not unlike plenty of others whose drivers do what they can to avoid the large dip.

The Chessie System railroad company plans to raise the sunken track at the crossing on Haggerty Road south of Joy.

Project engineer Tom Tippie said the $5,000 job will begin sometime in August and take a week to complete.

Haggerty Road will be closed to traffic at that point for the duration of the work, Tippie said.

Motorists are advised to use Lilley Road as a detour during construction. Residents are expected to be advised of the exact date of construction as workers move their way up the tracks from Toledo as they complete projects along the way.

Although the railroad line in question has existed since 1868, Tippie said, the crossing at Haggerty Road has existed just two years.

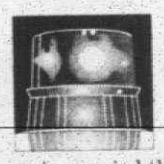
The tracks formerly crossed Haggerty at a point about 250 feet northwest of the current location before the road was relocated, Tippie said.

It's not uncommon for railroad tracks at new crossings to settle, Tippie said.

The crossing has settled at least two inches, leaving an abrupt bump between tracks and concrete.

New police radios eyed

■On several occasions, police requests for assistance have gone unheard. That's prompted a request for an improved radio system estimated at more than $200,000.



BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW
STAFF WRITER

Canton Township Public Safety Director John Santomauro is worried that a police officer will be injured or killed because his radio call for assistance isn't heard back at headquarters.

"We've had three incidents in the last 30 days where officers called for assistance and we didn't hear them," Santomauro told Canton trustees Tuesday.

Santomauro hopes that trustees will approve his request to upgrade the radio system at a cost of $214,715 without taking bids.

"The recommended modifications are needed immediately," he wrote in a report. "The bidding process at this point would slow down the project. Any such breakdown proposes a potential threat to the safety of our personnel."

To the board he said, "It is imperative that we move along as quickly

Whyman chided for 'divisive politics'

State Rep. Deborah Whyman of Canton

BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW
STAFF WRITER

Eight Canton residents, at least three of them Democrats, have sent a letter to community leaders asking that they "take a strong stand against the divisive politics of" state Rep. Deborah Whyman, R-Canton and her former campaign manager Jeff Schroder.

Appearing at the bottom of the letter are the names and addresses of Shelly Chakrabarti, Patricia Duthie, David Lay, Kate Raven, Dale Smith, Becky Tavarozzi, Dennis Donahue and Gwendoline Ghosh.

The letter says that Whyman, who seeks re-election to a third term this year, and Schroder, who worked for Whyman in 1994 and is running himself for county commissioner now, are contaminating their campaigns with racist tactics.

Whyman has charged that the poor quality of area roads can be blamed in part on policies that set aside work for minority contractors and that her Democratic opponent, Canton resident Deborah Nesbit, was recruited by the Detroit NAACP.

Schroder, who opposes county commissioner Thaddeus McCotter for the Republican nomination to represent Livonia, Plymouth and Plymouth Township, has been criticized for a plan to have western Wayne County communities secede from Wayne County.

"We are writing to ask that you take a strong stand against the divisive politics of Deborah Whyman

Firefighters host softball benefit

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
STAFF WRITER

If the success and popularity of the Canton firefighters' and police benefit hockey games are any clue, get ready for a rarin' good time at their benefit softball game Aug. 3.

The softball game - of a minimum seven innings - will pit Canton firefighters and police against a celebrity team of Detroit Red Wings.

"There will be some participation by the (Red Wings) alumni and TV sportscasters from channels 50 and 4," said firefighter Mike Caruso. For example, sportscaster Eli Zaret will participate.

The 7 p.m. game at Canton Softball Center on Michigan Avenue is the first charity event sponsored by the firefighters newly created charitable foundation.

The purpose of the Canton Firefighters #2289 Charity Foundation is to raise money and distribute it to causes and organizations, such as Special Olympics, March of Dimes and muscular dystrophy.

The foundation's four-member board of directors may also give money to residents who are severely injured in accidents or fires.

"Any money brought to the foundation is dispersed to other charities," Caruso said.

Proceeds from the Aug. 3 softball game will go to Special Olympics and the foundation. "In no way possible is the money to support our union or our firefighters," Caruso said.

New senior apartments coming to Canton

BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW
STAFF WRITER

Officials broke ground Wednesday for the $4 million expansion of Canton Place, a 117-unit apartment house for low-income seniors.

Work is expected to begin within two weeks on the six-story, 56-unit apartment building, which will rise next to the existing building on the southwest corner of Ford and Sheldon.

Joe DiIorio of DeMaria Building Company of Novi expects construction to last about one year.

The building was designed by Malak and Associates, a Southfield architecture company.

Applications for residency will be accepted three months before the building is ready to occupy, said Ginnie Hauck, who manages Canton Place for the National Church Residence.

NCR Housing Management Division Vice President David Brainin estimates that hundreds of applications will be postmarked on the first date for submission and a lottery

Henry Ford plans hit snag

BY M.B. DILLON
STAFF WRITER

Henry Ford Health System's plans to build a medical clinic in Plymouth Township hit a snag at Wednesday night's public hearing.

The township planning commission tabled Ford's special use request, and asked for more information.

The 10-acre site, on the east side of Beck Road north of M-14 and south of the CSX railroad tracks, is zoned industrial.

Planning commissioners "want more information on the proposed use, and a traffic study," said Shirley Barney, Plymouth Township's community development director.

"They just want the applicant to submit more detail on what is being proposed at the site. They're also very interested in traffic impact, and wanted to see a traffic study."

Henry Ford plans to build sister facilities in Plymouth Township and Canton Township to include urgent care; family medicine; internal medicine; pediatrics; and obstetrics and gynecology as part of an $8 million expansion project.

■ 'It's a huge thing, because none of our primary care facilities in this area have had urgent care. We're real excited go get this going.'

Denise Robinson
–Henry Ford Plymouth

Denise Robinson, manager of the downtown Plymouth Henry Ford health center, said urgent care will be a "huge piece of it. It will be open seven days a week; that's our plan."

Ford views it as a plus for Plymouth-Canton. "It's a huge thing, because none of our primary care facilities in this area have had urgent care. We're real excited go get this going," she said.

The request was tabled for up to 60 days. When commissioners next consider it is "dependent upon the applicant, and when the information is submitted," the community development director said.

"We can't say there's a problem, because we haven't had the information to review. We're just looking for more information," Barney said.

Once Ford obtains special use approval, it can apply to the planning commission for site plan approval.

"If they're able to submit all the information, and the commission found it acceptable, they could have the use approved at the August meeting and could apply for site plan approval at the September meeting," Barney said.

A site has not yet been decided upon for Henry Ford's Canton facility.

Candidate Nesbit wants Whyman to apologize, recant

Challenging: State Rep. candidate Deborah Nesbit of Canton wants to see the newspaper article in which her opponent incumbent Republican state Rep. Deborah Whyman says she used the same words as the NAACP in regard to the elimination of Detroit Recorder's Court.

BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW
STAFF WRITER

Did she send it, or didn't she?

The Observer has received a copy of a letter Deborah Nesbit, the Democrat candidate for state representative in the 21st District, wrote to her opponent, Republican incumbent Deborah Whyman.

The letter challenges Whyman to produce the newspaper story in which she claims that Nesbit is quoted using language identical to that of NAACP officials to oppose Whyman's proposal to eliminate Detroit Recorders Court.

The letter is dated July 9 , and Nesbit's campaign manager Rob Myers says he sent it to Whyman by registered mail that same day but has yet to receive a receipt indicating that Whyman received it.

Whyman said Friday, July 19, that she has not received the letter.

"This is a silly game," she said. "How difficult can it be to put a letter in the mail? I feel like I'm playing with some little girls who are still in kindergarten."

Nesbit said that if Whyman can't produce the newspaper article in question that "we want her to recant her statement or issue an apology."

Whyman, who was faxed a copy of Nesbit's letter by the Observer, said she will only respond if she receives the Real McCoy from Nesbit.

And when she responds, she said, she will do so in the form of a 30,000-piece campaign mailing.

and Jeff Schroder," the letter says. "If you believe as we do that our community is being unfairly depicted, then we ask you to take a public stand repudiating the direction Whyman and Schroder are taking this campaign."

The notation at the end of the letter indicates that it was sent to homeowners association presidents, Canton Chamber of Commerce officers and township elected officials. But Chamber President Janet Volante said she has not received one.

"We thought (township Supervisor) Tom Yack and others should know that people are unhappy with the way Deborah Whyman is portraying our community," Raven said.

Three of the eight who sent the letter, Raven, Donahue and Tavarozzi, are members of the Community Democratic Club, Raven said.

Yack said he never showed the letter to trustees because it "certainly didn't deserve Canton Township's time."

The part he dislikes most is the last paragraph, which says, "If you remain silent you support their views. If you speak up and out then you will continue to do what you were elected to do, help us build a community of which we can all be proud."

"That paragraph puts me off big time," Yack said. "It's sort of a means of intimidation."

Raven said the letter was shown to Nesbit's campaign manager Rob Myers before it was mailed. "I didn't want Deborah Nesbit's name to be in anything of that nature," Myers said. "I didn't want it to become a political letter."

Said Whyman: "Kate Raven and her buddies are among the strangest Democrats I've dealt with. They have the maturity of little girls at Girl Scout camp. I'm not going to change my position because they send out a letter. People in Canton don't buy this liberal message."

Whyman said the real racists are those who favor special preferences for minorities. "If the liberal racists want to advocate public policy based on skin color, then they're wrong," she said.

as possible."

Last May the board approved the hiring of Steiger, Hurray & Associates of Hinkley, Ohio to evaluate the radio system.

The consultant's preliminary report recommends the upgrade that Santomauro has asked for.

He said that the increasing number of buildings in Canton has caused the degradation of radio reception.

The board was skeptical of the need to skip the bidding process.

"If it exceeds $20,000 it has to be bid," said Supervisor Tom Yack, unless it's an emergency.

He said that what Santomauro described doesn't seem like an emergency.

Nevertheless, Finance Director Tony Minghine said that trustees could declare it an emergency purchase and buy the upgrade without accepting bids.

"I don't like not doing a bid," Santomauro said, "but we are relying on this consultant to provide the best price."

The plan calls for increasing the height of two remote receiver antennae at Fire Station No. 2 (on Warren Road) and at the high school (on Joy west of Canton Center). That part costs $11,715.

Phase II calls for construction of two additional remote receiver sites in the southeast and southwest portions of the township for a cost of $46,500.

Phase III is the installation of a "repeater system." This means that an officer's radio transmission would go first to one of the remote antennae, then to headquarters. The estimated cost of phase III is $156,500.

Santomauro also noted that trustees could elect to rip out the current VHF system and replace it with a 400 megahertz system similar to what Livonia has.

He's wary of that option because the cost is high ($1.3 to $2.4 million) and may decline in time.

There is more than $170,000 in the Public Safety Department's communications account that could be used, and Santomauro expects another $112,000 by the end of the year in revenue from a 4-percent telephone fee intended to pay for police radio upgrades.

What are we going to do with recyclables?

Overloaded: Paul Denski Jr. and his dad, Paul, are up to their ears in recyclable materials, such as tin cans, glass jars and bottles and newspapers at Canton Waste Recycling on Van Born Road

BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW
STAFF WRITER

Sometimes Paul Denski Jr., who runs Canton Waste Recycling, wonders why we bother to separate recyclables from the rest of the trash.

"We all want to recycle," he said. "But what are you going to do with it?"

Denski told township trustees last week that the price for recyclables has been all over the map, and often one has to pay to get rid of them.

"For the last three years the price for recyclables has gone from its usual low to seasonal highs to extreme highs to a current low low," he said.

Required by law to separate a certain percentage of recyclable material from the trash, the township isn't likely to halt the program anytime soon.

"The whole idea behind recycling is to do something right," Denski said. "It certainly isn't for the money."

Currently, the going rate paid for recyclable newspaper, plastic and colored glass is $0.

Other items are in such low demand that Denski must pay to get rid of them. He pays $1 per gallon to dispose of paint, 65 cents a gallon for oil, $1.50 per ton for cardboard and 33 cents a pound for batteries.

One week recently, CWR collected 220 gallons of oil, 160 gallons of paint, 30 gallons of coolant and 60 pounds of batteries. All that cost $367.80 to get rid of.

In 1995 CWR collected more than four million pounds of recyclables in Canton and lost money on everything except newspapers, tin and appliances.

"We have to find end uses for this recyclable material, otherwise the price is never going to go up," Denski said.

Trustees turned the conversation to yard waste and suggested that a limit be placed on the number of bags of grass, leaves and twigs that Canton Waste Recycling will pick up.

'We have to find end uses for this recyclable material, otherwise the price is never going to go up.'

Paul Denski Jr.
—Canton Waste Recycling

Denski said it costs him (and he passes the cost on to the township) $9 per cubic yard to dump yard wastes.

"My personal opinion is to, buy everyone a mulching mower and limit composting," Denski said.

"When it starts costing money, they'll say, 'I think mulching is a good idea,'" said township Supervisor Tom Yack.

Trustee Melissa McLaughlin suggested that it's best to leave one's leaves on the lawn. Just run them over with your mower a few times. "Then you don't have to spend so much on fertilizer."

IN 1995 CWR hauled 663 loads weighing 4,100 tons to the compost facility, a 9-percent increase over 1994 tonnage.

Denski noted that some subdivisions produce yard waste at a greater clip than others. "We will load the truck up in Holiday Park, and we will go through Sunflower and get half a load," he said.

Canton's waste hauling contract with Canton Waste Recycling will expire in August. The contract is worth $1.423 million to CWR in 1996, up from $941,000 in 1992.

The current contract calls for payment of $4.71 per household, per month to CWR for trash collection. Based on 15,200 households, that comes to more than $70,000 per month.

The cost to pick up recyclables is $1.10 per household per month. For compost? $1.15 per household per month.

Yack said Denski is "one of the only haulers I know of who runs his trucks at legal (weight) limits."

Because he is dumping Canton's waste in the Sauk Trail Hills landfill just south of Michigan Avenue, Denski said he can afford to use lightly loaded trucks. "Our newest boxes are only 12 yards (in capacity)," he said.

Another area where CWR has pleased township officials is the creation of "Canton Cleanup" on the second and fourth Friday and Saturday each month.

Although Denski is not required by contract to do this, he opens the Van Born Road business to accept items that are not picked up at the curb.

Denski told trustees Tuesday that he started picking up compost two weeks earlier than he had to this year and didn't charge the township for dumping it.

Denski is likewise proud of the customer service aspect of his business.

"We handle all calls within 24 hours and most of the time within eight hours," he said.

Township Resource Development Director Mike Ager said he is "very satisfied with CWR's approach. From a customer-service standpoint, they're very good."

Occasionally Denski probably feels like he's a newspaper archivist.

"I get people calling me, (saying), 'Do you have 10 copies of last week's Observer?'"

He can always find a few old copies in the recycling bins.

COP CALLS

Assault & fleeing

Canton police arrested three brothers at their Lotzford Road home after one of them refused to stop his all-terrain vehicle and the other two assaulted an officer.

According to the police report, an officer attempted to stop the small all-terrain vehicle on Lotzford the night of Tuesday, July 16, but the driver, who wore no helmet, would only slow down, then take off.

The ATV driver turned into a driveway on Lotzford and tried to close a gate behind him to block the advance of the police officer.

"He told me to get out of his yard," the officer wrote.

Catching up to the male as he entered the house, the officer entered, too, but was soon surrounded by the male's family members, who were "screaming and yelling at me to let him go. I yelled over them that he was under arrest for fleeing and eluding," the officer wrote.

Two of the male's brothers grabbed the officer and pulled him away.

The officer then radioed for assistance and five other cops soon arrived. A neighbor said he saw nine police cars and one police motorcycle. The ATV driver was arrested and cited for riding without a helmet, no license plate, fleeing and eluding and resisting arrest.

His brothers were arrested for assault and battery on a police officer and interfering with an officer in the performance of his duty.

"During these arrests the entire family was verbally challenging us and yelling," another officer wrote.

Domestic dispute

Police responded Tuesday, July 16, to reports of a husband and wife fighting in their Fairways at Pheasant Run home.

The 35-year-old wife told police that she and her 39-year-old husband were arguing about "his lying" when she threw a peanut butter and jelly sandwich at him, striking him in the chest, according to the police report.

The husband retaliated when he grabbed his wife from behind and "smashed the sandwich into her head to see how she liked it," according to the police report.

The husband told police that his wife "grabbed a full gallon of milk and spilled it on top of his head."

The wife said the "relationship hasn't been good for 15 years, but counseling and/or divorce is not a viable consideration."

The husband said they are staying together for the sake of their children.

No one was arrested, but the couple were given victim's rights forms.

Tool attack

A 24-year-old Dearborn man told police that his boss struck him in the head with a pair of Channel Lock pliers after he quit his job late July 15.

The boss admitted the attack, but said it was provoked by the victim's threat of physical violence.

Police found the blood-speckled Channel Locks on the floor in the boss' Village Green West apartment, where the incident occurred.

The victim was treated at a Dearborn hospital, where seven staples were used to close a 1.5-inch gash on his head.

The boss' wife said both men had been drinking that night. The boss was arrested for felonious assault.

Rape reported

A 16-year-old Canton girl told police she was raped by a male acquaintance about 7 p.m. Wednesday, July 17.

She said that she had gone with a girlfriend to visit the male acquaintance at his house that evening, but the girlfriend and her little brother left early.

The victim said she protested and resisted the male acquaintance, but he threw her on his bed, pulled off her clothing and raped her.

"She said she called (the suspect) a jerk, and he told her not to tell anybody and asked her what her problem was," according to the police report.

He then asked her for a smoke, the officer wrote.

The girl was examined by doctors at Oakwood. Detective Leonard Woolons is investigating.

SCHOOL BOARD AGENDA

The Plymouth-Canton Board of Education meets at 7 p.m., Monday, July 22 at the E.J. McClendon Educational Center, 454 S. Harvey in Plymouth.

After the agenda is adopted and the minutes approved, Superintendent Charles Little will present his report. Topics include harassment complaint procedures; enrollment study report and projections; a review of land holdings; and committee selections.

Citizens' non-agenda comments will precede board requests and reports. The Cabinet and Board of Education retreat will be discussed.

Action items include bills for payment, hiring, and non-affiliated position changes.

A boundary change will be discussed prior to enrollment increases, and facility needs.

Citizen comments on non-agenda items will follow.

Teacher contract negotiations will be discussed in closed session before adjournment.

Four seniors earn Rotary scholarships

Four P-CEP seniors are recipients of the Plymouth Rotary Club vocational-technical scholarships.

Receiving scholarships for the following vocations were Plymouth Canton High School seniors; James Kirila for electrical technology, Kevin Marcicki for fire fighting, Sandy Ansara for law enforcement and Carlos Bonilla for culinary arts.

Rotary Club co-chairpersons Daniel White and Donald Morgan said: "These scholarships were awarded as a result of the participation and dedication of many key P-CEP educators including Mary Kay Frey, Mark Bondy, Mark Siedlik, Carey Gary and Betty DuBois and many more.

"Words can't express the value these board employed professionals add to the purpose of this Rotary scholarship program," Morgan said. "The Plymouth Rotary Club commends Plymouth-Canton Community Schools for its efforts to educate students in all reas, particularly in vocatinal-technical aras. We applaud the district because the Rotary membership is based upon members vocational category and whose dedication to "serve above self" must be demonstrated in that vocation."

White added: "Money for continuation of these Rotary scholarships is dependent upon all members of the community participating in the Plymouth Rotary Fall Festival Bar-B-Q and Plymouth Rotary Golf Classic. Bequests by the estates of Art Haar and Walter Panse and other donations to the Plymouth Rotary Foundation aid the financing of the scholarships.

system will be used to chose the building's first tenants.

When Canton Place's existing apartments neared completion in 1989, Brainin said 1,200 applications were postmarked on the first day of eligibility.

The 350 people currently on the waiting list to get into Canton Place will not automatically be put on the new waiting list, Hauck said. But they are welcome to apply, and they will be permitted to be on both lists.

Applicants must fall below certain income requirements to qualify for residency. Rent for each resident is 30 percent of their income, Hauck said.

Township Supervisor Tom Yack said the Canton Place addition project "was touch and go" as several obstacles had to be overcome.

Construction cost, he said, "came in a lot more expensive than the architects thought."

"There have been three times as many obstacles as you usually see," architect Rick Adams said. "At times it seemed like the project was doomed."

The township's contribution to the project was in reducing the price of the land needed for the expansion from $100,000 to $75,000, Yack said, and kicking in $18,000 to enable NCR to get a hefty grant from the Michigan Housing Authority.

The land sale revenue, Yack said, will be used in some way to benefit senior citizen services.

"We did need a lot of breaks," Hauck said. "And they did give us every possible break to do this."

Brainin said NCR got its start in Waverly, Ohio in 1961, when the Rev. John Glenn (not the astronaut) arranged the organization's first low-income housing project.

Since then the organization has opened more than 150 such apartment buildings in 22 states and Puerto Rico, Brainin said.

More than 250 turnout for Race Day in the Park

Canton Parks and Recreation sponsored its 3rd annual "Race Day in the Park," Saturday, July 13, in Heritage Park.

There was an overwhelming response for all three events; the 18th annual Five Mile Run, the 3rd annual 5K Walk and the 3rd Annual Fun Run for kids; with an overall turnout of over 250 total participants.

The participants in the Quarter Mile Fun Run, ranging from 3-12 years-old, all received ribbons as they crossed the finish line. There were prizes given to the top three finishers in the walk and various age groups in the run.

The winners of the walk and their times are: 1st place, Luke Skywalker (34:42), 2nd place, Bob Goleniak (35:38), 3rd place, Melissa Delong (35:53).

PAC challenges O'Hair's TV ads

BY BETH SUNDRLA JACHMAN
STAFF WRITER

The director of Citizens for Justice, a political action committee, says he is going to court in an effort to get Wayne County Prosecutor John O'Hair's campaign ads pulled from local TV station Channel 7.

A show-cause hearing is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. Wednesday in Oakland County Circuit Court Judge Francis X. O'Brien's courtroom. The hearing is in Oakland County because Channel 7 is in that county.

O'Hair is campaigning to win re-election as Wayne County prosecuting attorney. He faces Democratic opposition in the Aug. 6 primary from state Sen. Virgil Clark Smith of Detroit.

O'Hair's ads make a false claim of a 92 percent conviction rate, Darin Chase, director of Citizens for Justice, said. O'Hair's conviction rate is really around 70 percent, he said.

O'Hair, who said he had not been notified of the hearing as of Friday morning, said he welcomes any opportunity to defend his conviction rate statistics. "We believe in the truth," he said, adding he has no idea where Chase is getting his figures. His office's conviction rate includes those cases disposed of by plea, which includes 75-85 percent of the cases on the trial track, so the conviction rate would at least be that high, O'Hair said. Of those that went to trial, O'Hair's office had a 67-percent conviction rate in 1994, the latest figures included in the annual report of the prosecutor's office. Factored together, those figures mean a conviction rate of more than 90 percent, he said.

■ Citizens for Justice is the political action arm of the Budzyn & Nevers Defense Fund. Walter Budzyn and Larry Nevers were Detroit police officers convicted in the death of Malice Green.

Chase said his figures come from several studies of the prosecutor's office.

O'Hair is also being criticized by John Hamilton, owner of several topless bars. Hamilton issued a response to O'Hair's July 9 press conference where he announced his plan to continue to prosecute bars that allow lap dancing despite political opposition. Hamilton, who was ticketed, says he has contributed $12,000 to Citizens for Justice in an effort to get O'Hair defeated.

"Not one customer was touched, and they wrote me three tickets," he said. A forced seven-day closing by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission is "hanging over my head," because of the tickets, Hamilton said.

The tickets have not yet gone to court even though they were issued in April, he said. "I'm not afraid of him. I will beat him in court," Hamilton said.

O'Hair's actions have probably put 1,000 people out of work from among the bars targeted, Hamilton said, adding he had to lay off 200 people because he doesn't have as much business since O'Hair's crackdown in the spring.

Hamilton also questioned why O'Hair's crackdown happened so long after a Supreme Court decision called lap dancing lewd. The "Dizzy Duck" ruling, named for a Detroit establishment, was issued last July, but the crackdown began in April.

"John O'Hair knew about it for nine months before starting enforcement," he said, calling the current actions a campaign ploy.

The decision from the Supreme Court was remanded to circuit court, and once there was a resolution in circuit court, a notice was sent out to bars clarifying the law and giving them the opportunity to comply voluntarily, O'Hair said. When the bars didn't comply, the task force was formed in the spring, he said.

Hamilton said he plans to continue donating $4,000 for each frivolous ticket or violation issued to his businesses.

Chase wouldn't confirm whether Citizens for Justice received Hamilton's donation. "We will gladly take a contribution from anyone with no strings attached," Chase said.

Citizens for Justice is the political action arm of the Budzyn & Nevers Defense Fund. Walter Budzyn and Larry Nevers were Detroit police officers convicted in the death of Malice Green. O'Hair is responsible for the disregard of Budzyn and Nevers' due process rights, Chase said.

"We have good reason to be outraged over what happened at the trial," Chase said. The Michigan Supreme Court has agreed to hear an appeal of the case, beginning in late September or early October, Chase said. "I'd like him (O'Hair) to make a public statement on Nevers and Budzyn," he said.

"I think these matters should be decided in court," O'Hair said.

"I have no resentment that the case is there (Supreme Court)," he said, calling the Malice Green case the most significant one to go through his office.

"I had a duty to perform and I did it to the best of my ability," O'Hair said.

Neither Hamilton nor Citizens for Justice have made an endorsement in the primary.

Talk topic: mood swings

The Manic-Depressive and Depressive Association of Metropolitan Detroit, a self-help and support group, will hold its monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. today, Monday, July 22, at the Livonia Civic Center Library Auditorium.

The guest speaker will be Fran Chenoweth, director of behavioral medicine at St. Mary Hospital, Livonia. The topic will be "Cognitive Thinking: How It Can Help Maintain Stability in Mood Disorders."

Admission is free.

Local woman appointed to state board

Colleen McClorey of Livonia was appointed by Gov. John Engler to the Michigan Board of Dentistry, which is responsible for the licensure and examination of people prior to their entry into the practice of dentistry, dental hygiene or dental assisting, and for the certification of dental specialists.

McClorey, the associate counsel for the Health Alliance Plan of Michigan, is an attorney with several years experience in the health care law field. As a board member, she will represent the public.

Appointments to the Michigan Board of Dentistry are made with advice and consent of the Senate. All terms expire June 30, 2000.

Golf outing aids institute

The Dearborn Region of the Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute is sponsoring the Fourth Annual Anusbigian Family Charity Gold Classic on Thursday, Aug. 1 at the Dearborn Hills golf course, at Telegraph and Michigan.

Shotgun start times for the event are 8 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. Tickets are $125 per player, with a chance to win one of two cars, a 1997 Mercury or Buick, and a $25,000 check for a hole-in-one. In addition, the ticket price includes a steak lunch provided by Outback Steakhouse, 18 holes of golf with a cart, refreshments on the course, plus free gifts and door prizes.

The golf outing honors the memory of George and Janette Anusbigian. George Anusbigian founded the Westborn Fruit Market in Dearborn and sponsored the first event in memory of his wife, a cancer patient. George died in January 1994. His sons are carrying out the wishes of their father by continuing the outing.

All proceeds from the event will benefit the Karmanos Cancer Institute.

Former Canton resident nabs crime suspect

BY DARRELL CLEM
STAFF WRITER

A former Canton Township man studying for a law enforcement career got some early on-the-job training last week when he nabbed a crime suspect for a local police officer.

Scott Cratty, a 27-year-old father of two, now a Westland resident, is being recommended for a civilian award for chasing down a suspect and restraining him until Westland police officer John Stone could make an arrest.

"I think he's just wonderful," Cratty's wife, Michelle, said. "I'm real proud of him."

So is officer Stone.

"It's really nice and refreshing that this guy would help out like that," he said. "He truly went above and beyond the call of duty."

Cratty is studying criminal justice at Schoolcraft College, and he hopes to enter a police academy next summer.

He already is a Plymouth reserve police officer and a Navy reserve officer in the military police. Somehow he finds time to earn a living at Don's Vending Service of Livonia.

His praise-winning brush with crime occurred July 14 while he was on his way to duty at Selfridge Air Base. He was wearing his military uniform.

Cratty had stopped at a traffic light at Wayne Road and Cherry Hill when he saw a young man get out of an Eagle Talon, approach the car in front of him, tear off the sunroof and climb inside.

The suspect was tailing a woman he knew and, near the heavily traveled intersection, he forced her out of a passenger seat and into his car.

"She was crying," Cratty said.

Fueled by the adrenaline that comes with police instincts, he began following the suspect west on Cherry Hill. By chance, another witness phoned the Westland Police Department.

Cratty, soon joined by Stone's police car, followed the suspect onto southbound Manufacturer's Drive and into an industrial subdivision.

When the suspect reached a dead end, he got out of his car, left the woman he had seized and began fleeing across a field – with Cratty and Stone in hot pursuit.

Stone fell momentarily when his foot slipped into a hole on the rugged field, but Cratty continued the chase and was soon rejoined by Stone.

"My adrenaline was just pumping. I loved it," Cratty said. "I was excited."

The suspect led his pursuers through a wooded area and into a residential neighborhood, where they leaped over a fence into a homeowner's yard, Stone said.

"He went around one side of the house and I went around the other," Stone said.

Cratty caught up with the suspect and restrained him until Stone could place him in handcuffs.

The incident resulted in charges of spouse abuse, fleeing from police and hindering an arrest, and driving on a suspended license. The suspect also faces a charge of malicious destruction of property for tearing off the sunroof of the car he was pursuing.

pered many stories.

His fond memories of Canton date back to 1925 when he was 10 years old. That was when he came here with his parents, August and Mary. Already a family of eight, they found it necessary to add three bedrooms before moving into the farmhouse on Hanford, just west of Ridge Road.

They were part of a regional migration reminiscent of expansion in Canton today. "In the early 20s, there was a real estate boom around Detroit and land prices went up. They got to be $1,000 an acre," Schultz said.

"It changed Canton quite a bit because the new farmers were all dairy and market growers. That was the start of the reason why Canton got to be called the "sweet corn capital of Michigan."

On the farm

Schultz reminisced about many changes in farming. Growing corn was a labor-intensive occupation. In the 1920s, planting and cultivating were done with horses and picking was done by hand. One useful device for farmers at harvest time was the corn boat, which was a horse-drawn sled. Another was the corn bagger.

"I claimed to have invented it, but when I wrote the "Sweet Corn" book and talked to other people," he recalled with a chuckle, "they all claim that they invented it."

Some things have improved with time. He spoke about the changes that now yield better corn and eggs. "It used to be you would come to the farm to buy fresh eggs, and now it's just the opposite. You go to the store to get fresher eggs because they are produced under better conditions. The farm eggs might have been gathered once a day and might be heated. They wouldn't be refrigerated like the ones in stores today."

Schultz remembered simpler times when he and his wife, Tillie, left eggs at the back door for customers. "We would put them in a stack with the price, and people would come and help themselves and just leave the money here. We don't know that we ever lost money."

Changing conveniences

Returning to stories of his boyhood, Schultz described the farmhouse he grew up in as much chillier than modern houses. "We didn't have electric at the time, and there was no additional heat in these rooms. There was a furnace and whatever heat seeped up into the other rooms was all the heat you had there."

Telephone lines were already in when the Schultzes came to Canton but went out of service during the Depression. "No one maintained the lines. They went into disrepair and we were out of a telephone from 1935-1948.

"I will always remember the number, 7154 F 23. 'Twenty-three' meant two long rings and three short. When you heard two short rings, that was West Store on Cherry Hill."

Schultz commented on the different way people used those phones. Most people took care of what they had to say and then hung up. However, these were also the days before private lines, which could sometimes make life interesting in a small community.

"We had certain parties - neighbors who would listen into every call that came in," he reported. "It was typical, I suppose, of most party lines. They always knew what was going on in the neighborhood."

Living only a mile-and-a-half north of Cherry Hill Village, Schultz and his folks made frequent trips to the creamery - first the Detroit Creamery and later on, Wilson Dairy - to drop off milk from their dairy cows. Farmers customarily stopped in at West's general store to buy supplies or sit around the big stove and swap stories.

"Of course, I was young at the time, so I was a listener," Schultz said, with his characteristic kidding smile. "I listened to the older folks talk. A lot of wise sayings went around there, too. Some of those farmers were quite knowledgeable."

Common sights

Schultz recalled common sights, like trucks with hard rubber tires getting stuck in the sandy soil at Cherry Hill and Ridge roads in the days before Ford Road ran west of Canton Center Road. The Schultzes had a federal truck, which was equipped with these wheels, until about 1927. Then they bought a Godfredson truck with rubber air tires. Schultz explained what it was like trying to negotiate a troublesome, sandy curve on Ridge Road with the old truck.

"Rubber tires would balloon and tack down the sand and move ahead. But hard rubber and sand do not work. It is just about as bad as mud. So they got stuck several times, and even at home in sandy spots, you had to be real careful."

Particularly warm memories linger about the dances at Cherry Hill and how they were family affairs. Although kids went with their parents, he noted, that didn't prevent them from leaving with a date.

He mused about the way things have changed nowadays in that regard. "I keep thinking how some kids wouldn't be caught dead at a dance with their folks. It's just not the same."

Comparing the slower pace of life to today's hectic schedules, he was quick to discern one major difference. "We had fun and we had time for it!"

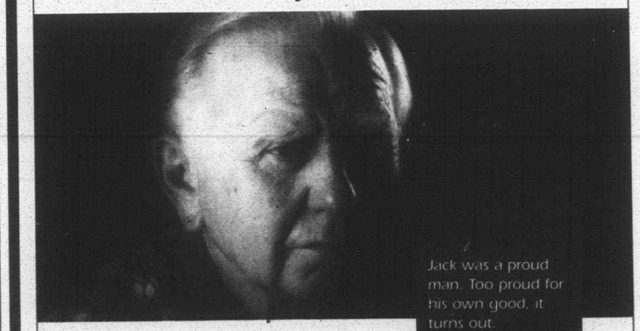
Jack was afraid he'd lose his manhood.
So I lost my best friend.



Jack was a proud man. Too proud for his own good, it turns out.

Jack refused prostate surgery because he was afraid he "wouldn't be able to perform."

Well, his pride cost him his life. And it cost me my best friend.

If you're afraid of losing your manhood, consider this: You could lose your life.

Regular screenings can detect prostate cancer early ... while it's still curable. And with today's improved treatment procedures, most men have little if any loss of function.

Don't lose more than you bargained for. Get regular prostate screenings. It's one of the most important things you can do ... for yourself, and for those who care about you.

Firm to help county get line on phone bills

Wayne County will have its telephone bills of the past five years studied in what could turn up an estimated $200,000 a year in overcharges.

Under a contract approved Thursday by the Wayne County Commission, TelAdjust Inc. of Bloomfield Hills will audit all county telephone bills for the past five years to determine if misbillings and overbillings have occurred.

TelAdjust will receive 40 percent of the value of the refunded amount owed to the county as compensation. No payment will be made to TelAdjust if no refund is received.

A telephone equipment inventory will also be conducted.

One commissioner said the county could see refunds of about $200,000 a year, but county employee Steve Brown said there is no firm figure. "We're very confident we will realize significant savings."

More audits

A plan to hire two auditors to work on the audit of Wayne County airports, at an estimated cost of $65,909 for the rest of 1996, was referred to the commission's Ways and Means Committee.

The proposal was up for approval, but questions were raised about which county department would pay for the auditors. The plan on the agenda called for taking the money out of the Corporation Counsel budget, but Commissioner Thaddeus McCotter, R-Livonia, introduced an amendment calling for the expense to come out of the county commission's budget. Another commissioner called for the cost to come out of the airport budget.

COUNTY NEWS

A $1.6 billion expansion is planned for Metro Airport. "It is imperative that the Auditor General participate from the beginning," Auditor General Ramona Henderson Pearson wrote in her proposal to hire more auditors.

Road work

A Michigan Department of Transportation Intergovernmental Agreement worth $6,150,000 to work on Eight Mile Road was approved Thursday by Wayne County commissioners.

The agreement, between MDOT, Wayne County, the Oakland County Road Commission, and the cities of Livonia, Farmington and Farmington Hills allows for the reconstruction of Eight Mile Road from Halsted to Farmington Roads.

The state contribution is $4,920,000. The cities will pay for new sidewalks at a cost of $28,000. The rest of the cost, $1,202,000, will be paid for equally by Oakland County, Livonia, Farmington Hills and Wayne County at a cost of $303,500 each.

Carts OK'd

Commissioners approved a contract with Club Car Inc. of Livonia for $382,175 to pay for new golf carts and a five-year cart maintenance agreement for Warren Valley Golf Course.

The contract failed at a commission meeting earlier this month, when it failed to get enough yes votes for approval.

Commissioners approved it Thursday, with local commissioners Bruce Patterson, R-Canton Township, and Thaddeus McCotter, R-Livonia, among the no votes. Commissioner Michelle Plawecki, D-Dearborn Heights, and Vice Chair Kay Beard, D-Westland, voted in favor.

Patterson said he was surprised to find in an audit of the county-owned golf course that it seems to be losing money on each round played. But Vice Chair Pro Tem Edna Bell said the figures are skewed because they include expenses at the Inkster Valley Golf Course, which is under construction in Inkster and Westland.

"I would like to see us go to something as dramatic as privatizing the golf course," Patterson said.

Victim assistance

An ordinance establishing a fund to compensate crime victims for certain types of losses was sent back to committee Thursday.

Some county commissioners expressed concerns about funding, while others said the program is self-funded.

The proposal calls for collecting jail costs from sentenced inmates of the Wayne County jail who have assets and using the money to compensate crime victims.

The proposal would also set up a board to develop rules, accept applications from crime victims and make payments.

Compassionate care
At the Providence Center for Breast Care, we know that a diagnosis of breast cancer can turn your world upside down. We provide timely information, support, diagnosis and treatment in a compassionate, caring environment.

Coordinated care
With one call to the Center, you eliminate the delay between diagnosis and treatment—that means treatment is underway in days rather than weeks or months. A clinical nurse specialist will answer your initial questions and schedule diagnostic tests, providing results to the Breast Care group. During your initial visit, the oncology specialists—surgeons, medical and radiation oncologists, plastic surgeons, oncology nurses and social workers—together with you, develop treatment plan options.

Comprehensive care
Our oncology physicians are nationally known in cancer treatment and research. Providence is affiliated with leading oncology research and treatment programs and with the Radiation Oncology program at the University of Michigan Medical Center. You will receive the most advanced and sophisticated cancer-fighting technologies available.

Convenient care
Best of all, you can receive care close to home with locations in Southfield and Novi. Our goal is helping you to regain control of your world with compassionate and quality care—a Providence tradition for more than 150 years.

Money talked in school race

■ WESTLAND SCHOOLS

By Darrell Clem
Staff Writer

Money talked in the June 10 Wayne-Westland school board race, with winners David Cox and Robin Moore emerging as the top two spenders among five candidates, campaign expense reports show.

As they plunked down more money than their competitors, however, the victors ended their campaigns in debt, the Observer learned from county records.

Moore, a 42-year-old accountant/controller from Wayne, shelled out $3,267 for a school board seat that pays $1,560 a year. But she ended her campaign with her political committee owing $1,976, according to her financial statements.

Moore attributed the debt to money that she loaned to her own campaign.

"I paid the bulk of my expenses from my own money," she said Friday.

Top vote-getter Cox, a 38-year-old insurance agent, followed closely behind Moore in spending by shelling out $3,179, but he ended the race $4,623 in debt, expense reports show.

However, virtually all of Cox's political debts were carried over from his unsuccessful bid last November to keep his former Westland City Council seat. His committee still owed $4,499 in that race when he launched his school board campaign, according to expense reports.

Again, the bulk of the debt could be traced to money that Cox's committee owed to him for personal loans.

Cox couldn't be reached for comment Friday because he was out of town.

Ed Turner, a school board appointee who lost his election bid by finishing third, spent $1,937 on his campaign and ended the race with a $517 balance.

"I wasn't going to overspend," he said. "I told my campaign treasurer that if we didn't have the money, we couldn't spend it."

Turner said he will likely use his money in a comeback attempt in next year's school board election.

Although Moore and Cox each spent $3 to Turner's $2, the defeated incumbent said he believes that voter apathy and a low turnout at election polls cost him the race.

Only 1,800 of the district's 65,000 registered voters cast ballots June 10, marking a 2.7 percent turnout, according to figures from district elections officials.

Political newcomers Marshall Wright and Jack Stange, who finished fourth and fifth, respectively, in the board race, didn't have to file campaign expense reports because each spent less than $1,000.

Personal loans aside, Cox's largest contribution in the school board race came from the Wayne-Westland Education Association, a teachers union that gave $700.

He also received a sizable donation from current school board member David James, a real estate agent who gave $450, according to expense reports.

Other contributors to Cox's campaign included Ronald Makino ($100); Westland City Councilman Charles "Trav" Griffin ($100); Citizens for (Mayor Robert) Thomas ($100); Councilwoman Justine Barns ($75); campaign manager Carol Gillentine ($160); city Finance Director Michael Gorman ($50); Assistant Westland Fire Chief Patrick Harder ($25); newly elected school board president Patricia Brown ($25); Councilwoman Sharon Scott ($50); and state Rep. Eileen DeHart, D-Westland ($50), among others.

Moore and her relatives picked up most of her tab, but she also received money from Wayne-Westland principals Leo Schuster and William Camp ($20 each); Westland Fire Chief Michael Reddy ($50); developer Kathy Makino ($80); Wayne Police ($50); the Metro Wayne Democratic Club ($100); and Ronald and Kathleen Graham ($20).

Moore said it was important for her to spend a sizable amount in the board election because it marked her first bid for public office, and she lacked name recognition.

Turner received donations from such sources as former school board member Vicki Welty ($100); Westland Councilman Richard LeBlanc ($50); DeHart ($25); 18th District Judge C. Charles Bokos ($25); Councilman Glenn Anderson ($40); former school board member Laurel Raisanen ($30); Citizens for Thomas ($100); and former school board member David Moranty ($25), among others.

Turner, too, loaned money to his own campaign, although his debts had been paid by the end of the campaign.

Exemplary students honored

Two Gallimore Elementary School students, Amanda Sheridan and Jennifer Bedard, have been recognized as exemplary students by Principal Larry Cole, for their overall achievement and excellence in citizenship.

"Both students are held in high regard by teachers and their peers for the service and treatment they give to others," Cole said. "Amanda and Jennifer exemplify what teachers and parents want students and children to be in their school, community and home lives."

Cole issued the "Principal's Award" in the name of the Michigan Elementary and Middle School Principal Association. MEMSPA is a professional organization for elementary and middle school principals.

The criteria for this award is that it be issued to a student from the exiting grade of the school and that the student be deserving of special recognition for exemplary achievement and contributions to the quality of school life.

MEMSPA and Gallimore Elementary are proud to recognize Amanda Sheridan and Jennifer Bedard as exemplary students of the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools and the State of Michigan.

■ The site plan and special land use request for Classy Chassis Quick Oil Change have been submitted to planning services for approval by the township's in-house development review committee. Classy Chassis, which is east of Canton Center, north of Ford Road, is requesting permission to enclose some of its car wash bays to accommodate an oil change service.

■ The site plan for Agape Christian Center & Academy has been submitted for planning services for approval by the development review committee. Agape, which is south of Geddes, east of Canton Center, is requesting permission to begin phase II of its development. The work will involve adding 19,000-square-feet of classrooms and multi-purpose rooms to the facility.

■ The revised site plan for the Hunn Company Spec building has been submitted to planning services for approval by the development review committee. Plans call for a 33,500-square-foot industrial facility, east of Haggerty, south of Joy. This is the southern half of the property owned by Westland Controls.

■ Work is scheduled to begin in the next week or so on Stonebrook Court, a four-parcel piece of land west of Beck, south of Warren. Initial work will involve the installation of utilities and infrastructure.

■ Work is scheduled to begin on Wood Creek II subdivision, north of Michigan Avenue, with the main entrance off of Haggerty Road. Work will include the installation of utilities and the filling of a detention pond affiliated with the Wood Creek II subdivision. A bigger detention pond will be constructed to accommodate both subdivisions.

■ Work has begun on Royal Pointe West subdivision, which is on 93 acres east of Ridge Road between Hanford and Warren. Workers have been mass grading and conducting tree removal in preparation for the 132-home subdivision.

■ A brick ranch-style home is being moved to the vacant lot at 6934 Canton Center Road. The lot is east of Canton Center Road, south of Warren, north of Indian Creek Drive. The house, which is expected to be in place within three to four weeks, is currently on Taylor, near the Southland Mall. Because the lot has been purchased as part of a plan to expand a nearby Kohl's department store, the owner has decided to move the house to Canton. As part of the move, the owner is rebricking the house and adding two rooms, increasing the house's size to 1,700 square feet.

■ Wayne County reports that the paving of Beck Road between Cherry Hill and Geddes is expected to be completed Sept. 1.

One-man musical show comes to Canton summer outdoor concert series Thursday

It's that Guy!. . .bringing his one-man musical show - The Chautauqua Express - to town for what will certainly be a crowd pleasing performance for the Canton Parks and Recreation Services Summer Concert Series. Guy will perform 7 p.m. Thursday, July 25, at the Amphitheater, in Heritage Park behind the Canton Library.

But don't forget to bring Grandma and grandpa, as well as mom, dad, and all the kids, because this show will delight them all! Says Guy, "I really love to entertain the kid in everybody. It's just more fun to have grandparents, parents and kids together, to celebrate that family unit, and I can help make that happen!"

For the past ten years, Guy has been performing his Chautauqua Express programs throughout Michigan at all types of fairs and festivals, community events, schools, libraries, and more.

As a specialist with stringed instruments such as the mandolin and many different guitars, Guy's shows are highly entertaining and very interactive with the audience. Songs are drawn mainly from popular American sources, and carefully selected for each audience. Guy's wireless sound system allows him to impact the entire audience by extending the stage in every direction. Throughout the performance, there will be audience members coming up on stage to play or sing, or perhaps they'll be dancing in the isles, but everyone will be rockin' and foot tapin' to the fast-moving energy of Guy and his Chautauqua Express.

The show takes its name from traveling shows called "Chautaquas" that were very popular in this country at the turn of the century. Setting up under great tents, they offered all types of entertaining and educational performances to communities throughout North America.

Predating television as a means of national entertainment and cultural enrichment, Chautauquas at once celebrated the local community and shared with it the knowledge of others. At the peak of popularity in 1921, 40 million people attended the various touring programs in nearly 10,000 communities in the U.S. and Canada.

Court rules road officials have duty to warn

■ COURTS

By Tim Richard
Staff Writer

Road officials can be sued if they fail to post warning signs or signals at hazardous spots such as intersections, the Michigan Supreme Court has ruled.

The highest state court decided 4-3 against the Gratiot County Road Commission in a 1988 suit resulting from a collision at Roosevelt and Crapo, two gravel roads where visibility was blocked by an orchard on private property. The justices ruled there was a "duty to warn."

"We were very pleased when Pick (victory) came down," said Wayne J. Miller, Bingham Farms attorney who filed a brief on behalf of the Brain Injury Association of Michigan. "We have had one case on hold for two years pending the result of Pick.

"Motor vehicle accidents are a very significant cause of brain injuries," said Miller.

"When there are less means of compensation, there is less of an incentive (for road agencies) to do a good job."

Miller said recent appellate court decisions have swung "so far to the right" in favor of road agencies that it was "gratifying the Supreme Court drew the line on this insanity."

He blamed "the Engler administration and the Republican hierarchy" in the Legislature for reducing injured people's chances to collect and taking the pressure off safety efforts.

Miller rated the Oakland County Road Commission "outstanding" in its safety efforts but found "lots of cases" in Jackson County.

Statewide impact

"This isn't a one-time case for Gratiot County. The duty applies to highway authorities throughout the state," said assistant attorney general Brenda Turner. She filed an amicus brief on behalf of the Michigan Department of Transportation, although MDOT wasn't a party to the suit. "DOT has always signed and continues to sign," she said.

"The effect is statewide," said Ted Stroud, Lansing attorney who handled the appeal by John Pick, an injured driver suing the road commission, and his wife Sally. "This case is far more important than one accident.

"Even before the Pick opinion, it was very rare to have a rural intersection with no signs at all. After this accident, the Gratiot County Road Commission didn't wait to put up signs.

"There was a 55 mph speed limit and no advance warning sign," said Stroud.

Damages to the Pick couple have yet to be determined. The Supreme Court reversed Circuit Judge Timothy M. Green's decision to dismiss the case without a trial. The Supreme Court sent it back to Green for either trial or settlement.

It reversed Green as a matter of law but had no comment on the facts.

Gratiot is a farming county straddling US-127 between Lansing and Mt. Pleasant.

Both Pick and the other driver, Jan Szymczak, were injured; but Szymczak wasn't a party to the appeal. No one was killed.

Finally a majority

Justice Michael Cavanagh, writing the majority opinion, noted both he and Chief Justice James Brickley called previous Supreme Court opinions on road liability "badly fractured" because no viewpoint had a majority of four votes.

But on June 5 there was a majority: Cavanagh, Brickley, Charles Levin and Conrad Mallett Jr. produced a 17-page opinion.

Justice Patricia Boyle produced nine pages concurring in part and dissenting in part.

Justices Dorothy Comstock Riley and Elizabeth Weaver dissented in a 26-page opinion – as long as the other two put together.

Stroud argued for the Picks that the county road commission had a statutory duty to design, maintain and repair all roadways and intersections "so they are reasonably safe and fit for public travel."

He said there were no signals, stop signs or yield signs at the Roosevelt-Crapo intersection.

The road commission argued that the drivers' vision was obstructed by an orchard on private property, outside the improved roadway.

A Court of Appeals panel agreed 2-1, saying the orchards "cannot be classified as being part of the improved portion of the highway."

Cavanagh noted, however, that the Picks also charged defective design, lack of traffic devices and warning signs and general failure to maintain keep the intersection "safe for vehicular traffic."

Cavanagh said "we expressly hold that a duty to provide adequate warning signs or traffic control devices at known points of hazard arises under the highway exception to the governmental tort liability act. . . And the duty of maintenance includes the duty to erect adequate warning signs or traffic control devices at a 'point of hazard' or a 'point of special danger.' . . .(T)he defendant has a duty to warn motorists."

Cavanagh replied bluntly in footnotes to Boyle's partial dissent: "Justice Boyle's creation of a motorist's duty of due care is an unwarranted engraftment onto a statutory provision that addresses only the duty of the relevant governmental entity."

Justices Riley and Weaver said in their dissent: "There is no obligation to warn motorists about dangers that do not arise from the condition of the roadbed itself.

"Hence the Gratiot County Road Commission is protected from liability as a matter of law because plaintiffs' claims about the alleged dangers (an upcoming intersection and an apple orchard obstructing the motorists' view) were unrelated to the highway roadbed itself," the dissenters said.

The firefighters' game is on the same day that the Special Olympics National Softball Tournament will be at Canton Softball Center.

Tickets for the softball game are now on sale for $5 each and may be purchased at Canton's two fire stations, No. 1 at Cherry Hill and Canton Center roads, No. 2 on Warren, east of Lilley Road, as well as Johnson's Restaurant on Ford Road and Summit on the Park community center, Trader Jack's in Plymouth and Canton Softball Center. Parking, charged by Canton Softball Center, is $3.

"We are starting with 2,000 available tickets," Caruso said, suggesting that interested guests buy tickets early.

As with the hockey games, firefighters will have a raffle for approximately 20-30 gifts donated by area businesses. Raffle tickets are $1 each and may be purchased in advance at the same businesses where game tickets are sold.

Among the gifts are a weekend trip to Toronto, including rail and two nights, as well as a similar trip to Chicago, both donated by Elliot Travel in Westland Mall.

Other gifts include a golf bag donated by Detroit Sports & Rec, a $100 gift certificate from Trader Jack's sports memorabilia store in Plymouth, two hockey sticks and a jersey signed by the Red Wings, as well as gift certificates from area restaurants.

"Everyone at the game will have about a 10 percent chance of winning something," Caruso said.

Following the game for 45 minutes, Red Wing players will be available to autograph one item per guest. Anyone who is interested in getting an autograph must have a game ticket, Caruso said.

"We won't know which Red Wings will be playing in the game until just days before," Caruso said. "But we do have some chances that special celebrities also will be there."

An added bonus for the evening is that WCSX radio will broadcast their 6-10 p.m. show on location. J.J. and the Morning Crew will provide the play-by-play action and emcee the event, Caruso said.

"They will make it a fun event," he added.

Canton police and fire will have a display of their rescue squads and patrol cars for guests to view.

"The Red Wings and some other businesses in the area will display and sell merchandise as well," Caruso said.

Game organizers are in need of additional bleachers for the event. Firefighters have located a Toledo company that can provide additional bleachers. Any businesses interested in contributing to the cost of the bleachers are asked to call firefighters Mike Caruso or Sgt. Jim Davison at station No. 2, 453-4114.

Sponsors of the event include Canton Softball Center, Elliot Travel, Trader Jack's, EQ and WCSX radio and Budweiser.

ORDINANCE NO. C-96-01
ALARM ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH CODE BY AMENDING SECTIONS 50.020, AND 50.040 OF CHAPTER 50, ALARM USER; PROVIDING FOR PAYMENT OF CERTAIN FINES FOR EACH FALSE ALARM IN EXCESS OF THREE FALSE ALARMS OCCURRING WITHIN ANY ONE YEAR PERIOD; PROVIDING FOR CERTAIN EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES NOT CONSTITUTING A FALSE ALARM; PROVIDING FOR THE PROHIBITION OF ALARM SYSTEMS WHICH EMIT A SOUND AND/OR VISUAL SIGNAL FOR A PERIOD OF LONGER THAN FIFTEEN (15) MINUTES; PROVIDING FOR PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATIONS THEREOF; PROVIDING FOR SEVERABILITY OF INVALID SECTIONS; PROVIDING FOR REPEAL OF INCONSISTENT ORDINANCES; PROVIDING FOR PUBLICATION AND THE EFFECTIVE DATE.

THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH ORDAINS:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT.

The Charter Township of Plymouth Code, Chapter 50, Sections 50.020, 50.040 and 50.050 is hereby amended to read as follows:

50.020. FALSE ALARM FINE.

a. The alarm user shall be required to pay a fine, as set forth in 50.020(c), for each false alarm in excess of two false alarms occurring within any one year period. Upon the occasion of the second false alarm occurring within any one year period, the alarm user shall be advised in writing by the Plymouth Township Police Department of the Townships recording of the occurrence of the two false alarms and shall be advised of the existence of this Chapter.

b. Alarm conditions caused by the following extenuating circumstances shall not constitute a false alarm and no false alarm shall be charged by the Township.
   1. Alarm conditions being activated by persons working on the alarm system with prior notification to the Police or Fire Department of the Township;
   2. Alarm conditions being activated by severe weather or other violent conditions beyond the control of the alarm user;
   3. Alarm conditions activated by disruption or disturbance of telephone or other communication systems.

c. Notwithstanding any penalties provided for in the event of a conviction for violation of this Chapter, and notwithstanding whether or not a prosecution has been commenced, any person, corporation, partnership or other legal entity who uses, leases, installs or directs the installation of an alarm system described in this Chapter shall be subject to the following fines:

1. First two false alarms requiring response by police/fire department, occurring within one year period.	No fine
2. Third false alarm requiring response by police/fire department occurring within one year period.	$ 50.00
3. Fourth false alarm requiring response by police/fire department occurring within one year period.	$100.00
4. Fifth false alarm requiring response by police/fire department occurring within one year period.	$200.00
5. Sixth false alarm requiring response by police/fire department occurring within one year period.	$300.00
6. Any false alarm in excess of six occurring within any one year period.	$500.00

50.040. AUDIBLE OR VISUAL SIGNALS.

No person shall use, install or direct to be installed any alarm which emits a sound and/or visual signal for a period of longer than fifteen (15) minutes from the time of the initial signaling of the device(s).

SECTION 2. VIOLATION AND PENALTY.

Any person, corporation, partnership or other legal entity who violates the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined not more than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars or imprisoned not more than ninety (90) days, or both, at the discretion of the Court. Each day that the violation continues after due notice has been served in accordance with the terms and provisions hereof shall be deemed a separate offense.

SECTION 3. SAVINGS CLAUSE.

The rights and duties which have matured, penalties which have been incurred, proceedings which have begun and prosecution for violations of law occurring before the effective date of this Ordinance are not affected or abated by this Ordinance.

SECTION 4. SEVERABILITY.

If any section, subsection, clause, phrase or portion of this ordinance is for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct and independent provision, and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion hereof.

SECTION 5. REPEAL OF INCONSISTENT ORDINANCES.

All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed only to the extent necessary to give this ordinance full force and effect.

SECTION 6. PUBLICATION.

The Clerk for the Charter Township of Plymouth shall cause this Ordinance to be published in the manner required by law.

SECTION 7. EFFECTIVE DATE.

This ordinance shall take full force and effect upon publication thereof.

CERTIFICATION

This Ordinance was duly adopted by the Township Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth at its regular meeting called and held on the 16th day of July, 1996, and was ordered to be given publication in the manner required by law.

CITY OF PLYMOUTH
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 16, 1996

The Charter Township of Plymouth and the City of Plymouth met on July 15, 1996, to discuss the future of recreation in the community. The Township was represented Supervisor Kathleen Keen McCarthy, Trustees Ron Griffith and Chuck Curmi, and Finance Director Rosemary Harvey. The City was represented by Mayor Ron Loiselle, Commission Doug Miller and City Manager Steve Walters.

The recreation services provided by other community agencies were discussed. These include Schoolcraft Community College, Plymouth-Canton Public Schools and the Plymouth YMCA, as well as various private-sector recreation providers. It was agreed that the Plymouth community recreation program should be coordinated with other recreation providers to avoid duplication of effort and to maximize the recreation benefits from available resources. A survey of the recreation facilities and programs available from both public and private agencies in the community will be prepared for the committee's review.

The value of a community recreation needs assessment was also discussed. This could provide information to the Township and City governments about what recreation needs exist which are not being met, and also the degree of interest in and support for current programs by local residents. Information about the process for conducting such a survey will be prepared for the next joint meeting, to be held within the next four weeks.

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON
COMBINED NOTIFICATION
FINDING OF NO SIGNIFICANT IMPACT ON THE ENVIRONMENT
REQUEST FOR RELEASE OF FUNDS

Charter Township of Canton
1150 S. Canton Center Road
Canton, Michigan 48188
(313) 397-5417

On or about August 7, 1996, the above named Municipality will request the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development to release federal funds under Title I of the Housing & Community Development Act of 1974 (PL 93.383) for the following projects located in the Charter Township of Canton:

PROJECT: Recreation Building Renovation, 44237 Michigan Avenue, Canton; renovation of building and site for human services center; $67,200.

PROJECT: Housing rehabilitation, for income qualified owner-occupied single family detached housing; $20,160. "Continuing Relevance."

DETERMINATION: It has been determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and, accordingly, the Charter Township of Canton has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (PL 91-190). The reasons for such decision not to prepare such a statement are as follows:

No significant impact was found as a result of the environmental assessment on each project.

An Environmental Review Record respecting the above projects has been made by the Charter Township of Canton which documents the environmental review of each project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such Statement is not required. This Environmental Review Record is on file at the above address and is available for public examination, and copying (for a fee), upon request, at the office of the Resource Development Division between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. No further environmental review of the projects is proposed to be conducted prior to the request for release of federal funds.

All interested agencies, groups and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the Resource Development Division at the above described address. Such written comments must be received on or before August 6, 1996. All such comments so received will be considered and the Municipality will not request the release of federal funds or take administrative action on the written projects before the date specified in the preceding sentence.

CERTIFICATION: The Charter Township of Canton will undertake the project with Community Development Block Grant funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) under Title I of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1974. The Charter Township of Canton is certifying to HUD that the Charter Township of Canton and Thomas J. Yack, in his capacity of Township Supervisor, consent to accept the jurisdiction of the federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision-making, and action and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval, the Charter Township of Canton may use the Block Grant Funds and HUD will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. HUD will accept an objection to its approval of the release of funds and acceptance of the certification only if it is on one of the following bases: (a) that the certification was not in fact executed by the Chief Executive Officer of the Applicant; or (b) that the Applicant's environmental review record for the project indicates omission of a required decision, finding or step applicable to the project in an environmental review process.

Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedure (24 CFR Part 58) and may be addressed to HUD at: McNamara Federal Building, 17th Floor, 477 Michigan Avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48226. Objections to the release of funds on the basis other than those stated above will not be considered by HUD. No objection received after August 23, 1996 will be considered by HUD.

Group targets hunger issues

Bread for the World, a national Christian advocacy group, has sent letters to candidates for the U.S. Senate and House asking them to commit their support to issues of childhood hunger.

"Half a million children are hungry or at risk of hunger in Michigan," said Richard Lieberknecht of Garden City, volunteer coordinator for Bread for the World's efforts in Michigan. "We cannot allow this intolerable situation to continue damaging the health and well-being of our children."

The commitment letter sent to congressional candidates asks them to sign a statement pledging their vote and support "for federal programs that will help overcome childhood hunger in the United States."

Area churches are the main conduit through which Bread for the World contacts the voter. Churches are asking their members to make their support of legislation aimed at ending childhood hunger in this country known by writing to their congressional candidates.

"I felt it was important to dedicate one Sunday to writing letters to the congressional candidates. We need to let them know that the voters want our members of Congress to make sure our children have access to adequate nutrition. In a nation as wealthy as ours, there is no reason for our children to be hungry," said Father Kenneth Kauchek of St. Anastasia Church in Troy.

Bread for the World, founded a New York Lutheran pastor in 1974, now has more than 44,000 volunteers nationwide. They make no charitable distributions. "Bread for the World's primary purpose is to change public policy on world hunger," Lieberknecht said.

The organization acts primarily on a national level. However, with proposed decentralization of certain government-support programs, that may change. "If block grants become a reality, we will have to get more involved," Lieberknecht said.

Sen. Carl Levin and Rep. Lynn Rivers are among the congressional candidates who have signed the commitment statement. Other supporters are Debbie Stabenow, Dale Kildee, David Bonior, Morris Frumin, Sander Levin, John Conyers, William Ashe, Barbara-Rose Collins, Douglas Diggs, Godfrey Dillard, George Hart, Carolyn Cheeks Kilpatrick and Henry Stallings II.

Candidates who have not signed to date are Joe Knollenberg, Jim Nicholson, Ronna Romney, Dick Chrysler, Patrick Nowak, Gilbert DiNello, Susy Heintz, Donald Lobsinger, John Pappageorge, Kevin Wright, Joe Fitzsimmons, James DeSana, John Dingell, Steve Hoffman and Ken Larkin.

Nursing pact set

Graduates in nursing from Wayne County Community College can now move through Madonna University's nursing program.

For an additional three to four semesters of study, WCCC graduates, who hold an RN degree, can earn a bachelor of science in nursing degree from Madonna University.

The agreement allows WCCC graduates to enter Madonna's nursing program at the second semester junior level, based on credits and advanced placement procedures.

"We are very pleased with the agreement," said Mary Wawrzynski, dean of Madonna's College of Nursing and Health. "It offers to WCCC students the opportunity to earn a bachelor's degree in nursing, and it offers Madonna University the privilege of education tomorrow's community-based nurses."

Adopt a vegetarian lifestyle for health

Albert Einstein, Sir Isaac Newton, Percy Bysshe Shelly and George Bernard Shaw all had one thing in common: all were vegetarians. You can add entertainers Paul and Linda McCartney, sports figures Martina Navratilova and Billy Jean King, and two or three days out of the week, you can even include yours truly. In fact, vegetarians have been around for hundreds of years — Ovid, Plutarch, even Plato were all vegetarians. More than 12 million Americans have adopted a vegetarian lifestyle for reasons that include better health, a better environment and defending the rights of animals. Many people, however, are afraid to make this lifestyle change because they believe that a vegetarian diet cannot provide adequate protein, iron or calcium, or that they will spend their lives eating nothing but vegetables.

Great cookbook

In their latest book "The Vegetarian Times Vegetarian Beginners Guide" (copyright, 1996, MacMillan Books, $12.95), the authors themselves argue about what exactly it is that makes one a "vegetarian."

Webster's describes the adjective "vegetarian" as in "vegetarian diet" as "consisting wholly of vegetables." We know this is wrong. Being a vegetarian, write the authors, "means many different things to many different people."

The book never really elaborates, but instead provides vital, up-to-date information about why a vegetarian diet is one of the best choices you can make for everyone and everything that surrounds you. Short on recipes, but loaded with information, the "Vegetarian Times Vegetarian Beginner's Guide" should be a must read for anyone contemplating this lifestyle change.

If you're looking for more of an in-depth recipe collection with sidebars about food preparation tips, you might be interested in picking up a copy of "The Occasional Vegetarian" by Karen Lee (copyright 1995, Warner Books, $24.95). This book provides useful advice on everything from stocking the pantry to shopping efficiently, organizing your kitchen, planning menus and preparing meals. Each page has "professional secrets" that are cooking related and very helpful to a beginner. Unfortunately, Lee dubs her book "everything you need to become the occasional vegetarian," in my opinion, the book needs to place a little more emphasis on nutritiously balanced combinations rather than just good sounding recipes.

Suffering from pretty much the same malady as "The Occasional Vegetarian," Bharti Kirchner, author of "The Bold Vegetarian" (copyright 1995, Harper Perennial Publishers, $16) offers an assortment of over 150 innovative international vegetarian recipes. This book is nothing but recipes, recipes and more recipes, and you'll find it somewhat mind boggling if you have never before toasted hazelnuts, purchased tofu, or have any idea what sambal-oelek is (an Indonesian ground chile paste).

If I was indeed anticipating a change over to veganism, I would, without a doubt, procure a copy of Steven Raichlen's "High Flavor Low Fat Vegetarian Cooking" (copyright, 1995 Viking Books, $24.95). Coupled with the "Vegetarian Times Beginner's Guide," Raichlen's book offers outstanding recipes, nutritional information, mail-order sources, ingredient guide, metric guides and a very generous breakdown of recipes like pasta dishes, vegetable dishes, grain dishes, bean, soy, sandwiches, etc. Unlike many other vegetarian cookbooks, Raichlen's book does not rely on high fat dairy products for flavor. The author claims that the use of intense flavors and spices, in addition to savvy cooking techniques, can make low fat vegetarian cooking a delight to eat.

Meatless meals

I'll be the first to admit that you'll see donkeys fly before yours truly ever decides to give up a perfectly cooked steak or properly roasted game bird. But in the meantime, I do try and attempt a somewhat healthful lifestyle. About three times a week, I make meals with beans, legumes, soy products and pasta. Funny thing though, when I do cook vegan, it doesn't "hit" me as doing something drastic. I love a good bowl of black bean soup (made with a vegetable base instead of a ham base) and during the summer, dinner frequently consists of some fresh cooked pasta tossed with a handful of fresh basil, some chopped fresh tomatoes and a sprinkling of olive oil.

HERE'S THE Scoop ON PREMIUM ICE CREAM

STORY BY KEELY WYGONIK • STAFF WRITER

No one has ever been credited for inventing ice cream, it evolved from flavored ices that were popular with nobility in the fourth century B.C. Ice cream is hard to resist any time of year but especially during the summer. Is it any wonder Congress declared July National Ice Cream Month in 1984 in recognition of its reputation as the "perfect dessert and snack food."

Husband and wife Rick and Judy Shatter are carrying on the delicious tradition started by Vicky Arnold-Meloche at Vicky's Homemade Ice Cream in Redford. People have been known to travel from as far away as Ohio for a scoop of Vicky's ice cream.

"We have recipes for up to 75 flavors, and we're always inventing new ones," said Rick. "We always have 40 available. We use all natural ingredients – farm-fresh cream, whole nuts and fresh fruit purees."

Vicky's has flavors you've never heard of – Turtle, made with fudge, caramel and pecans like the candy, Smores, which will remind you of the Smores you made at camp – marshmallows, graham crackers and chocolate, and Moosetracks, a tasty combination of peanut butter cups and fudge. They also offer vanilla, butter pecan, chocolate, and every kid's favorite – Blue Moon.

"We could make broccoli ice cream if we wanted to," said Vicky. "Some of the flavors were suggested by customers." Her advice to anyone making ice cream is to be inventive.

Americans began making ice cream at home in 1786 when a freezer with rotary paddles was invented – this kept the product smooth while freezing. After a short time, the market was flooded with similar inventions. Jacob Fussell, a milk dealer, pioneered the manufacturing of ice cream and opened the first wholesale ice cream company in Washington, D.C. in 1851. He added a Baltimore factory in 1856.

During the late 1890s, in response to religious criticism for eating those "sinfully" rich ice cream sodas on Sundays, ice cream merchants left out the carbonated water, because soda could not be sold on Sunday, and invented the ice cream "Sunday." Ice cream was served with syrup instead of soda. To remove any connection with the Sabbath, the spelling was later changed to "sundae."

The first ice cream cone was served at the 1904 St. Louis World's Fair. A dish was needed for serving ice cream, so a wafer-like waffle was rolled in the shape of a cone and filled with ice cream. It was an instant hit! The Eskimo Pie was invented in 1921, the Good Humor Bar in 1923, and soft-serve ice cream in 1939

Some of the very best premium brands of ice cream are made in Michigan. Stroh's, which began making ice cream in 1919 as a result of Prohibition, is celebrating its 77th anniversary this year. Currently it produces over four million gallons of Stroh's, Mooney's and Nafziger's premium ice cream annually.

Guernsey Farms and Dairy in Northville has been operating since 1940. Guernsey Dairy has won many awards for its products over the last 56 years in business.

Melody Farms, Inc. was founded in 1950, when Tom George and his two sons, Sharkey and Michael, started their own dairy distribution company in Detroit. The company has grown and expanded since then to become the largest privately owned diary and beverage distribution company in Michigan and northern Ohio. Based in Livonia, Melody Farms, Inc. started making ice cream in 1975, and has developed over 60 flavors. In 1990, Melody Farms created Prestige super premium ice cream and yogurt. Some of Prestige Ice Cream's flavors include: Vanilla Bean, White Chocolate Raspberry Fudge, Espresso Fudge Pie, Mocha Almond Fudge, and Heath Candy Crunch.

Melody Farms also offers frosty Fruit Coolers, Cracklin' Crunch Bars, A&W Root Beer Float Pops, launch-ready Red, White & Blue Bombers and low-fat Pudding Bars. This year, they also introduced no-fat Tropical Swirl Sherbert.

Ashby's Sterling Ice Cream is a family-owned and operated Michigan based company that manufactures premium ice cream. The company was founded by Tom and Frances Davis in 1946 and has grown from a small southeastern Michigan ice cream company to a nationally known company. Ashby's Sterling is a division of Tom Davis and Sons Dairy Co. of Oak Park. Tom Davis and Sons Dairy is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. They recently won the "Best New Flavor" award for their English Cinnamon Crumb Cake Ice Cream at the National Ice Cream and Yogurt Retailers Association's annual convention in Las Vegas. The award marks the third year in a row Ashby's has won for one of its premium ice cream flavors. Previous winners include, Raspberry Chip Cheesecake, and Cherry Amaretto.

Blueberries make summer appearance

BY MELANIE POLK
SPECIAL WRITER

If there was any doubt that we've reach the heart of summer, it disappears at the peak of the blueberry season in July, which is National Blueberry Month. Farmers' markets and supermarket produce shelves overflow with beautiful powdery blueberries at the height of their flavor and nutrition. Michigan's u-pick blueberry season has just started, and will continue to mid-August.

Native to North America, blueberries are rich in vitamin C, potassium and dietary fiber. They were eaten by American Indians long before the Pilgrims landed. The United States and Canada are currently the largest producers of blueberries with an annual crop of 280 million pounds, totaling 95 percent of the world's supply. Michigan is the number one producing blueberry state with an annual harvest of 60 million pounds.

When choosing blueberries, keep in mind that color is a hallmark of quality and berries with a powdery light blue color are fresher and firmer than darker berries. After purchase, sort and discard any berries that show signs of mold or soft spots. Don't rinse blueberries until you are ready to use them or you'll remove the natural wax coating protecting the berries' freshness. If handled correctly, and stored covered and dry in the refrigerator, blueberries can last up to three weeks giving you plenty of time to try them in all of your favorite berry recipes.

Blueberries require little or no preparation

Toss some vegetables, fruits into seafood salads

Salads have become a staple of summer dining. Light and flavorful, they match the feel of the season and provide the inspiration for many creative meals using summer's bounty of fresh fruits and vegetables. Seafood can make the main-dish summer salad a model of nutrition, with its rich stores of lean protein, B vitamins, phosphorus, zinc and healthful omega-3 fatty acids, all of which have been linked to a wide range of health benefits.

With the variety of ingredients found in seafood salads, you don't have to use large amounts of fish and shellfish to create a rich-tasting entree; with some smart substitutions you can even avoid the unwanted calories or added fat provided by most salad dressings. Combine chunks of broiled cod fillet with steamed green beans (cut in 1-inch lengths), some minced green onion and a few sliced cherry tomatoes. Toss the salad gently with a zesty dressing made from a tablespoon each of fresh lime juice, raspberry vinegar, and olive oil and seasoned with finely chopped cilantro, minced jalapeno and a bit of salt and pepper. You'll have a refreshing, colorful entree that tastes much more elaborate than its simple ingredients!

A little lobster can go a long way in a salad made with curly endive, julienned red pepper, and freshly steamed corn kernels. A mellow walnut vinaigrette made by whisking together two tablespoons walnut oil, one tablespoon sherry vinegar and one teaspoon finely minced shallots will complement the shellfish's rich taste.

Tuna salad fans can broaden their horizons and boost fiber intake by creating a seafood slaw made by mixing a cup of drained, flaked tuna, a tablespoon each of minced parsley and finely chopped onions, a half cup low-fat mayonnaise and two tablespoons lemon juice. In a salad bowl, combine 1/2 cup finely chopped celery, three cups shredded cabbage and two cups shredded carrots. Add the slaw to the tuna mixture, toss to coat, cover and chill until ready to serve.

Fish and fruit make another winning summer salad combination that provides a taste of the islands without going beyond your own backyard. Combine small pieces of broiled fresh red snapper with some julienned cucumber and minced shallots. Add a snappy dressing made of olive oil, lemon juice and rice vinegar dressing seasoned with fresh grated ginger, black pepper and minced cilantro.

An eye-catching dash of color and the unique spicy-sweet taste of tropical cuisine is added by serving the salad surrounded by diced fresh mango and papaya tossed in the vinaigrette.

If your taste favors the flavors of the Far East, try Oriental-Style Seafood Salad with its mild ginger-soy dressing. It's a complete, light meal in itself.

ORIENTAL-STYLE SEAFOOD SALAD

1 cup uncooked brown rice
1 medium onion, chopped
1/2 cup plain low-fat yogurt
3 tablespoons cold water
1 1/2 tablespoons low-sodium soy sauce
3/4 teaspoon garlic powder
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3/4 teaspoon ground ginger
2 cups cleaned, cooked shrimp
1 1/2 cups cut green beans (fresh, blanched or frozen, thawed)
1 cup bean sprouts
1 cup red or green pepper, chopped

Bring the rice, chopped onion and 2 cups of water to a boil in a medium saucepan; simmer 45 minutes until the rice is tender and the water is absorbed.

To prepare the dressing, whisk together the yogurt, water, soy sauce, garlic powder, pepper and ginger in a small bowl and set aside.

When the rice is done, combine the dressing, shrimp and vegetables in a large salad bowl. Toss lightly to mix thoroughly. Serve immediately or cover and refrigerate until mealtime.

Each of the 4 servings (2 1/2 cups each) contains 202 calories and 2 grams of fat.

and have only 80 calories per cup, so feel free to eat them out of hand, sprinkle them liberally on cereal, into pancake batter, or in a salad.

Make a tangy blueberry-lemon sauce by combining three cups of blueberries, 1/3 cup sugar, three tablespoons fresh lemon juice and three tablespoons water in a small saucepan. Bring the ingredients to a boil, stir and simmer uncovered for five minutes. Strain the liquid through a fine sieve into a bowl, stirring but not pressing the solids. After covering and chilling the sauce for at least an hour, you'll have a refreshing dessert topping to drizzle over low-fat vanilla ice cream or frozen yogurt.

Blueberry sauces are versatile and can lend their distinctive flavor to more than one dish. Blueberry-ginger sauce is a tangy companion to cold poached chicken or salmon, and can also be served as a dressing over a salad of thinly-sliced oranges and sweet onions.

In a blender, puree 1/2 cup blueberries, three tablespoons water, one tablespoon vegetable oil, two teaspoons fresh lemon juice, 3/4 teaspoon minced ginger root, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/4 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper, and 1/8 teaspoon salt. The sauce will separate if allowed to sit, so make it just prior to serving.

CORNMEAL BLUEBERRY PANCAKES

3/4 cup cornmeal
3/4 cup all-purpose flour
1/2 cup whole wheat flour
2 tablespoons granulated sugar
1 tablespoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
2 eggs
2 cups low-fat milk
2 tablespoons vegetable oil
1 1/2 cups blueberries (fresh or frozen)
1 teaspoon soft margarine

In a large bowl, mix the first six ingredients, set aside.

In a medium bowl, beat the eggs until they are light and frothy; stir in the milk and oil. Then, pour the liquid into the flour mixture, add the blueberries and stir until the dry ingredients are moistened. (Don't worry about a few lumps in the batter).

Heat a large, nonstick skillet over medium heat until it is hot. Add margarine to lightly grease the pan. Drop large spoonfuls of batter into the skillet to form rounds; cook until bubbles form on the surface and the underside is golden brown. Turn the pancakes and cook until the bottoms are lightly browned.

Each of the 6 servings (three 5-inch pancakes) contains 301 calories and 9 grams of fat.

GREAT LAKES BLUEBERRY CITRUS MUFFINS

3 cups flour
1 cup sugar
4 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup Confectioners sugar
3 teaspoons grated orange rind
1 1/2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 cup margarine
2 eggs
1/4 cup orange juice
3/4 cup cream
1/2 cup fresh or frozen blueberries
Lemon zest

Sift the dry ingredients together in large bowl. Cut in margarine. Add orange rind. Beat eggs, juice and cream. Add to dry ingredients just until moistened. Gently fold in blueberries. Place dough in greased muffin pans (large 9/muffins or medium/18-20 muffins). Bake at 375 degrees F. for 20 minutes (medium) or 25 minutes (large).

STRAWBERRY ICE CREAM

1 1/3 cups milk
2 2/3 cups heavy cream
1/2 vanilla bean, split
8 egg yolks
1 1/4 cups granulated sugar
1 pint ripe strawberries

Combine milk and heavy cream in a large, heavy saucepan. Add vanilla bean and bring almost to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer for 5 minutes.

Whisk the egg yolks together with 1 cup of the sugar until smooth and all sugar is dissolved. Remove milk mixture from heat, remove vanilla bean, and whisk 1 cup of the hot milk thoroughly into the eggs. Stir well, then whisk the egg mixture back into the milk.

Return saucepan to the stove and cook over low heat, whisking constantly, just until the custard thickens; do not let it boil. Strain the custard, cool, and chill well.

Meanwhile, rinse, drain and stem the strawberries. Crush them and stir in the remaining sugar. Let stand for 30 minutes.Combine the strawberries with the chilled custard. Transfer to ice cream maker and freeze according to manufacturer's instructions. Yield 1 1/2 quarts.

VANILLA CUSTARD ICE CREAM

10 large egg yolks
1 cup sugar
1 quart half-and-half
1 vanilla bean, split
1/4 teaspoon sugar

Beat the egg yolks and 1 cup sugar together until they are thick and lemon yellow.

In an enamel or stainless steel saucepan, scald the half-and-half with the vanilla bean. Gradually pour the hot half-and-half into the egg mixture, stirring constantly. Return the custard to the heat and cook over very low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened, about 3 minutes. Let stand until the custard is cool. Remove vanilla bean. Freeze the custard in an ice cream maker according to the manufacturer's directions until firm. Yield 1 1/2 quarts.

Vegetarian entrees filled with summertime flavors

See related Taste Buds column on Taste front.

Here's something the Janes Gang enjoys all summer long. Steven Reichlen calls it a Caprese Sandwich, taken from the isle of Capri. I call a great use of summer vegetables.

CAPRESE SANDWICH

1 long, slender, fresh baked baguette (bread)
1 clove garlic, cut in half
2 very ripe, thinly sliced, tomatoes, cut in half
24 fresh basil leaves
4 ounces fresh mozzarella, drained and cut into 1/2 inch dice
3 teaspoons extra virgin olive oil
2 teaspoons drained capers
Kosher salt and fresh ground pepper to taste

Lay the baguette on a cutting board. Make a lengthwise cut down the middle, starting on the top of the loaf and cutting to but not through the bottom. Gently pry open to make a "V" shaped cavity. Rub the sides of the cavity with the cut garlic. Arrange the tomato slices down each side of the cavity, followed by the basil leaves. Gently mix the cheese, olive oil, capers, salt and pepper in a mixing bowl. Spoon this mixture into the loaf, between the rows of tomato and basil. Cut into 6 inch lengths. Serve. Makes 4 sandwiches.

THAI FRIED RICE

Sauce:
2 tablespoons soy sauce
1 1/2 tablespoons lime juice
2 teaspoons honey
2 teaspoons Thai hot sauce (or bottled hot sauce)
Fried rice:
2 tablespoons canola oil
3 cloves garlic, minced
2 teaspoons ginger, minced
2 scallions, minced
1 stalk lemon grass, trimmed and minced (about 1 tablespoon)
1 carrot, sliced as thin as possible
1 red bell pepper, cut into 1-inch pieces
1 cup napa or other Asian cabbage, thinly sliced
1 cup collard greens, cut into pieces
4 cups cooked rice
1 cup mung bean sprouts
1/2 cup chopped fresh mint or cilantro

For the sauce, combine the soy sauce, lime juice, honey and hot sauce in a small bowl. Stir to mix, set aside.

Just before serving, heat a wok or a large non stick fry pan over high flame. Swirl in the canola oil. Add the garlic, ginger, scallions and lemongrass. Stir fry for 15 seconds or until fragrant but not browned. Add the carrot, bell pepper, napa and collard greens and stir fry 2 minutes or until tender crisp. Stir in the rice and sprouts and stir fry 2 minutes or until thoroughly heated. Stir in the sauce and half the mint or cilantro and cook for 30 seconds. Correct seasoning with salt and pepper. Sprinkle the remaining mint or cilantro over the top. Serve. Makes 4 servings.

STUFFED TOMATO SALAD

3/4 cup vegetable stock or water
2/3 cup quick cooking brown rice
2 teaspoons canola oil
1 small onion, minced
4 medium ripe tomatoes
salt and fresh ground pepper
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1/2 cup chopped walnuts or pecans
1/2 cup chopped parsley
4 tablespoons fresh grated Parmesan cheese

In a small saucepan, bring stock or water to a boil. Add rice; cover and simmer on low heat for 10 minutes. Transfer to a mixing bowl and allow to cool. In a small skillet, heat oil. Add onion and cook, stirring frequently, until onion is translucent and limp. Add to rice in mixing bowl. Cut the tops off the tomatoes; scoop and discard cores and seeds with a small knife. Turn tomato cups upside down to drain for a few minutes, then turn right side up and sprinkle to taste with salt and pepper. Add lemon juice, chopped nuts, parsley, salt and pepper to rice mixture. Mix well and divide evenly among tomato shells and sprinkle each with 1 tablespoon fresh grated Parmesan. Serves 4.

German pancake's quick and easy

AP — A German Pancake is a cross between a souffle and an omelet. The baked pouf of eggs fortified with flour makes a dramatic presentation for brunch or a light supper.

In the recipe below, each pancake, which serves two, takes 5 minutes to prepare and 15 minutes to cook.

The recipe is from "365 Ways to Cook Eggs" by Elaine Corn (HarperCollins, $12.95).

GERMAN PANCAKES

1 tablespoon butter
3 eggs
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup flour
1 tablespoon sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
About 1-3rd cup raspberry, blackberry or strawberry preserves
Powdered sugar

Preheat oven to 425 degrees F. Place butter in a 9-inch round cake pan or 10-inch round pie plate. Put in oven to heat pan and melt butter, 3 to 5 minutes.

Meanwhile, in a mixing bowl, whisk eggs, milk, flour, sugar and salt until well blended. Swirl melted butter to coat bottom and sides of pan. Pour batter into pan.

Bake 15 minutes, or until pancake is puffed and golden brown. Serve right away, slathered with preserves and sprinkled with powdered sugar. Makes 2 servings.

BECOMING DESENSITIZED
One of the problems that accompanies receding gums as we get older is hypersensitivity. This occurs as a result of the tooth root becoming exposed. Because it has a softer surface than the rest of the tooth, it is more vulnerable to heat, cold, or pressure. When this happens, a switch to a desensitizing toothpaste can help. This product works by shielding the nerve endings and disrupting the transmission of pain signals from the nerves. The active ingredient in desensitizing toothpastes that makes this possible may either be strontium chloride or potassium nitrate. If one or the other does not work to stem tooth sensitivity, a switch to a desensitizing toothpaste with the other active ingredient may be all that is needed. Once an effective toothpaste is found, it should be used until the problem is brought under control. Then, a switch should be made back to a regular brand.
If you have questions or concerns about your toothpaste, or any other subject relating to the well-being of your teeth and gums, call us at LIVONIA VILLAGE DENTAL ASSOCIATES. Save your skin with sun products that will protect

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
SPECIAL WRITER

According to American Cancer Society spokesperson Karen Murphy, 800,000 new cases of skin cancer are expected to be diagnosed across the country in 1996. Because the sun is one of the leading causes of skin cancer, it makes good sense to protect yourself against its' damaging ultra violet rays. Murphy says with about 9,000 people estimated to die from skin cancer this year alone, she takes no chances.

"Twenty years ago I was a lifeguard and lathered on the baby oil for that bronze look that was all the rage. Now I wear a sunscreen and try to stay out of the sun as much as possible," Murphy said.

Pat Sachs is not a sun worshipper that's why last year's diagnosis of melanoma by her doctor came as a shock. Now when the regional director of the Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute is under the sun she wears a hat, long sleeves and a sunscreen.

"Experts say sun exposure from the past, a bad sunburn as a kid is all it takes to increase your chances of getting skin cancer," said Sachs who underwent surgery and medical treatment to remove the melanoma."Our purpose at the Karmanos Cancer Institute is to tell the community there are preventative measures to take. Knowledge is a good weapon against cancer."

Redford dermatologist Dr. Thomas Bonino advises his patients to wear a hat and use a SPF 30 sunscreen for any length of time in the sun.

"What I tell patients is, any time they're going to be in the sun longer than 20 minutes between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m., they should wear a sunscreen. That's when the ultraviolet energy is the strongest. Use a double application because sunscreen doesn't become effective uftil the second time," Dr. Bonino cautioned.

"I recommend Coppertone Sport 30 because when you put it on it doesn't feel greasy and oily, plus grass and sand won't stick to your skin. It stings less on your face or when you get it in your eyes than some brands. If you're sweating or swimming, reapply every 20 minutes to half hour. I like Sport 30 because it stays on longer."

Coppertone Sport 30 with UVA/UVB protection is $8.59 for 8 ounces at K-Mart in Livonia. Also by Coppertone is Kids 30 Sunblock Lotion at the same price.

Added Dr. Bonino, "one of the best protectants is an occlusive hat with a 4 to 5 inch brim; a hat you can hold up to the light and can't see through."

One of Karen MacDonald's favorite products is The Body Shop's watermelon scented sun lotion with sunscreen priced at $14.50 for 8 ounces. It has watermelon juice to cool and refresh the skin. As communications manager for The Taubman Co. (Twelve Oaks, Fairlane, Lakeside and Briarwood shopping centers) MacDonald surveyed stores for products to protect shoppers from harmful rays.

1. The Silent Treatment instant UV facial sunscreen with moisturizer solves the problem of what to wear under make-up as a sun shield. $15 at Origins, Twelve Oaks.

2. 3-in-1 Sun Care from Bath & Body Works, not only protects skin from the sun but mosquitoes, ticks and fleas as well. This multi-purpose liquid available in 4-ounces with an SPF 30 for $11.

3. Light Diffusing Make-up with Sunscreen from i Natural helps you look beautiful while protecting skin from the sun. Available at Twelve Oaks in 18 colors and four skin types, $17.50 for one ounce.

4. Hawaiian Maui Jim sunglasses have blue polarized lenses with a waterproof sealant to block out UVB, UVC and UVA rays, $198, at the Sunglass Hut.

5. According to experts, children need protection from the harmful sun exposure more than adults. The hooded, lightweight Dog Poncho Towel from Gymboree covers skin with canine-like ears nose and tail, $34.

New mall will open to families first

Somerset Collection North officials decide to scoop their own grand opening on Aug. 16, with a special Disney preview for families the night before at the new Troy mall.

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO
STAFF WRITER

Promoting the new Somerset Collection North as "the shopping center for families," developers Forbes-Cohen booked Disney legends Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck, Goofy and Pluto to entertain the public at a special, complimentary, pre-opening party, Thursday, Aug. 15 from 6-10 p.m.

The "Sneak Preview Celebration" was announced at a press conference last week with Rebecca Maccardini, director of operations, explaining that the event was created "so kids of all ages can enjoy an evening of family fun throughout the Somerset Collection, North and South, plus get a first look at the new stores."

The official grand opening of the 950,000-square foot tri-level mall is the following morning, Friday, Aug. 16 at 10 a.m. when Nordstrom, Hudson's and 107 other retailers begin regular business hours at the northeast corner of Big Beaver and Coolidge.

The Sneak Preview Celebration kicks-off at 6:30 p.m. in the new mall's Grand Court, with "Rock Around The Mouse", a 20-minute musical featuring popular tunes from the 1950s. The performance will be staged three times throughout the evening.

In addition, other Magic Kingdom residents appear in Disney-produced events throughout both malls, "Sword in the Stone" where kids meet Merlin the Magician who uses his craft to release the sword in the Cafe, Somerset Collection South; "Ariel's Undersea Adventure" where the Little Mermaid meets guests and talks about life in the deep, Rotunda Stage, Somerset Collection South; "Sketch Artist Demonstration" where a Disney artist shows how to draw famous cartoon characters while entertaining with historical Disney facts, first floor of Somerset Collection North, near Hudson's; "Sing-a-longs" around the piano, inside Neiman Marcus; and "Photo Opportunities" where parents are encouraged to bring their cameras for childhood poses with Disney characters, cafe Somerset Collection South.

The Disney entertainment continues Aug. 16, 19 and 20.

25 days away: Looking down on the Somerset Collection North's Grand Court, the "lake" at lower right, will feed two water fountains whose jettisons lift a globe at the top. The area will become a stage for future mall entertainment.

Somerset Collection North visitors will find it continues the decor theme of the Somerset Collection South across the street, with numerous skylights, elegantly paneled mankato stone pillars, marble floors, and glass partitions that promote tri-level visibility.

On the lower level, center, is the Grand Court, which Maccardini said will be used for "future quality entertainment." The Grand Court features a large pool anchored by two sculptural fountains from Germany whose watery jettisons bounce massive globes at the top.

The second level contains the entrance/exit to the climate-controlled, moving skywalk that serves as a bridge between the South and North malls, spanning Big Beaver. (The skywalk also contains an 8-foot wide path for pedestrians or shoppers with strollers or wheelchairs.)

"The third level is the family level," described Tom Miles, Somerset's general manager. "Here you'll find the Peacock Cafe, the Disney Store, Disney Art Gallery and many other entertaining enterprises."

Parking decks are accessible from each level.

There are still many employment opportunities available. For more details call Amy Katz, job bank coordinator at (810) 643-6360.

The receipts-for-credit program that had shoppers using their purchases for credits toward school supplies begins again, Monday, July 29 through January 1997 at Lakeside Sterling Heights, Twelve Oaks Novi, Fairlane Town Center in Dearborn and Briarwood in Ann Arbor.

"Be True To Your School" debuted last August at the shopping centers and resulted in almost $300,000 for Michigan schools. Shoppers simply named their favorite schools and presented their receipts to mall personnel housed in Little Red Schoolhouse Booths. Running tabs were kept by computer. Schools were notified of their credit which could be used for any choice of learning materials.

"This program is a win-win proposition and the perfect example of what can be accomplished when businesses and the schools get together," said Kathleen Strauss, member of the state board of education. "Anything that brings attention to the significance of our schools and any project designed to help them, is very valuable."

Last year 312 Michigan schools benefitted from the program with new software, videos and reference materials. Parents were reminded "to save their receipts" in PTA bulletins and signs at the malls.

"Momentum for this program has been building over its first year and we know thousands of parents, students and educators are waiting for the announcement that we're on again," said Linda McIntosh, Briarwood's marketing director.

The receipts are credited and returned to shoppers. They can be applied to any school in Michigan. The receipts can be credited for any mall purchase _ from a simple cup of coffee to a pair of shoes. Receipts do not need to be credited on the date of purchase.

As an added attraction and kick-off to the Back-To-School shopping season, both Lakeside and Twelve Oaks will host Fun Flicks video events that turn a portion of the mall into a production studio where shoppers star in their own mini movies.

Participants choose from hundreds of props and costumes, and dozens of scenes. Professional technicians create the film by videotaping the actors against a special background then super imposing the images onto another scene. The videos, which sell for $8.95 are free to shoppers spending $25 or more the day of the event.

Shoppers can fly over New York as Superman, zoom down the highway on a Harley, ride a magic carpet, swim with sharks, or lip sync an MTV-style music video for a unforgettable moment of fleeting fame, " said Elaine Kah of Twelve Oaks."One man even asked his girlfriend to marry him through a Fun Flicks Video."

The video event is set for Friday, Aug. 2, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Lakeside, and at the same time on Saturday, Aug. 3 at Twelve Oaks.

For more information call Twelve Oaks at (810) 348-9438 or Lakeside at (810) 247-1744.

Neiman's reveals: How to shop a sale

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO
STAFF WRITER

We're in the midst of "summer sale time" and every mall and main street retail district in town is drastically slashing prices to clear out merchandise to make room for fall.

If your neighborhood shops haven't held their annual sidewalk sales yet, be assured they are coming up this week and next.

Neiman Marcus in Troy began its "Last Call" sale July 18, and the store's personal shopper Judy Ivey used the occasion to present "How to Shop A Sale" to members of the Detroit Fashion Group.

"It's a good time to fill in the gaps of your wardrobe, the shelves in your linen closet, and maybe pick up something in the decorative arts for the empty spot on the dining room table or mantel," she advised. She said successful sale shopping is contingent upon "doing your homework" before you hit the stores.

• First, to avoid impulse buying or straying from your budget, look through your closet and make a list of what you need. Do you have a jacket you don't wear because it needs a skirt or pants? Do you have slacks that you'd wear more often if you had the right sweater? Remember to consider the closet up north and the condo closet in Florida, too.

Next, do the same for the closets of your husband and children, listing wardrobe gaps.

• Consider your events calendar. What are the special occasions coming up that you might need a new dress or pair of shoes for? Add these to your list. It would be great to buy any necessities on sale.

• Set a budget for peace of mind. Come up with a ball park figure of what you can spend and stick to it.

• Dress comfortably and simply, so you don't get tired trying things on. Also, bring along a pair of dress shoes to get the right effect when trying on occasion clothes.

• Relax, plan time to stop for lunch or tea.

• There are some don'ts to sale shopping as well. Don't shop with a friend. You'll only confuse and distract yourself with second opinions.

• Don't impulse shop. Always look for things that make sense in your wardrobe.

• Don't overdress. The key to successful bargain hunting is to remain comfortable and unstressed.

Resale shopping expert Jackie Greene of Garden City listened carefully to Ivey's thoughts, and then browsed through Neiman Marcus' sale items, some discounted 75-percent.

"She's right," Greene said. "The best bargains come from acquiring garments on sale that you need and wear often. But to this resale shopper, even a Donna Karan dress at $640 from $1,600 is still expensive."

Ivey also presented a brief look forward to fall, advising sale shoppers to watch for season must-haves like black turtlenecks, deep jewel-tone garments, solid pumps, and anything in matte jersey – the evening fabric of Fall '96.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

Adventures: A classic comes to life in "The Adventures of Pinocchio," a reworking of Carlo Collodi's classic fairy-tale about a wooden puppet who is brought to life by the magic Blue Fairy. Opens Friday, July 26 at metro Detroit movie theaters.
NEW LINE CINEMA

Scheduled to open Wednesday, July 24

"A TIME TO KILL"
In front of hundreds of witnesses in a simmering, small Southern town, a distraught man murders the two thugs who assaulted his young daughter. A young attorney and a savvy law student team together for his seemingly unwinnable defense in a trial that sparks a cauldron of conflicting emotions.

Scheduled to open Friday, July 26

"JOE'S APARTMENT"
Fresh off the bus from Iowa, Joe is trying to make it in New York, but he's got no job, no girl and no place to live. Life changes for Joe when he finds an apartment, along with 50,000 singing, dancing roach roommates who teach Joe what life's really like in the big city: sex, bugs and rock 'n' roll. Based on award-winning MTV live-action/animated short.

"SUPERCOP"
A cops and robbers action thriller starring Jackie Chan.

"TRAINSPOTTING"
Hilarious new film about five "friends" : a group of losers, liars, psychos, thieves and junkies who just might be on the road to self destruction. Only their leader can save them; a smart, funny, and sometimes just plain unconscious guy.

"KINGPIN"
A small-time hustler/former champion bowler fallen on hard times meets up with a naive Amish man with an uncanny knack for the sport. Stars Woody Harrelson, Randy Quaid, Bill Murray, Vanessa Angel

"THE ADVENTURES OF PINOCCHIO"
This reworking of Carlo Collodi's classic fairy tale is about a wooden puppet who is brought to life by the magic Blue Fairy. Stars Martin Landau, Jonathan Taylor Thomas, Bebe Neuwirth.

Scheduled to open Friday, Aug. 2

"JACK"
Bittersweet comedy about a 10-year-old boy with a genetic dysfunction that ages only his body, but not his mind. Directed by Francis Ford Coppola, stars Robin Williams, Fran Drescher, Diane Lane and Bill Cosby.

"HOUSE ARREST"
Comedy about a group of neighborhood kids who lock their parents in the basement to work out their marital problems. Stars Jamie Lee Curtis, Kevin Pollak and Jennifer Tilly.

"PHAT BEACH"
A hip hop comedy about two suburban boys set loose among the most beautiful girls in the world at Southern California's hottest beach. Stars Jermaine "Huggy" Hopkins, Brian Hooks, and Coollo.

In the hunt

At last Monday's Sun Mountain Junior Championship, one of the stops on the Game Of your Life Foundation (GOLF) tour, both Mike Hjelmstad of Canton and Brandon DiPaola of Plymouth challenged for top honors in their age division.

Playing in the boys 16 and over bracket, Hjelmstad tied for fifth with Dan Meersman of Schoolcraft, each shooting a 76. DiPaola finished in a four-way tie for eighth, firing a 78. G.T. Nickerson of Brighton had a 71 to place first.

The tournament was played at the University of Michigan course in Ann Arbor.

In the boys 14-15 division, Chris Tompkins of Westland tied Nike Abbruzzesse of Okemos for fourth place, each shooting an 83 - two strokes off the winning score posted by Andrew Klein of Bloomfield Hills.

In the boys 13-14 division, Evan Chall of Westland came even closer to a win, shooting an 85 to finish second, one stroke behind Vince Hamo of Flint.

ODP girls soccer tryouts

Tryouts for the girls soccer Olympic Development Program are scheduled for Firefighter's Park in Troy Aug. 3-4. The tryouts are open to all girls born in the years 1978-84.

Cost is $75 for registration. Participants may register at 8 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 3, at the field. Participants should bring a ball, shin guards, cleats and a water bottle.

For more information, call program administrator Steve Dawson at (810) 433-7214.

DCB golf benefit

The Detroit College of Business' Alumni Association will host its 15th annual golf outing to benefit the scholarship fund Friday, Aug. 2 at Salem Hills Golf Course in Northville.

There are still openings for individual golfers. Cost is $75, which includes 18 holes of golf with a cart, lunch at the turn, buffet dinner afterwards, liquid refreshments, prizes and gifts. A shotgun scramble, the tourney will begin at 10:45 a.m. and be flighted by gender and ability.

For more information, or to donate prizes or be a hole sponsor, call Kevin Brazell at the Detroit College of Business' alumni association.

Oldest of the games

The 147th annual Highland Games, hosted by the St. Andrew's Society of Detroit to celebrate Scottish heritage, are slated for Saturday, Aug. 3 at the Edsel and Eleanor Ford Home in Grosse Pointe Shores.

Called the oldest Highland Games in all of North America, the festival begins at 9 a.m., with closing ceremonies scheduled for 5 p.m.

During that stretch of time, there will be all sorts of traditional Scottish sports, like the stone put, the weights for distance, the weight for height, hammers, challenge caber, farmer's walk, and, of course, the caber toss - in which an individual sees how far he can toss a caber, something resembling a telephone pole.

Of course, there will be plenty of music and dancing competitions, with 20 massed bands, 200 dancers and 40 clans all prancing about to the sound of bagpipes. Children's entertainment and activities are also planned, with children under 12 accompanied by an adult admitted free.

Sponsored by Stroh Brewery, and in part by Rolex Watch USA, Valente Jewelers, the Glenlivet/House of Seagram, Milner Hotels and Gallerie 454, cost for the day-long Highland Games is $8 at the gate or $5 when purchased before Saturday by calling the St. Andrew's Society at (313) 832-1849.

The Ford Home is located at 1100 Lakeshore Drive, between Vernier and Nine Mile, in Grosse Pointe Shores.

Big Show-bound

Livonia's SS Softball Team has earned one of 32 spots in the 1966 World Championship tournament Sept. 20-22 in Lubbock, Tex.

SS Softball Team went 8-2 in the Class D USSSA National Invitational Tournament July 13-14 at Liberty Park in Sterling Heights to qualify. A total of 42 teams from Michigan and Ohio were involved.

Coach Pete Chonacas' team used great defense and timely hitting. In the semifinals, SS Softball trailed, 10-3, entering the bottom of the seventh but pulled out an 11-10 victory with 10 straight hits.

Salem soccer starting

Plymouth Salem's boys soccer season unofficially starts today with optional conditioning workouts from 6-8 p.m. at Salem. Players are asked to bring a ball.

The optional workouts continue through Aug. 9, starting at 6 p.m. Official tryouts are Aug. 12.

Anyone interested in submitting items to Sports Scene may send them to sports editor C.J. Risak, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, MI, 48150, or may FAX them to (313) 591-7279.

Still a 2-team race

Tie keeps Hines Park ahead of Decision Consultants

It might have been better, but it could've been worse for Hines Park. A tie against Little Caesars didn't lose them any ground, anyway.

Little Caesars and Hines Park Lincoln Mercury played to a 2-2 tie Friday night in a Livonia Collegiate Baseball League game halted after eight innings by the league time limit.

Kevin Uzarski went all eight innings for Caesars, offsetting nine hits with 11 strikeouts. Steve Hornsberger went the first seven for Hines Park, also giving up nine hits but striking out four. Brian Reynolds went two-thirds of an inning, allowing one hit, while Derric Terry walked two and struck out one before getting the final out.

The score was tied 1-1 until the seventh, when both teams scored.

Brian Cotner singled, Alex Orsette sacrificed him to second and Jason Schniers scored him with a single up the middle. Schniers went 3-for-3 with a double in the game.

Kurt Richards reached first on a fielder's choice in the bottom of the inning, advanced to second the same way and scored on singles by Hornsberger and Brian Kalczynski to retie the score.

Hines Park scored in the first. Kalczynski, who went 3-for-4, singled, stole second and reached third on the catcher's throwing error. Chris Kirian drove him in with a single.

Little Caesars tied the score in the fifth. Singles by Orsette, Schniers and Adrian Williams loaded the bases but Orsette was forced at the plate on a grounder to third by Aaron Cagnon.

With Uzarski at bat, Hornsberger uncorked a wild pitch to bring Schniers in with the go-ahead run. Uzarski then lifted a fly to left and Williams came in -- only to be called out on appeal for leaving third base too early.

The two teams play a doubleheader Sunday at Ford Field in Livonia. Hines Park Lincoln Mercury leads the Livonia Collegiate League with a 21-3-2 record while Decision Consultants Inc. is second at 20-5-1. Little Caesars is third, 9-16-1.

DCI shaded Little Caesars, 4-1, Wednesday in a game at Ford Field despite getting just four hits.

DCI broke a 1-1 tie in the seventh with three runs, helped along by two errors. A.J. Roman walked to start the rally and was picked off, only to reach third on a throwing error by the first baseman. Delano Voletti singled Roman home, taking second on the throw and scoring on Kris DeShetler's single to right. Leadoff hitter Eric Marcotte then hit a fly ball to right that was dropped for an error, permitting DeShetler to score.

Grey Ryan's home run over the right field fence gave DCI a 1-0 lead in the first. Jay Harrington gave up just the four hits in 6 2/3 innings, walking three and striking out four.

Steve Williams started for DCI and gave up one run and seven hits in 5 1/3 innings. Carter won it with 1 2/3 innings of one-hit, three strikeout relief.

Little Caesars did not score until the sixth, when Aaron Racey and Brian Cotner sandwiched singles around a walk to Scott Carden.

Off to a good start: Greg Ryan, the second batter in the game for Decision Consultants, homered to earn the high-fives of his teammates Wednesday. That got the game off to a good start for DCI, which beat Little Caesars 4-1.

Madonna's 6 additions means something good

BY RICHARD L. SHOOK
STAFF WRITER

RECRUITING

Coach Bernie Holowicki is putting the finishing touches on his first complete recruiting class for Madonna University's still-growing men's basketball program.

Holowicki has landed John Branch and Narvin Russaw, both of Milan, plus Erick Giovannini of Livonia Stevenson, Jason Maschke of Livonia Franklin, Chad Putnam of Redford Thurston and Mike Slone of Plymouth Salem.

"I thought we did all right," Holowicki said of the six incoming players, four of them freshmen, who should help the Crusaders mark their fourth straight year of improvement since the program's inception. "They're the kind of players I like, my kind of players.

"They're not well-known or anything. But I know they're competitive and hard-working. I kind of like the six players. They're feisty, aggressive."

Feisty and aggressive ... that would make them a reflection of their legendary coach, who by the way has hopes of getting another player or two enrolled at Madonna in time to play basketball this winter.

The six outnumber the returning veterans by one so if they don't start, the newcomers will most certainly see plenty of playing time if they are able. Coming back are senior guard Christian Emert (WL Central), junior center Mike Maryanski (MH Bishop Foley), senior forward Brandon Slone (Salem), sophomore forward Kyle Smith (North Branch) and junior forward Paul Whiting (WL Western).

Mike Slone, 6-foot-4, is Brandon's brother and he transfers in from Schoolcraft, where he did not play basketball.

"He's got a lot of talent," Holowicki said of the younger Slone, who will play shooting guard and/or small forward. "He knows how to make the big play."

The 6-3 Maschke is a transfer from Schoolcraft out of both Catholic Central and Franklin who fits the coach's desire for players who work hard on both ends of the court. He's projected as an off-guard for the Crusaders.

"He's got a great nose for the basketball," Holowicki said. "He knows

Andersons reunited at Wayne State

BY RICHARD L. SHOOK
STAFF WRITER

Erica Anderson is ready to pound the books, but not quite ready to quit pounding basketballs.

Anderson is joining her cousin Britta on the Wayne State University women's basketball team.

"I decided that's where I wanted to go in April," said the Plymouth Canton graduate, who's spent the last two seasons playing at Henry Ford Community College while her cousin was at Wayne State.

"But I didn't know if they'd offer me anything (in the form of aid). And they did."

The University of Michigan-Dearborn wanted Erica but she preferred Wayne State, where she plans to become a pre-med major. In mid-April, the Tartars offered her a scholarship.

"I wanted to go there regardless," Anderson said. "It's not just the basketball. It's known for its medical school and that profession.

"It's just what I like to do. Nothing else really interests me. I'm more people oriented and it seems practical to me."

Hear that sigh of relief? It's from the Anderson household, which just had its financial burden lessened for two years.

"That will help -- a lot," Anderson laughed.

The clincher is being reunited both in school and in the gym with cousin Britta. The two are so close they're called twins.

"It helps that my cousin's going there," Erica said. "It's kind of something that we always thought we'd do since we were little. Now it's coming true."

Britta was redshirted last season and is recovering from a knee injury.

"We'd played together all through eighth grade and all through high school," Erica said. "Then she went to Wayne and I went to Henry Ford. That was the first time we'd never played together."

Erica hadn't given a lot of thought to continuing her basketball. She geared her studies at Henry Ford toward things that would transfer to pre-med.

Playing basketball was something she'd always done, though, so when the reality of that final varsity basketball game hit, Erica realized she wasn't quite ready to let go.

"It's not like the guys," she said, "where you can go on and go on and go on. I've only got two more years. So I thought that if I can do it for two more years, I might as well."

The 5-9 Anderson is called a guard but considers herself a forward ("I call myself a 'tweener"). She said Britta, a physical therapy major at Wayne State, is listed as a forward, but she considers her a guard.

Legends a part of Senior Open

TEN PIN ALLEY

AL HARRISON

In the early years of professional bowling, it was a lot different.

Thirty some odd years ago the names of Dick Weber, Don Carter and the late Ray Bluth were carving their own niches in the history books, later to become "legendary" in the memories of those old enough to remember. Now that the Senior Pro Bowlers Tour has developed to it's own stature, a few of the legends are still out there, competitive to the end and with an inborn quality that never fades away.

Such men are going to be in our own area soon. The P.O.H. Medical Center National Senior Open runs Aug. 18-22 at Century Bowl in Waterford.

Gene Stus is our local entrant, and he has already accomplished enough to be a "legend in his own time." He will be one of the favorites along with John Handegard (all-time record holder in career money and titles).

And yes, Dick Weber will be among the competitors for the Senior title at Century Bowl.

The event kicks off Sunday, Aug. 18 with a Nine-Pin No-Tap Pro/Am Tournament. The Pro/Am is open to men and women and includes a special squad for junior bowlers.

Each adult Pro/Am participant will team up with three different professional bowlers and vie for the $1,000 guaranteed first place award. Each entry will also receive a souvenir jacket and other prizes.

Junior bowlers will also bowl with the pros and receive a souvenir shirt, but will compete for trophies only.

The good people at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital should be held in high esteem for having the vision and wherewithall to sponsor the event. They will gain much in the way of good public relations, and when it's over, will have the satisfaction of being a major factor in this tournament.

Pro/Am entries and tickets to watch the tournament sessions will be available at Century Bowl. For further information, contact Kathleen Palmer, (810) 666-4700 or (800) 414-2695.

DO YOU KNOW someone who ought to be in the Greater Detroit Bowling Hall of Fame?

If so, you can submit nominations prior to the next meeting slated for Aug. 5. It is a real honor to gain recognition to the "Hall," so if you know of someone you think deserving, send in a short resume based on their performance on the lanes, such as high averages, honor scores, tournament wins and contributions in other ways to the betterment of this sport.

All entries will be considered and voted on by the committee. Submit your selectee right away to: GDBA/DWBA, Hall of Fame Committee C/O Rose Marsh, 22601 Greater Mack Ave. P.O. Box 390, St. Clair Shores, 48030.

THE BOWLING COMPETITION of the "Senior Olympics" took place at Pama Lanes on July 18. The Gold Medal winners will advance to the "Nationals" next May in Tuscon, Ariz.

The competition is broken down in age categories, so there were lots of winners of all age groups from our Observer & Eccentric Cities.

Livonia's Hall-of Famer Mary Mohacsi took the singles in her age bracket with 640, then teamed up with fellow Livonian Bill Funke for the Mixed Doubles title.

Bill's wife, Shirley, took the bronze in her age group. Lathrup Villager Carolyn Shelton took the gold medal in singles.

The Rochester Hills duo of Gus Kapas and Benson B. Wright won the gold medal in men's doubles (70-74 bracket), Philip Ladauceur of West Bloomfield and William R. Morfitt of Walled Lake took the gold medal in 75 to 79 doubles, and Ken Livernois of Westland teamed up with Jarvis Woehlke of Dearborn for a silver medal in 65-69 doubles.

West Bloomfield's strong pair of Phil Horowitz and Mort Friedman took the gold in the 55-59 mixed doubles; Gerry and Joseph Husek, also of West Bloomfield, took the silver in mixed doubles, Muriel and John Blunden of Garden City came in for silver in 65-69 mixed doubles, Marion and Jack Converse of Troy won the gold medal in their 70-74 group, Alice and Leonard Carr brought a bronze medal home to Redford Township.

Virgil Norgrove of Plymouth teamed with Ray Fitzgerald of Pleasant Lake for a bronze medal in 55-59 doubles.

SINCE BOWLING is included among the various track and field events and other sports in the "Senior Olympics," how about the regular Olympics just starting now in Atlanta?

It must be too strenuous a game for the other Olympics, or they might be afraid that the USA would dominate (Wrong). The other nations always do well in FIQ international competition.

how to score and he knows how to finish."

Freshman Giovannini is a 6-3 guard who specializes in filling it up from outside.

"He's an excellent shooter," his new coach said. "He's a slasher-type, go-to-the-basket player. And he plays great D."

Putnam is a 6-7 forward who will shoot outside on offense but go inside where the traffic is to battle on the boards.

"He's a rugged rebounder," Holowicki said. "He's a hard-nosed type player."

The 6-1 Branch was recruited to play point guard for the Crusaders and is "very quick, a good leader and he handles the ball well," Holowicki said.

Russaw, his 6-5 teammate at Milan, is a sleeper similar to Putnam. "He's a rugged rebounder and he's very athletic. He's raw, but the athleticism is there.

"Both those (Milan) kids have great athletcism. That's why down the road we think they're going to be pretty good.

"The four of these (freshmen) guys, they didn't get much publicity. But that's okay. We have to go after these sleepers."

Technically this is not Holowicki's first recruiting class for Madonna. But it's the first time he's been able to go through a whole recruiting cycle for the Crusaders.

He was hired in May of 1995 to coach Madonna's third varsity season of men's basketball and thus was limited in the amount of recruiting he could do. If recruiting was a track race, that would be breaking from the start line while the rest of the field was completing Lap 3 of the mile.

This year Holowicki was able to eyeball high school seniors and junior college players almost the whole season.

We say almost because the 64-year-old, who spent 22 years building his legend as coach at Redford Catholic Central high, underwent quadruple bypass heart surgery in late February.

He's taking part in a rehabilitation program three days at week at Providence Hospital, is working out to stay fit and, with the help of wife Barbara, is watching his diet.

"I'm getting better every day," Holowicki said. "It's a slow steady process."

And it is not expected to keep Holowicki from pacing the sidelines and sitting on the bench when the weather turns cold, the snow begins to swirl and leather hits hardwood.

"I still like it," he said of coaching. "I still enjoy it. I like the idea of competing."

He spent time this summer working with the newcomers, getting to know them and beginning to teach them how he believes basketball should be played (it should be played well.).

"We got to know each other," he said. "They worked hard. It was a profitable summer as far as playing and scrimmaging was concerned. We scrimmaged against a couple of local colleges and some high schools."

Madonna was 8-22 with a young team a year ago.

"We'll still be young," Holowicki said.

But with the master at the controls, they might play a little older than they seem.

Comeback keeps Falcons on top

The Falcons spotted the Wildcats a 5-2 lead Thursday but, sparked by three of Jesse Hubenschmidt's six goals, ran off six unanswered goals to win 9-7 over the Wildcats at Plymouth Cultural Center.

Hubenschmidt scored the first two goals of the contest to give the 7-1 Falcons the lead but the Wildcats ran off the next five, all by different players. Dan Hunt got the Falcons started back with a pair and Jesse Hubenschmidt got three of the next four to help his team take an 8-5 lead.

Chris Allman tallied the last of the Wildcats' five straight at 6:57 of the second period but 31 seconds later Hunt began the Falcons' run. The Falcons led 2-1 after one period and 6-5 after two.

David Scott scored the Falcons' other goal. Jason Hubenschmidt started in goal and was relieved by Thomas Taylor at 7:46 of the third period.

Antoli Buliga and Jody Serecki scored twice for the Wildcats, 4-4-1, with Kirk gurney, Joe Bien and Allman getting one apiece. Gary Rye played goal for the Wildcats.

Wolverines 13, Broncos 8: Scott Lock scored four goals including his team's first three of the game Thursday to start the Wolverines on their way to a Metro Summer Hockey League victory at Plymouth.

Adrian Straka notched three goals to help the Wolverines take leads of 6-3 after the first period and 9-5 after the second. Tom McNeil went all the way in goal for the winners, now 4-3-1, and also collected an assist on the final goal of the game which came with 17 seconds to play.

Bill Trainor had a hat trick for the Broncos, 5-3, while Brent Bessey scored a pair and recorded four assists. Daryl Schimmelpeen, Brian Consolino and Ryan Kaye also scored for the Broncos, who had John Trainor in goal.

Paul Goleniak scored twice for the Wolverines and also collected four assists. Straka had five assists. Single goal scorers included Chris Regner, Brian Halas, Matt Dialak and Mike Mattila.

Huskies 8, Lakers 7: Goals 21 seconds apart in the final four minutes of play Wednesday capped a five-goal third period and gave the Huskies their first victory of the MSHL season.

Chalk it up to the scoring efforts of Kevin Swider, who scored five goals including three straight in the final period.

The Lakers took a 5-3 lead into the final period of the free-scoring affair. The Huskies rallied to tie, 6-6, but the deadlock lasted just 13 seconds. Mike Harris scored with 5:18 to play to put the Lakers back on top, 7-6.

Less than two minutes later, with 3:57 to play, Swider scored off an assist by Walt Bartels, who 21 seconds later assisted on the game-winner by Todd Kesler.

Brian Hannigan scored the first goal for the Huskies, 1-7 in the Bakes Conference, in the game at Canfield. Brent Lafond scored the Huskies' other goal.

Swider assisted on Hannigan's goal and Hannigan returned the favor as the Huskies shot out to a 2-0 lead. Hannigan totaled two assists while Bartels had three.

The Huskies led, 3-2, after one period but trailed, 5-3, after two. Greg Winegarden went all the way in goal.

The Lakers, 2-4-2 in the Bakes, got two goals from Vic Decina plus singles from Jim Pietila, Dave Daavettila, Ron Pietila, Aaron Daavettila and Harris. Shawn Miller and Rickey Maron split the game in goal.

Wins keep piling up for Motor City Mold

SOFTBALL

Just once, you'd think someone would give the Motor City Mold a game.

Just once.

It hasn't happened in a while. In fact, in the Incredible Girls Fastpitch Softball League, it hasn't happened at all. The Mold swept a pair from the Salem Lightning last Thursday, and neither game was close: 14-2 and 12-4.

Those outcomes made the Mold 16-2 overall and 13-0 in the league.

Again, strong pitching was the key for the Mold. In the first game, Jenny Sikora pitched three innings, allowing two hits and four walks, with eight strikeouts. Sarah Carson allowed one run on two hits, with two strikeouts.

Sikora's bat was also a factor: one hit, two runs batted in. Angela Litwin also had a hit, two walks and two RBI, and Sarah Freels had a hit and an RBI. Nikki Kovachevich and Tara Biro both collected three walks and three runs scored, and both Donna Logsdon and Gretchen Hudson scored twice.

In the second game, Hudson surrendered three runs on one hit and four walks, with five strikeouts, over six innings in earning the pitching win. Carson also got in one inning, allowing a hit and a walk, with one strikeout.

Sikora was 3-for-3 at the plate, with a single, double and a home run, driving in five runs. Litwin had two hits and score twice; Karrie Kovachevich had a hit, a walk and two RBI; and Biro contributed a hit, a walk and two runs scored.

In other Incredible Girls Fastpitch Softball League action, the Canton Commanders split a double-header with the Livonia Ladybugs, winning 10-7 and losing 9-8 Thursday.

In the first game, Pam Hudson went 2-for-2 at the plate, with a triple, supporting winning pitcher Krista Tinsley, who tossed a four-hitter.

Laura Stewart took the loss in the second game, despite a home run by Angie Germain.

Indians finish 3rd

The Michigan Indians baseball team placed third in the Little Caesars Federation Pee Wee Reese Under 12 Division with a 16-4 record.

The Indians are an independent team based in Plymouth and just finished their inaugural season. They won the Northville Early Bird Tournament in May and are the host team at the Garden City Sub Regionals on July 25.

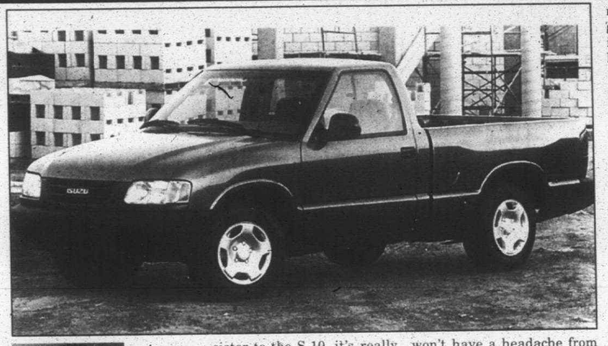
Meet an Isuzu truck that's as American as you can get

By Anne Fracassa
Avanti NewsFeatures



ROAD TEST By Anne Fracassa

No wonder you're all confused.

Can you really buy a foreign car or truck and call it American?

Yep.

Here's a vehicle that's got a "foreign" name, but it's really all-American.

This Isuzu Hombre is 92 percent U.S./Canadian parts content, has a powertrain and transmission built here in the U.S., has a General Motors platform and is assembled in Shreveport, La., at a General Motors truck plant right alongside the Chevrolet S-10.

That's more American than the last Mercury I owned. The remaining 8 percent of the Hombre is made by GM in Brazil, by the way. Hence the name, I guess.

Isuzu pickup trucks have a long history — and partnership — with General Motors. It dates back to 1971, when GM started its mini-truck product category and introduced the Isuzu-built Chevrolet LUV truck in the U.S.

More than 600,000 were sold and owned by Americans who probably thought they were buying an "American" truck. After all, it said Chevrolet on the front quarter panel, didn't it?

Although the Hombre is a sister to the S-10, it's really quite different in a number of ways. The sculptured front fascia and smoother fender lines make it quite distinct and different from the S-10. It's got a more aggressive front, as well.

The large headlamps give the Hombre a sporty, fun-to-drive look. Even the rear tailgate, taillamps, side moldings and wheelcovers aren't shared with its sister. I think this truck looks cuter than the S-10.

Yes, I said cuter. Some statistics say more than half of the people who buy compact trucks are women, so I can say "cuter."

The suspension on this Hombre is impressive. There's a stiff feel, but it's very comfortable. It handles the roughest roads with ease and you won't have a headache from the ride.

That nice ride comes from a box-section ladder-type frame with four bolted and riveted crossmembers. It's got front independent upper and lower "A" arms with coil springs and rear, two-stage springs handle load support and add to the ride's comfort.

The rear bed measures 72.6 inches by 56.6 inches. That translates into nearly 40 cubic feet of cargo space, more than enough to carry just about anything you need carted home. Towing capacity is 2,000 pounds — perfect for those jet skis.

Power is adequate for a truck of this size. This 118-horsepower 2.2-liter in-line 4-cylinder has a sophisticated fuel injection system that provides improved cold starts, reduced engine noise and great fuel economy — 23 mpg in the city and 30 mpg on the highway.

The only transmission available is a 5-speed manual with integral overdrive. All Hombre models are 2 wheel drive. That's a good choice because industry statistics show 76 percent of all light-duty pickup use calls for 2-wheel- drive applications.

There are two models to choose from: An S that has bench seats, or an upgraded XS, which has a 60/40 split bench seat. A driver's-side airbag is standard in both the S and XS.

The Isuzu Hombre XS is equipped with quite a bit of stuff usually reserved for the option list on most small pickup trucks out there, like a sliding rear window, cut-pile carpeting, rear step bumper, air conditioning, tachometer, digital clock and an AM/FM cassette stereo with four speakers.

The Hombre is safe. Side-impact door beams, 3-point safety belts, 4-wheel anti-lock brakes, a collapsible steering column, side-guard door beams, safety-cage construction, intermittent windshield wipers, daytime running lamps and roadside assistance are there to protect you.

The Hombre also is equipped with 100,000-mile replacement spark plugs and a maintenance-free battery. The warranty is 36 months or 50,000 mile limited basic; 60 month, 60,000 mile limited powertrain; and 72 month or 100,000 mile limited anti-corrosion.

That's all well and good. But what you need to know is, this mini-truck is solid, functional and fun to drive. A good choice for people who appreciate those qualities.

1996 Isuzu Hombre
Vehicle class: Small pickup.
Power: 2.2-liter in-line 4-cylinder engine.
Mileage range: 23 city / 30 highway.
Where built: Shreveport, La.
Base price: $12,063.

Things You AuTO KNOW!

True or False?

The radiator pressure cap on your car is designed to maintain cooling system pressure between 20 and 22 pounds per square inch.

False! Most cooling systems operate between 7 and 16 pounds. The system acts like a pressure cooker, which permits water to boil at a temperature higher than the normal 212 Degrees F. A hotter running engine, within specified limits, is a more efficient engine.

The pressure cap, which serves as the safety valve of the system, should be check periodically to be sure it is keeping pressure within range.
